Game 1: Nov. 16, 2010, 7 p.m.

MCNEESE STATE 68, GEORGIA STATE 62

Burton Coliseum • Lake Charles, La.

Despite 19 points from freshman Harold Doby in his collegiate debut, Georgia State opened the season with a 68-62 loss at McNeese State in Burton Memorial Coliseum.

Doby, a native of Augusta, Ga., came off the bench to play 30 minutes, shooting 7-of-10 from the field and knocking down 5-of-7 from the line. He finished the game with five rebounds and a pair of steals.

"Harold Doby is a very good freshman," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "He played really well tonight and made good adjustments when he needed."

After scoring 23 points in the first half for the Cowboys, the Panthers held Deigo Kapelan to just two second half points, but 18 total Panther turnovers proved to be the difference.

Trailing by as many as nine in the first half and by six early in the second half, freshman Javonte Maynor hit back-to-back three-pointers with 15:34 remaining to tie the score at 40. Maynor, who made the start in his debut, was limited in the first half after picking up two fouls 11 seconds apart, each before the first media timeout.

Maynor finished the game playing 17 minutes, scoring six points and pulling down three rebounds.

Junior Eric Buckner, making his first appearance in a Panther uniform scored six points on 3-of-6 shooting, pulling down a game-high 12 rebounds. Buckner added all three GSU block shots in a team-high 32 minutes.

Late in the second half, Doby's made a lay-up with 2:49 remaining to cut the Cowboys lead to three, but that was as close as the Panthers would get.

Junior James Fields finished the game with 11 points, finishing 7-of-10 from the free throw line. The Panthers hit just 59.3% from the free throw line, making just 16-of-27 shots.

Patrick Richard, an all-Southland Conference preseason selection, led the Cowboys at the line, going 10-of-12, finishing the game with 17 points. He added five rebounds and dished out four assists in the win.

Despite fouling out, Daniel Richard added seven points and three rebounds for the Cowboys who were out rebounded 34-26. The Panthers' benched out-scored McNeese State 36-15.

GEORGIA STATE 80, TROY 70

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Senior Dante Curry and freshman Javonte Maynor combined for 30 points and nine of Georgia State's 11 three-pointers as the Panthers defeated Troy, 80-70, in their home opener Friday at the GSU Sports Arena.

Curry scored a game-high 15 points on five treys, and Maynor, the rookie from South Gwinnett High, also scored 15 with four treys. Senior Marques Johnson and junior Jihad Ali also reached double figures for the Panthers (1-1) with 10 points each. Harold Doby led GSU on the boards with 11 rebounds, along with six points.

Georgia State's 11 three-pointers, which came on 23 attempts, are the most by the Panthers since 2007-08 and their second highest total under head coach Rod Barnes.

"It was a great win for us," commented Barnes. "I have been telling the team that we don't need to worry about winning and losing as much as we need to work on getting better. We needed to play better than we played on Tuesday night. I thought we had a great team effort and played much better this evening."

Levan Patsatsia scored 22 points on 8-of-12 shooting to lead Troy (1-2).

The Trojans dropped their second in a row after winning their season opener. Will Weathers added 14 points, four rebounds and four assists while making 8-of-12 free throws.

In a first half that featured seven lead changes, the Panthers trailed 24-23 with six minutes to play in the period before closing the half on a 14-5 run. A jumper by Maynor gave GSU the lead for good at 25-24, and Curry hit a pair of treys down the stretch, including one with three seconds left to send the Panthers into the locker room with a 37-29 advantage.

After Troy scored the first bucket of the second half to pull within 37-29, Georgia State exploded for four straight three-pointers, three in a row by Maynor and then one by Curry to push its lead to 49-31 with 15 minutes to play. From there, the Panthers maintained a double-digit advantage the rest of the way.

The Panthers were efficient on offense, connecting on 48 percent from the field and collecting 18 assists on 27 baskets.

The Panthers will play five of their next six games at home, with the lone trip to face Hampton in Virginia. State has won 5-of-7 at home dating back to the end of last season.

GEORGIA STATE 69, UTAH VALLEY 56

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Eric Buckner scored 15 points and Brandon McGee and Marques Johnson added 12 points each as Georgia State won its second straight game with a 69-56 victory over Utah Valley in the GSU Sports Arena.

Buckner, the 6-10 junior college transfer, went 5-for-6 from the field and 5-for-5 from the free throw line. He also grabbed seven rebounds and blocked three shots to lead a solid defensive effort for the Panthers (2-1).

"Eric did a really good job, especially at the free throw line," said GSU head coach Rod Barnes. "He had been struggling at the line, but he has been working at it, and tonight it showed."

"This was a tough, physical game, and our guys really fought through it, so it was a good win," continued Barnes. "Our depth really helped us, especially up front."

Georgia State led 37-34 early in the second half when McGee scored eight straight points with a pair of three-pointers sandwiched around a layup to push the GSU lead to 45-37 with 11 minutes left.

With the Panthers still holding just a six-point lead at 52-46 with seven minutes to go, freshman Devonta White, who finished with 10 points, nailed a three-pointer and then Buckner completed a three-point play that put GSU ahead, 58-48, with 6:35 to play. From there, GSU maintained its double-digit lead the rest of the way.

Georgia State shot 44 percent from the field, including 6-for-14 from three-point range, forced 20 Utah Valley turnovers and outrebounded the Wolverines, 36-20, including 16 offensive rebounds.

"We had some guys really go to the glass tonight, and that was one of the differences in the game," said Barnes.

Holton Hunsaker scored 12 points to lead Utah Valley (0-3).

With the game tied at 27-27 late in the first half, GSU scored six straight points, including Javonte Maynor's three-pointer that put the Panthers ahead 33-27 with 29 seconds left. Rory Fannon hit a jumper at the buzzer for Utah Valley, sending Georgia State to the locker room with a 33-29 lead.

SAMFORD 70, GEORGIA STATE 61, OT

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell to Samford, 70-61, in overtime at the Sports Arena on Saturday night. The Panthers led 52-45 with a 1:10 to play in regulation, but Samford's Andy King hit a game-tying three-pointer with 11 seconds left, and GSU had a game-winning basket waved off for a player control foul with three seconds left.

Samford (4-3) scored the first seven points in the overtime and held on for the victory.

Freshman Javonte Maynor led Georgia State (2-2) with 12 points. Junior-transfer Brandon McGee contributed nine points and seven rebounds, and senior Marques Johnson added eight points, five rebounds and four assists.

Georgia State led the entire second half and held a 55-50 advantage with 41 seconds left after Dante Curry hit a pair of free throws for the Panthers. Samford's Josh Bedwell managed to draw a foul on a three-point attempt with 21 seconds to play and hit all three, pulling the Bulldogs within 55-53.

GSU's Johnson sank one free throw for a three-point advantage, but when he missed the second, King was able to tie the game with his three-pointer. Jihad Ali drove to the basket and scored what appeared to be the winning basket with 3.7 seconds left, but he was called for the charge, sending the game to overtime.

