

OPPONENTS SECTION

A photograph of two basketball players in mid-air. The player on the left is wearing a dark blue jersey with the number 27 and is holding a basketball with both hands, preparing to shoot. The player on the right is wearing a white jersey with "GEORGIA STATE" printed on it and is reaching up with both hands to block the shot. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

GEORGIA STATE

A large, detailed bronze statue of a panther, the mascot of Georgia State University. The panther is depicted in a powerful, forward-leaning stance, with its head lowered and eyes focused. The statue is highly polished, reflecting light and showing intricate details of its fur and muscles.

LONG TIME, NO SEE...

This is the first-ever time Georgia State will play Alcorn State, while several other teams will be facing the Panthers after a lapse in time.

Winthrop and Georgia State will meet for the first time since the 1991-92 season. And, UNC Asheville is back on the schedule for the first time since a 2001-02 meeting. Former A-Sun rival Gardner-Webb is back on the slate for the first time since State left the A-Sun after the 2004-05 season.

Georgia State's first official basketball game was played in the 1975-76 season when they traveled a few miles to the campus of Georgia Tech. The visiting Panthers trounced the Yellow Jackets, 80-33, to make the first game even more memorable. State won six of its first seven games played as members of the NCAA. Eight of the first nine games played were on the road. The Panthers were 6-0 at home that first year.