In the extra session, after Samford hit a pair of field goals, the Bulldogs pulled away as Jeffrey Merritt threw up a desperation heave as the shot clock expired. The ball bounced off the glass and around the rim before dropping through the net for a three-pointer and a seven-point Samford lead with 1:53 left in the overtime.

Samford went 23-for-30 at the free throw line.

It marked the sixth time the two squads have gone to overtime over the 47 times the two have met-up. With the win, the Bulldogs tied the overtime matchups 3-3 and closed the series to 24-23 in favor of the Panthers. Samford has now won three straight dating back to 2003.

The Panthers led by as many as 11 points in the first half as they connected on 50 percent from the field, including five three-pointers. In the second half, GSU managed to shoot just 32 percent, allowing the Bulldogs to remain within striking distance.

HAMPTON 60, GEORGIA STATE 56 (OT)

HU Convocation Center • Hampton, Va.

Despite a double-double from junior Eric Buckner, Georgia State dropped its second straight overtime contest, falling to Hampton, 60-56 on Tuesday night. Buckner led the Panthers with 20 points on 10-16 shooting, while pulling down 10 rebounds.

The Panthers (2-3) held Hampton (6-1) to just 33.3 percent shooting from the field and 23.5 percent from three-point range, but the Pirates made 26-of-39 from the free throw line. State was just 9-of-20 from the charity stripe.

"We just made a few too many mistakes tonight," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "I take full responsibility for that and I am going to work to get us to take better care of the ball down the stretch."

After exchanging three-pointers to open overtime, back-to-back free throws by Darrion Pellum and a jumper by Danny Agbelese gave the Pirates a four-point lead, which they never relinquished.

Pellum, coming off a career-high 33 points, led the Pirates with 21 points, including a stretch of 13-of-14 Hampton points in the second half. His three-pointer with 8:25 remaining gave the Pirates their first lead of the second half.

With the score tied at 46, Brandon Tunnell knocked down a jumper and Danny Agbelese followed with a free-throw to give the Pirates a 49-46 lead with 1:01 remaining.

Redshirt-junior Jihad Ali made one-of-two from the free throw line to cut the deficit to two with 42 seconds remaining, before another Buckner dunk tied the game at 49 with 19 second left.

Hampton missed a pair of jumpers with less than eight seconds remaining to send the game to overtime.

In the first half, with Hampton leading 9-4, the Panthers held the Pirates without a field goal for 11:01. And went on a 15-8 run, holding Hampton to just eight made free throws before Mike Tuitt hit a jumper with 3:26 remaining.

Hampton did not make another field goal until the 15:55 mark of the second half, a stretch of over 18 minutes.

When Buckner opened the second half with an emphatic dunk, it gave the Panthers a 27-22 lead. The Panthers extended its lead to 35-25 on another Buckner dunk with 15:48 left in the game.

Freshman Devonta White scored a career-high 14 points on 5-of-10 shooting, including a pair of three's, while pulling down six rebounds and dishing out five assists.

GEORGIA STATE 64, JAMES MADISON 63

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Jihad Ali rebounded a missed shot and made a layup as time expired to lift Georgia State to 64-63 victory over James Madison in the Colonial Athletic Association opener for both teams Saturday at the GSU Sports Arena.

With the score tied 62-all, James Madison's (6-2, 0-1 CAA) Devon Moore went to the free throw line with 3.5 seconds left. He made the first to put the Dukes ahead, but missed the second, and Brandon McGee rebounded for Georgia State (3-3, 1-0 CAA). After a timeout, the Panthers' Harold Doby inbounded the ball from in front of the JMU bench with 2.7 seconds on the clock.

Doby found Marques Johnson, who got a good look from the wing, but the JMU's Andrey Semenov managed to deflect the shot. Ali grabbed the rebound under the basket and laid it in just ahead of the horn.

"I told our team, never feel like we cannot win the game," said GSU head coach Rod Barnes. "You've got to believe, until the game is over, that we're going to win it, and we talked about that in the huddle. Marques got off a good shot, and Jihad made a great play to grab the rebound."

GSU overcame a 21-point, 15-rebound effort by JMU's 6-10 standout Denzel Bowles with a balanced attack. The Panthers were led by a pair of players of the bench as McGee scored 15 points and junior Josh Micheaux added 12. Ali contributed eight points and career-high 10 rebounds.

"We knew he was going to make shots, he's that good," said Barnes. "We talked about not letting him catch it. Early on, we let him catch it too easily and we didn't put enough ball pressure on their guards. Down the stretch, I thought Harold Doby did a good job on him."

After McGee's three-point play gave Georgia State a 60-55 lead with just under five minutes to go, Julius Wells nailed his second straight trey for the Dukes, pulling them within two. Eric Buckner answered with a layup to put GSU up 62-58 with three minutes left.

From there, Semenov and Moore each hit one of two free throws for James Madison before Bowles tied the game at 62-all with a pair from the charity strip with 26 seconds left. After a GSU turnover, Moore put a short jumper in the lane, and James Fields was called for the foul with three seconds. He made the first, but missed the second, setting up the last-second heroics.

Coming off a double-double on Tuesday at Hampton, junior Eric Buckner added eight points and seven rebounds in just 13 minutes of action.

WESTERN MICHIGAN 61, GEORGIA STATE 59

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell to Western Michigan, 61-59, on Flenard Whitfield's basket with less than a second remaining on Saturday night at the GSU Sports Arena.

Brandon McGee's three-pointer tied the game at 59-all for Georgia State (3-4) with 12.5 seconds left. After a timeout, Western Michigan (4-4) inbounded the ball with seven seconds, and Williams hit a short jumper in the lane with just 0.6 seconds remaining.

The contest was the fourth straight for GSU to come down to the final seconds of regulation. One game earlier, the Panthers defeated James Madison on a Jihad Ali's buzzer beater, following consecutive overtime losses.

McGee led the Panthers with 16 points and eight rebounds, and Jihad Ali added 12 points. Whitfield paced the Broncos with 17 points and seven rebounds.

"We did a lot of good things but just didn't make enough plays down the stretch," said GSU head coach Rod Barnes. "We didn't finish strong. We had some great opportunities; we just didn't close the door."

Georgia State took a 54-44 lead on McGee's layup with 8:31 to play, but Western Michigan reeled off seven straight points, pulling within 54-51 on a jumper by Mike Douglas.

A pair of free throws by Demetrius Ward with 2:34 left moved the Broncos within one, and then Whitfield gave Western Michigan its first lead of the second half on a jumper with 1:46 left.

Matt Stainbrook extended the lead to three with a stick-back layup with 36 seconds to go before McGee's three from the corner off a feed from Ali tied the game at 59-all.

The Panthers built a 29-22 halftime lead, fueled by a 10-0 run midway through the period on which five different players scored. Meanwhile, the GSU defense held Western Michigan without a field goal for nearly nine minutes.

Georgia State shot 44 percent from the field and outrebounded the Broncos, 37-32. Western Michigan managed just 36 percent from the field, including 1-for-12 from three-point range, but hit 18 of 22 free throws.

Sophomore James Vincent added three emphatic dunks in the game, finishing 3-of-3 from the field for six points, five rebounds and four blocked shots.

GEORGIA STATE 76, FLORIDA A&M 67

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Brandon McGee recorded his first double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds and Jihad Ali added 15 points and nine boards as Georgia State defeated Florida A&M, 76-67, Saturday at the GSU Sports Arena.

Freshman Devonta White contributed 13 points, five rebounds and three assists for the Panthers, who evened their record at 4-4.

"I have to give Florida A&M a lot of credit as they came in here and played hard tonight," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "We were fortunate enough to get the win tonight, but I am disappointed in our effort. We are going to have to be much better if we are going to get the win on Wednesday night at Georgia Southern."

Amin Stevens led Florida A&M (5-6) with 25 points and 11 rebounds, and the Rattlers managed to stay close by hitting 20 of 22 free throws, despite entering the game at 55 percent on the season.

Georgia State built a 62-47 lead with seven minutes to play before FAMU scored 13 straight points, closing to within 62-60 with 3:24 left.

Ali answered for GSU with his fifth three-pointer of the game for a 65-60 lead. Eric Buckner blocked FAMU's next shot and then responded on the offensive end with a rebound and dunk to push the Panthers' lead to 67-60.

Georgia State then made seven of eight free throws in the final 1:36 to seal the victory.

Ali, the junior from Atlanta, went 5-for-6 from beyond the arc for his season-high 15 points. He also had two blocked shots and two steals.

Buckner finished with eight points, five rebounds and a career-best five blocked shots.

After leading 31-29 at the half, the Panthers opened the second half with an 8-1 run to build a 39-30 lead.

Game 9: Dec. 22, 2010, 7 p.m.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 74, GEORGIA STATE 72 OTHanner Fieldhouse • Statesboro, Ga.

Georgia State mounted a furious rally at the end of regulation, but Georgia Southern proved to be too much in overtime as the Panthers fell 74-72 at Hanner Fieldhouse on Wednesday night. Junior Brandon McGee recorded his second double-double of the season, scoring 23 points and pulling down a team-high 10 boards in the loss.

After trailing the entire first half, Georgia Southern (4-9, 0-2 SoCon) opened the second half with a 25-8 run to take a 52-39 lead with 10:22 remaining in the second half. State trailed by double digits until head coach Rod Barnes' squad took control with less than two minutes left to send the game to overtime.

Freshman Devonta White started the rally with a pair of free throws, cutting Southern's lead to 63-55 with 1:58 remaining. Next time down the court, White made the first of two free throws and missed the second as junior Eric Buckner grabbed the rebound and made the put-back to cut the deficit to four.

Buckner, who was hampered by foul trouble, finished with 14 points and six rebounds in just 22 minutes of action. The junior shot 7-of-8 from the field as the Panthers shot 50.9 percent for the game.

White, who made his second straight start, finished with seven points, including 5-of-6 from the free throw line. The freshman made one of his three steals and scored a lay-up with 29 seconds remaining to cut the Eagles lead to two.

James Fields, from nearby Savannah, Ga. and playing in front of a large crowd of family and friends, scored the tying basket with 8.4 seconds remaining to send the game into overtime. It marked the Panthers third overtime game of the year and fifth game this season not decided until either the last possession or overtime.

Buckner scored the Panthers first six points in overtime before fouling out and gave State a 69-68 lead midway through overtime.

After Southern scored four straight points in the extra frame, McGee tied the game with a three-pointer with just over a minute remaining.

Southern's Ben Drayton made a pair of free throws with 10 seconds remaining to secure the win.

Freshman Harold Doby's last second missed jumper in the lane was waved off as time had already expired.

Drayton finished the game with 19 points on 7-of-12 shooting.

With the loss, Georgia State fell to 4-5 on the season. It marked the 43rd time the two in-state rivals had met.

Southern's Eric Ferguson finished the game with 17 points and seven rebounds, while Jelani Hewitt added 10.

Game 10: Dec. 29, 2010, 4:30 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 72, TEXAS A&M-CC 42Dr Pepper Classic • McKenzie Arena • Chattanooga, Tenn.

Georgia State knocked down nine three-pointers and used a smothering defense to earn a 72-42 victory over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in the opening game of the Dr. Pepper Classic at McKenzie Arena on Wednesday afternoon. Senior Dante Curry led State with 18 points, knocking down 6-of-10 from three-point range.

The 30-point victory was the largest under fourth year head coach Rod Barnes, while the 42 points allowed were the fourth fewest allowed in the history of the program. Two of the previous three lowest scoring games have also come under Barnes, including the lowest mark in school history, 33 points, set last year against Howard.

The Panthers shot a season-high 52.8 percent from the field, including 45 percent from three-point range, while holding the Islanders to just 33.3 percent from the field and 7.1 percent from three-point range.

"I thought our guys got off to a good start," commented Barnes. "After a tough loss last week, I thought we showed great character tonight. We had some guys really step up. They have been working and practicing extremely hard and it paid off tonight with our best game of the year."

Curry, who came off the bench and played 25 minutes, knocked down five three's in the first-half on the way to a career-high six treys.

"I have really been challenging Dante because he is a guy who I know can shoot the ball extremely well. We have a lot of confidence in him as we know he can knock down big shots for us and he proved that tonight."

Freshman Devonta White, making his third straight start, tied his career-high with 14 points and five assists, knocking down 5-of-6 from the field.

Junior Brandon McGee finished just shy of his third straight double-double, scoring nine points and pulling down nine rebounds.

Georgia State dominated the first half, taking a 37-19 lead into the break. The Panthers opened the game by holding the Islanders to without a field goal for the first 9:13 and led 20-2 at the second media timeout. State built its lead to as much as 22 with just under three minutes remaining in the half.

The Panthers knocked down 8-of-14 three-pointers in the opening half, while holding the Islanders to 33.3 percent from the field.

State continued to pressure in the second half, while the Panthers bench stepped up as Barnes rested several starters for tomorrow night's game. State's bench outscored the Islanders 37-12 for the game.

Game 11: Dec. 30, 2010, 7 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 81, CHATTANOOGA 76Dr Pepper Classic • McKenzie Arena • Chattanooga, Tenn.

Eric Buckner scored a career-high 23 points and grabbed eight rebounds and Dante Curry poured in 21 points on seven three-point field goals as Georgia State captured the title of the Dr. Pepper Classic with an 81-76 victory over host Chattanooga Thursday night at McKenzie Arena.

Curry followed an 18-point effort in the tournament opener against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi to claim Most Valuable Player honors. His 21 points tonight equaled his career best, set in his first game in a GSU uniform against Georgia Tech, and his seven treys are the most by a Panther since Thomas Terrell also nailed seven against Florida Atlantic in 2001-02.

Georgia State improved to 6-5 and have won four of their last six, while Chattanooga, which had won 13 of 20 Dr. Pepper Classics, fell to 7-7 on the season.

"I am so proud of our team," commented head coach Rod Barnes after the game. "I am just so excited for this team. They deserve to be raising that trophy tonight."

Curry made his first start of the season, filling in for Jihad Ali. The senior finished the game 7-of-13 from the field and 7-of-12 from three-point range.

Buckner, who was also named to the all-tournament team, finished 10-of-11 from the field and 3-of-4 from the free throw line, including a pair of key ones with just over two minutes remaining in the game.

The Panthers finished the tournament trailing for only 12 seconds of action in earning the two wins.

The Panthers built an early first half lead, before pulling away with a barrage of three-pointers. State knocked down three straight three-pointers with just under ten minutes remaining in the half to start to pull away.

A pair of free throws by junior Brandon McGee with about two minutes remaining in the half gave the Panthers a 39-24 lead, their biggest of the game, before Chattanooga rallied, cutting the deficit to eight at 39-31 as the horn sounded.

The Mocs continued to heat up in the second half, led by Omar Wattad and DeAntre Jefferson, who each finished with 19 points a piece.

Ricky Taylor made the first of two free throws with 2:34 remaining to cut the Panthers lead to four points, before Buckner made the pair of key free throws.

Freshman Devonta White knocked down a key jumper with 1:26 remaining to finally put the game out of reach. Making his fourth straight start, White finished with 10 points and four assists.

The Panthers shot a season high 54.5 percent from the field, knocking down 10-of-24 from behind the arc.

Game 12: Jan. 3, 2011, 7 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 76, VCU 66Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Eric Buckner poured in a career-high 28 points and grabbed nine rebounds to lead Georgia State to a 76-66 victory over VCU Monday at the GSU Sports Arena, giving the Panthers their first victory over VCU in 13 tries since joining the Colonial Athletic Association in 2005.

Georgia State won its third straight to improve to 7-5, 2-0 in the CAA, while VCU fell to 9-5, 1-1 CAA.

After going 12-for-16 from the field tonight, the 6-10 Buckner has now made 33 of his last 39 shots over four games.

A pair of players scored in double figures off the bench for the Panthers as junior Josh Micheaux contributed 14 points and five rebounds, and senior Marques Johnson added 12 points.

The Panthers, who led the entire second half, shot 50.9 percent from the field, topping the 50-percent mark for the fourth straight game, while holding VCU to just 33.3 percent shooting, including 6-for-23 from beyond the arc. Georgia State outrebounded the Rams, 43-29.

"I thought we did a really good job all night handling VCU's pressure," commented head coach Rod Barnes.

"I thought Eric Buckner was special tonight. He showed the type of impact player he could be."

VCU featured four players in double figures, led by Jamie Skeen with 16. Bradford Burgess scored 13, and Darius Theus and Joey Rodriguez added 10 points each.

The Panthers took a 34-30 advantage into the intermission and then opened the second half with a jumper by Johnson and then a dunk by Buckner to quickly build an eight-point advantage.

After a bucket by VCU's Ed Nixon, Buckner made back-to-back layups to push the lead to 10 at 42-32 with 16 minutes to play, and from there, the Panthers managed to keep the Rams at arms length. VCU twice closed to within six points with the ball, but GSU came up with key defensive stops and hit 14 of 19 free throws in the second half to seal the win.

Georgia State trailed by seven points at 22-15 midway through the first half before tying the game with an 8-1 run, highlighted by back-to-back jumpers by Johnson.

"I thought we had some guys step up and make some free throws down the stretch and that is what we are going to need to do to be competitive every night in this league."

UNC WILMINGTON 59, GEORGIA STATE 56

Trask Coliseum • Wilmington, N.C.

Trevor Deloach nailed a three-pointer at the buzzer to give UNC Wilmington a 59-56 victory over Georgia State on Wednesday night at Trask Coliseum. The Seahawks overcame a career-high 27 points from senior Dante Curry, who knocked down seven three-pointers for the second time in less than a week.

Curry, who was named CAA co-Player of the Week on Monday, nailed 9-of-13 from the field and 7-of-10 from three-point range. However, State hit just 33 percent, 6-of-18, from the free throw line, which proved to be more than the difference in the game.

The loss ended Georgia State's three-game winning streak as the Panthers fell to 7-6 overall and 2-1 in the CAA.

With the score tied at 56, junior Josh Micheaux missed a jumper that would have gave the Panthers a two-point lead. Following a 30-second timeout by the Seahawks, Deloach knocked down the three from well beyond the arc for the win.

UNC Wilmington, led by first year coach Buzz Peterson, improved to 8-6 overall and 2-1 in conference action.

Curry opened the game with a hot-hand, hitting a pair of three-pointers in the first minute to give Georgia State an early 6-2 lead.

The Seahawks followed with an 11-0 run, holding the Panthers without a basket for more than seven minutes, before senior Marques Johnson nailed back-to-back jumpers to cut deficit to six.

Wilmington continued to pull away, extending its lead to 13 points on a jumper by Matt Wilson, giving the Seahawks a 27-14 lead, their biggest lead of the night with 6:18 to go in the opening period.

The Panthers followed with a run of their own, outscoring the Seahawks 11-3 over the final six minutes of the half, as Curry once again knocked down two more three-pointers.

State held Wilmington without a basket over the final 3:45 to go into half down just 30-25.

Micheaux's putback with 14:27 remaining in the second half capped an 8-0 Panther run and gave State its first lead, 36-35, since the first two minutes of the game.

Junior Eric Buckner, coming off a career-high 28 points, was held in check by the Seahawks defense for the first 30 minutes of the game, but his first basket with 12:02 remaining in the game seemed to turn the momentum in the Panthers favor and tied the game. He finished with eight points and 12 rebounds.

Each team was held to just one basket over the final 3:44, before Wilmington's buzzer-beater to win the game.

Chad Tomko, an All-CAA selection, finished with 19 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Seahawks.

GEORGIA STATE 73, TOWSON 65

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

James Vincent scored a career-high 11 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Georgia State to a 73-65 win over Towson in a Colonial Athletic Association game Saturday at the GSU Sports Arena.

With the win, Georgia State moved to 3-1 in the CAA and 8-6 overall. Towson fell to 4-10, 0-4 in the CAA. The Panthers are 6-2 at home this season and won for the fifth straight time at home against the Tigers.

Dante Curry scored a game-high 12 points for the Panthers on four three-pointers, and Jihad Ali added 11 points, while James Fields handed out a career-best nine assists.

"I was really proud of our guys tonight," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "We didn't play our best basketball, but we did what we needed to do to earn the win. We just keep building confidence and a win like this will only add to that."

Leading 41-38 early in the second half, the Panthers scored 14 straight points in just four minutes to build a 55-38 lead with 10:34 to play. Ali started the spurt with a three-pointer, Vincent had back-to-back dunks, and Curry punctuated the run with a trey.

"James Vincent came through for us. He has great potential and I thought he had a chance to make a great impact for us tonight. On the defensive side, he was able to affect some shots and then on the offensive end, gave us a great inside post presence."

Towson managed to pull within eight points at 67-59 with 3:39 to play, but Eric Buckner answered with a dunk. Buckner finished with seven points and five boards.

After leading 33-32 at the half, Georgia State shot 55.6 percent from the field in the second half to outscore the Tigers, 40-33 after the intermission. The Panthers were at 50 percent for the game, marking the fifth contest out of the last six in which GSU has shot 50 percent or better.

Georgia State hit 11 of 25 three-pointers including four by Curry, three by freshman Javonte Maynor, who finished with nine points, and three by Ali, who also contributed four rebounds. It tied for the second most three-pointers in a CAA game since the Panthers joined the league in 2005.

Braxton Dupree led the Tigers with 21 points and nine rebounds. Three other Towson starters reached double figures as Josh Brown scored 14 points, Isaiah Philmore 13 and Rashawn Polk 12, but the GSU bench outscored Towson's, 30-2.

JAMES MADISON 79, GEORGIA STATE 67JMU Convocation Center • Harrisonburg, Va.

The Georgia State basketball team escaped the snow and ice in Atlanta but fell at James Madison, 79-67, Thursday at the JMU Convocation Center.

The game was originally scheduled to be played Wednesday but snow and ice in Atlanta delayed the Panthers' travel and postponed the game to Thursday.

Freshman Javonte Maynor led Georgia State (8-7, 3-2 CAA) with 14 points off the bench, and senior Marques Johnson equalled his career scoring high with 12 points, along with five rebounds and four assists. Despite the loss, the Panthers have won four of their last six games.

Five players scored in double figures for James Madison, which won its eighth straight game to improve to 14-3 overall, 4-1 in the CAA, including a perfect 8-0 at home.

"We looked like a team that had missed a few days of practice (due to weather)," said GSU head coach Rod Barnes. "We were not in sync, especially defensively."

"But I thought our kids showed great resilience in continuing to fight back," continued Barnes. "We had an unusual week with the weather, this is a tough place to come into and James Madison is a very good team. We'll be much better Saturday."

James Madison shot 59 percent from the field, the best figure that any opponent has managed this season against Georgia State, which leads the CAA in field goal percentage defense. The Dukes hit 10 of 16 from three-point range. Meanwhile the Panthers, who had shot 50 percent or better in five of its last six games, hit only 36 percent tonight.

After falling behind by as many as 19 points at 55-36 with 8:49 left, GSU used an 11-2 run over the next two minutes to quickly pull within 10 at 57-47 with 6:36 still to play. But Julius Wells answered with a three for JMU, and the Panthers could not get their deficit to single digits until a trey by Maynor brought them within 71-63 with 1:24 left. The Dukes made seven of eight free throws to seal the victory.

Andrey Semenov led JMU with 16 points off the bench, while Humpty Hitchens and Devon Moore added 13 points each. Leading scorer Denzel Bowles managed 12 points, 11 rebounds and five assists, and Julius Wells chipped in 11 points.

GEORGE MASON 66, GEORGIA STATE 51Patriot Center • Fairfax, Va.

Playing its second road game in less than 48 hours, Georgia State fell at George Mason, 66-51, Saturday afternoon at the Patriot Center.

The Panthers dropped their second straight to fall to 8-8 overall, 3-3 in the CAA. Dante Curry led Georgia State with 12 points on four three-pointers, and Marques Johnson and Brandon McGee added 10 points each.

Mason improved to 12-5 overall, 4-2 CAA, including a perfect 8-0 at home. Preseason all-CAA selection Cam Long led the Patriots with 18 points, and Ryan Pearson added 14.

The Panthers stayed close for much of the game and were within 43-41 after a three-point play by James Fields with 9:31 to play. But George Mason scored the next nine points to build a 52-41 lead at 7:06. Curry stopped the run with a trey cut the Panthers' deficit to eight, but Georgia State could get no closer the rest of the way.

"We put ourselves in position, within a basket against a really good team on the road, but we just couldn't make enough plays down the stretch," said GSU head coach Rod Barnes.

The Patriots held Georgia State's leading scorer, Eric Buckner, scoreless as the 6-10 post player was just 0-for-2 from the field while battling a slight leg injury.

Both teams started slowly, and GSU held an 11-8 lead after a three-pointer by McGee with 10 minutes left in the first half. But the Panthers endured a scoring drought of nearly seven minutes to fall behind 20-11 before Curry's trey broke the ice at the 3:38 mark. Despite the cold spell, GSU trailed just 24-21 at the intermission. The Panthers managed to tie the game at 25-all early in the second half but could never get the lead back.

In the middle of a grueling stretch with three straight road games against three of the top teams in the CAA, the Panthers struggled to score, shooting just 35 percent from the field and committing 20 turnovers while scoring a season-low 51 points.

"The schedule is tough right now," said Barnes, whose Panthers played at James Madison Thursday night in a game postponed by the winter weather in Atlanta, "but to be the type of basketball team that we want to be, we have to learn how to win these type of tough road games."

On a positive note, the Panthers were much improved from the free throw line for the second straight game, going 11-for-14 to follow Thursday's 12-for-15 effort at JMU. However, Mason shot 31 free throws to just 14 for GSU.

Siegel Center • Richmond, Va.

Playing its third straight road game, Georgia State fell to first-place VCU, 71-54, Wednesday at the Siegel Center in Richmond, Va.

James Fields scored a career-high 13 points and Jihad Ali contributed eight points, seven rebounds and two blocks for the Panthers, who dropped their third straight to fall to 8-9 overall, 3-4 in the CAA. Dante Curry and Josh Micheaux added eight points each.

VCU won its fifth straight and improved to 9-0 at home as freshman Rob Brandenburg scored a career-high 23 points. The Rams improved to 14-5 overall and 6-1 in the CAA to sit atop the conference standings, tied with Hofstra.

"VCU is a very good team, and they were really good tonight on their home floor," said GSU head coach Rod Barnes, whose squad handed the Rams their only conference loss two weeks ago in Atlanta. "They were a different team tonight than the one we played in Atlanta. And we were, too. We let their pressure bother us, especially in the first half, and we let the game be played at their pace instead of ours."

The Panthers, still without starting point guard Devonta White, were hurt by 24 turnovers against VCU's press.

Brandenburg, the reigning CAA Rookie of the Week, topped the 20-point mark for the second time in three games. Jamie Skeen added 15 points and seven rebounds for the Rams.

"We knew Brandenburg was very capable," said Barnes. "He's playing with a lot of confidence right now, and he should - he has a lot of weapons around him. You try to double Skeen in the post, and you want to keep an eye on Joey Rodriguez and Bradford Burgess, and that opens up things for Brandenburg. He took advantage of his opportunities."

Both teams started slowly, and Georgia State held an early 9-6 lead midway through the first half before the Rams scored 12 straight to take an 18-9 lead. VCU extended its advantage to 35-18 at the intermission.

The Panthers opened the second half with a 12-3 run as Curry hit a pair of treys to pull GSU within eight points at 38-30 four minutes into the period. But the Rams answered with a 9-0 spurt to move ahead 47-30 and were able to maintain control from there.

DELAWARE 64, GEORGIA STATE 62

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State rallied from a 14-point deficit in the second half before falling to Delaware, 64-62, Saturday at the GSU Sports Arena on Jawan Carter's three-pointer at the buzzer, which rolled around the rim before falling through the hoop.

Eric Buckner led Georgia State (8-10, 3-5 CAA) with 18 points, six rebounds and three blocks. Jihad Ali added a season-high 16 points, along with seven rebounds, three assists and three steals.

"We put them in a position to shoot a contested three-pointer and unfortunately, they made a great shot," commented head coach Rod Barnes following the tough loss.

"We really played the game the way it was supposed to be played down the stretch and made some key free throws, but unfortunately, it was a tough shot at the end that cost us."

Carter scored 13 of his 15 points in the second half, and Devon Saddler led the Blue Hens (10-8, 5-3 CAA) with 17 points and five assists.

Brandon McGee's jumper with the shot clock running down put the Panthers ahead, 62-60, with 55 seconds left. Alphonso Dawson made one of two free throws with 42 seconds to go to pull Delaware within one. Georgia State ran down most of the shot clock before losing the ball out of bounds, and the Blue Hens inbounded with 12.6 seconds remaining.

Carter's shot from the top of the key was contested but it found the rim and appeared as if was going to bounce out before falling through for the win.

Georgia State trailed by 10 at the half, 35-25, and then fell behind by as many as 14 early in the second half before beginning its comeback, using a 19-4 run to take a 47-46 lead with 10:51 to play. Five different players scored on the spurt, including treys by Ali, Javonte Maynor, and James Fields capped it with a driving layup.

"We really started to defend better," said Barnes on his team trailing by 14. "I thought we started to limit them to one shot in the second half and because of that, we had a chance to get some baskets."

Neither team led by more than four points the rest of the way as the final 10 minutes included six lead changes and four ties.

State finished 19 of 26 (73.1 percent) from the free throw line, but shot just 3-of-10 from behind the arc.

Redshirt-junior Brandon McGee finished with 11 points and eight rebounds, knocking down 7-of-10 from the free throw line.

DREXEL 57, GEORGIA STATE 33Daskalakis Athletic Center • Philadelphia, Pa.

On a night where the rims in the Daskalakis Athletic Center were as cold as the frigid temperatures outside, Georgia State fell to Drexel 57-33. The Panthers were held to just 29.2 percent from the field and were limited to just four free throw attempts.

Junior Eric Buckner led the Panthers with eight points, four rebounds and two blocked shots as he moved within three of the school's single season top ten with 37 this season.

Georgia State (8-11, 3-6 CAA) lost for the fifth straight time, four of which have come on the road against teams that have combined for just one home loss this season. Drexel improved to 8-1 at home this season with the win.

The 33 points scored were the fewest in the history of the program, surpassing the 38 scored at Utah in the Preseason NIT in 2003.

"You have to give Drexel a lot of credit tonight," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "I thought our guys did a good job on defense in the first half and made them force some shots. However, in the second half, they were able to work for some open baskets and were able to pull away."

Drexel (13-6, 5-4 CAA) was led by Samme Givens who finished with 16 points and 14 rebounds. Givens is the lone player in the CAA averaging a double-double a game.

Gerald Colds and Frantz Massenat scored 15 and 10 points respectively for the Dragons, who only trailed 2-0 just over a minute into the game.

The Dragons opened the game on a 12-3 run over the first 15 minutes of the game, holding the Panthers to just one basket as the Panthers were 1-of-14 to start the game. State managed to shoot just 23.1 percent in the first half and were 0-of-5 from three-point range.

Buckner helped give the Panthers some momentum going into the half, scoring six straight points late before senior Marques Johnson hit a jumper with 50 seconds remaining to cut Drexel's lead to 18-13.

Drexel was equally as cold in the first half, shooting just 30.4 percent and was 4-of-11 from the free throw line in the opening period.

Senior Dante Curry nailed the first of his two three pointers with 15:28 to go in the second half to cut Drexel's lead to nine, the closest State got in the second half. Curry finished with six points.

Marques Johnson finished the game with eight points in a team-high 31 minutes.

OLD DOMINION 51, GEORGIA STATE 48Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell for the second time in three games and the fourth time this season on a last-second shot as Old Dominion's Frank Hassell put back a missed shot with 6.6 seconds and the Monarchs escaped with a 51-48 victory Wednesday at the GSU Sports Arena.

The Panthers led 48-47 when Hassell grabbed a missed shot by Darius James, put it in and was fouled. He completed a three-point play, and ODU added another free throw after a GSU turnover for the final margin.

GSU dropped its sixth straight to fall to 8-12 and 3-7 CAA. Brandon McGee led the Panthers with 14 points.

"We had opportunities tonight, but unfortunately we turned the ball over one too many times," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "They are a good rebounding team and we missed one at the end that might have been able to seal the game for us."

Hassell finished with 15 points to lead Old Dominion, which improved to 16-5 overall and 7-3 in conference.

"I thought we showed a lot of resilience and our guys played with great effort. I thought our entire team played hard, but it is unfortunate that we are not able to make that last place to win it."

Georgia State took a 48-44 lead on Dante Curry's three-pointer with 4:07 to play, but that was the last basket for the Panthers. Still, GSU allowed ODU only three free throws over the next four minutes and needed just one last defensive stand.

James drove the lane with less than 10 seconds left and missed a pull-up jumper. But Old Dominion ranks second in the nation in rebounding, and Hassell came up with the offensive rebound on the baseline to score the bucket.

Georgia State held the Monarchs to just 36 percent shooting from the field, including 2-for-14 from three-point range, but ODU went 17-for-23 at the line, while the Panthers shot just eight free throws, making six.

The Panthers had the advantage early, leading by as many as 10 points midway through the first half. GSU was ahead 21-16 with five four minutes until halftime, but ODU closed the half with a 6-2 run to take 24-23 lead into the locker room.

A three-pointer by Javonte Maynor put the Panthers ahead, 28-27, with 16:54 left, and the GSU held the lead until the closing seconds.

Maynor scored 11 points off the bench, and Curry added 10.

NORTHEASTERN 70, GEORGIA STATE 65

Matthews Arena • Boston, Mass.

Trailing by 19 points with just less than seven minutes remaining, Georgia State mounted a furious rally that fell just short at Northeastern on Saturday afternoon. The Panthers held the Huskies without a field goal over the final 6:56, but fell 70-65 at Matthews Arena.

Joel Smith's lay-up gave the Huskies a 57-38 lead, but it was the last field goal they would make. The Panthers finished the game on a 27-13 run, as the Huskies made 13 free throws, finishing the game 19-of-22 from the free throw line.

Freshman Javonte Maynor nailed his fourth three-pointer of the game with 1:06 remaining to cut the Huskies lead to 64-59 and continue to swing momentum in the Panthers favor, but State could not get any closer.

Maynor was one of four Panthers in double figures and finished the game with 12 points. Junior Eric Buckner led the Panthers with 13 points and seven rebounds.

Georgia State lost for the seventh straight time, five of which have come on the road, to fall to 8-13 overall and 3-8 in the CAA.

Northeastern (7-15, 3-8 CAA) won for the third straight time after starting conference play 0-8.

All-CAA honoree Chaison Allen led the Huskies with 22 points and eight rebounds, while dishing out four assists. He was one of four Huskies in double-figures.

Georgia State's bench came up big for head coach Rod Barnes, outscoring Northeastern 46-2. Redshirt-junior Jihad Ali finished with 11 points off the bench on 4-of-7 shooting, including two three-pointers.

Junior James Fields scored 10 points and dished out seven assists, while junior Josh Micheaux finished with seven points, seven rebounds and a team-high three steals.

Despite fouling out, Joel Smith finished with 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting for Northeastern. Jonathan Lee and Ryan Pierson also scored in double figures for the Huskies, adding 14 and 10 points respectively.

Smith scored nine straight points for Northeastern over a five-minute stretch of the first half, as the Huskies built a 12-point lead. Back-to-back lay-ups by Allen capped an 11-0 run with 8:26 remaining in the first half.

Freshman Harold Doby's steal and dunk with 1:37 left in the half capped a 5-0 Panther run and cut the Huskies lead to 28-21, before Northeastern answered with a run of their own to extend the lead to 33-23 at halftime.

Georgia State finished the game forcing 20 Northeastern turnovers and was able to turn it into 16 points, but the Panthers managed to shoot just 37.1 percent from the field and were 8-of-24 from behind the arc.

Game 22: Feb. 2, 2011, 7 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 63, UNC-WILMINGTON 58, OT

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Javonte Maynor hit a three-pointer in overtime to put Georgia State ahead and the Panthers made free throws down the stretch to seal a 63-58 overtime victory over UNC Wilmington Wednesday at the GSU Sports Arena.

The hard-fought victory snapped Georgia State's seven-game losing streak, improving the Panthers to 9-13 overall, 4-8 in the Colonial Athletic Association. UNCW fell to 10-13, 4-8 CAA.

Four Panthers scored in double figures, led by Eric Buckner with 18 points and seven rebounds. Buckner's bucket tied the game at 52-all in regulation, and then the 6-10 post player came up with a steal on the other end with 11 seconds left. GSU's Jihad Ali missed a three-pointer at the buzzer to force the extra session.

"We had some guys down the stretch make some plays tonight," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "I thought guys like Javonte Maynor and Josh Micheaux stepped up and did some big things for us tonight. It was a great win for our team."

In the overtime, Maynor's trey put the Panthers ahead, 57-54, with 1:34 to play, and the Panthers made six of eight free throws in the final 34 seconds to seal the victory.

Josh Micheaux scored a career-high 15 points, along with seven rebounds and four steals for Georgia State. Maynor finished with 11 points and four assists, and James Fields added 10 points.

The Seahawks rallied from a 13-point deficit in the second half to take their first lead of the game at 47-46 on a three-pointer by Chad Tomko with four minutes left. After a GSU free throw, Trevor Deloach nailed another trey for a 50-47 UNCW lead.

After Fields hit one of two free throws for GSU, Micheaux's steal and layup tied the game at 50-all with 1:35 to play. UNCW regained the lead on a pair of Tomko free throws with 1:11 left before Buckner's tying basket.

The GSU defense forced 20 turnovers and held UNCW to just 30.5 percent shooting from the field, including a 4-for-20 outing Tomko, the all-CAA guard. Tomko finished with 19 points, and Trevor Deloach, who hit the game-winning shot against the Panthers last month in Wilmington, had a career-high 23 points and 12 rebounds.

All five Panther starters played at least 36 minutes in the game, as UNC Wilmington's bench outscored State's, 25-2. The Seahawks also held the advantage on the boards, outrebounding State 45-33.

GEORGIA STATE 63, TOWSON 60

Towson Athletic Center • Towson, Md.

Sophomore James Vincent scored a career-high for the second time against Towson this season and led the Panthers to a 63-60 win over the Tigers in the Towson Athletic Center. Vincent scored 12 points and added a career-high five blocked shots as the Panthers never trailed.

GSU (10-13, 5-8 CAA) earned its second straight win to open February.

Despite shooting just 2-of-11 from three-point range, the Panthers hit the glass hard, scoring 42 points in the paint and outrebounding Towson 36-22.

Towson (4-19, 0-13 CAA) lost for the 12th straight time and for the first time at home to the Panthers.

The win snapped a streak of nine straight games won by the home team in the series and gave State its first road win in CAA action this year.

Vincent finished the game 6-of-10 from the field, with seven rebounds and a steal in 25 minutes of action. He scored 11 points against the Tigers on Jan. 5 to lead the Panthers.

Junior Brandon McGee came off the bench to match Vincent with 12 points and six rebounds as the Panthers used a balanced offensive attack.

Towson, which trailed by 11 at halftime, were led by Josh Brown's 18 points.

Late in the first half, State used an 8-0 run, capped by a Vincent dunk to give the Panthers a 35-23 lead with 1:57 remaining. GSU held the Tigers without a field goal over the final 5:40 of the half, limiting Towson to just five free throws.

Towson closed the gap in the second half, holding the Panthers without a field goal for more than six minutes early in the half. RaShawn Polk capped the Tigers run with a back-to-back baskets, including a three, cutting the Panthers lead to just three with 10:58 remaining in the game.

Isaiah Philmore's dunk with 6:43 remaining cut the Tigers deficit to just one at 52-51, one of three times Towson would cut the deficit to one point over the final seven minutes. Fortunately for State, the Tigers could never take the lead.

Following Philmore's dunk, the Panthers responded with a 7-0 run, capped by a Josh Micheaux lay-up, extending State's lead to 59-51 with 3:05 to play.

Micheaux played sick throughout the game, but still managed to finish with nine points, five rebounds and five assists in his third straight start.

Towson responded with a 6-0 run to cut the deficit to 59-58 with 1:43, as State went two and half minutes without a basket. However, State scored two crucial offensive rebounds, each time with the shot clock winding down before the Tigers were forced to foul.

Micheaux made a pair of free throws with 25.6 seconds remaining and senior Marques Johnson made a lay-up with five seconds remaining to secure the win.

HOFSTRA 79, GEORGIA STATE 68

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell to Hofstra, 79-68, in a Colonial Athletic Association game Wednesday at the GSU Sports Arena as Pride (16-9, 10-4 CAA) standout Charles Jenkins poured in 28 points.

Jihad Ali scored a season-high 19 points for the Panthers (10-14, 5-9 CAA), and Josh Micheaux just missed his first career double-double with 10 points, nine rebounds and six assists.

Jenkins, the reigning CAA Player of the Year, entered the game averaging 23.2 points per game (seventh in the nation), and nearly 30 NBA scouts were on hand to watch him play. The 6-3 guard went 10-of-15 from the field and 5-of-6 from the line, while collecting five rebounds and dishing out four steals.

"He is a great player, there is no question about that," commented head coach Rod Barnes. "He does a great job of scoring the basketball and takes his time. We just allowed him too many opportunities tonight."

After trailing by as many as 18 points early in the second half, the Panthers got within six points at 74-68 on a pair of free throws by Eric Buckner with 1:37 left. After Brad Kelleher made one free throw for the Pride, Ali missed a three-point try that would have brought GSU within four with a minute to play. From there, Hofstra made free throws to seal the win.

"I thought we had some opportunities tonight, especially early on, but we missed a few lay-ups and stick-backs that really hurt us. I thought our team got back in the game and we had some guys step up and make some shots, especially in the second half."

Hofstra used hot-shooting to build a big lead as the Pride made 11 of their first 14 shots in the second half. The Pride managed to hit 51 percent for the game, including 9-for-18 from three-point range.

Four Panthers scored in double figures. In addition to Ali and Micheaux, Maynor scored 12 points on four treys and Eric Buckner added 11 points and eight rebounds.

Hofstra also featured four double-figure scorers. Complementing Jenkins were Greg Washington with 13 points, along with five blocked shots, Mike Moore with 12 points and Kelleher with 10. That quartet scored 63 of the Pride's 79 points.

Freshman Devonta White, who saw limited action last week coming off an injury, played 26 minutes, scoring four points and dishing out six rebounds.

Game 25: Feb. 12, 2011, Noon (CSS-TV)

GEORGIA STATE 74, NORTHEASTERN 71 (OT)

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Junior Brandon McGee scored a career-high 31 points to help Georgia State overcome a 17-point first half deficit and give the Panthers a 74-71 overtime victory over Northeastern on Saturday afternoon. McGee became the first Panther to score at least 30 points in a game in just under nine years.

On a day where Georgia State honored its two NCAA tournament teams at halftime, McGee's MVP performance were the most points scored in a game since Thomas Terrell went for 30 against UCF on March 1, 2002. Terrell was a member of the Panthers last NCAA Tournament squad during the 2000-01 season.

Georgia State (11-14, 6-9 CAA) won for the third time in four games and avenged an earlier season loss to Northeastern (9-17, 5-10 CAA) in Boston.

After scoring just eight points in the first half, McGee led the Panthers second half charge, but not until after Northeastern opened the second half on a 9-0 run and held State scoreless for 3:34 to take a 42-31 lead.

Down 47-38 with 13:05 to play, McGee hit one of his four three-pointers to cut the lead to 47-41. The junior hit another three with just under 10 minutes to play, cutting the Huskies lead to just five, 51-46.

McGee's jumper with 6:50 to play cut the lead to two and a put-back, just a minute later tied the game at 57.

Northeastern regained the lead and extended it to three when Jonathan Lee hit a jumper with 1:26 to play, the Huskies last points of regulation. Lee finished with a team-high 24 points on 8-of-11 shooting.

With 1:09 remaining, junior Josh Micheaux, who finished with 13 points, drove the lane, made the basket and was fouled. He made the free throw to tie the game at 62.

Northeastern's Chaison Allen, who finished with 15 points and seven rebounds, had his lay-up at the buzzer blocked by McGee to send the game into overtime.

State opened the extra period on a 6-0 run and never trailed, holding the Huskies without a point until just 1:23 to play. McGee's free throws with 10.9 seconds left secured the Panther victory.

Georgia State trailed the entire first half, plagued by nine turnovers and shooting just 2-of-9 from behind the arc. Northeastern's Jonathan Lee made a pair of free throws with 5:10 remaining in the half to extend the Huskies lead to 32-15, their biggest of the game.

The Panthers wore red jerseys to raise awareness for the American Heart Association. As part of the Spirit Week festivities, members of GSU's NCAA Tournament teams from 1990-91 and 2000-01 were honored at halftime, as coaches Bob Reinhart (1990-91) and Charles "Lefty" Driesell (2000-01) led the teams onto the court.

Game 26: Feb. 15, 2011, 7 p.m. (CSS-TV)

OLD DOMINION 60, GEORGIA STATE 43

Ted Constant Center • Norfolk, Va.

Sophomore James Vincent earned his first career double-double, but Old Dominion pulled away in the final minutes to earn a 60-43 victory over the Panthers on Tuesday night at the Ted Constant Center. Vincent scored 11 points and finished with a career-high 11 rebounds to lead the Panthers.

Vincent added a career-high 33 minutes off the bench, adding two blocks and two steals, shooting 4-of-5 from the field.

Old Dominion (21-6, 12-4 CAA) countered with double-doubles from Frank Hassell and Ben Finney in the win.

The Panthers trailed just 47-42 when junior Josh Micheaux scored a put-back on a missed free throw by Vincent with 3:57 to play, before Old Dominion finished the game on a 13-1 run.

Hassell, who scored the game winning basket over the Panthers in Atlanta, finished with a game-high 17 points and 10 rebounds for his 11th double-double of the season. Finney scored 11 and pulled down 10 boards, including seven on the offensive end.

On a poor shooting night for both squads, both teams finished with 16 of offensive boards as the Monarchs outrebounded State, 38-37.

Redshirt-junior Jihad Ali scored a team-high 14 for Georgia State (11-15, 6-10 CAA), shooting 6-of-12 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers.

Kent Bazemore added 12 points and five rebounds for the Monarchs, who finished 21-28 from the free throw line, while GSU hit just five of 11 attempts.

Georgia State opened strong on the defensive end, holding the Monarchs to just one field goal over the first 8:11 of the first half and led 6-5. Old Dominion used a 20-9 run to build their largest lead of the half, 25-15, before the Panthers finished the half strong.

Ali knocked down his second three of the half and followed it with a jumper with 43 seconds remaining to give the Panthers momentum heading into the half, down just five, 25-20.

Vincent came off the bench to score five points and pull down eight rebounds in 15 minutes of first half action.

After cutting the lead to just five, the Monarchs went a perfect 8-for-8 from the free throw line over the final 3:25 of the game.

Both teams were coming off of emotional victories on Saturday and it showed as neither team shot well from the floor. ODU earned an 11-point victory at VCU, ending the Rams 22-game home court winning streak, while the Panthers rallied from down 17 to earn a 74-71 overtime victory over Northeastern.

LOUISIANA TECH 51, GEORGIA STATE 45

Thomas Assembly Center • Ruston, La.

Georgia State dropped a 51-45 decision to Louisiana Tech on Saturday afternoon in the annual ESPN Bracketbusters event at the Thomas Assembly Center. It marked the Panthers final non-conference game of the regular season.

Redshirt-junior Jihad Ali led the State with eight points and six rebounds as nine different Panthers scored.

Louisiana Tech's Olu Ashaolu finished with a double-double, scoring 18 points and pulling down 11 rebounds, one of three Bulldogs in double figures.

Georgia State (11-16, 6-10 CAA) dropped its second straight and lost a Bracketbusters game for the first time under head coach Rod Barnes. The Panthers were 4-1 in the annual event entering Saturday and 3-0 under the fourth year head coach.

Louisiana Tech (12-16, 2-10 WAC) snapped a four-game losing streak and won its fourth straight over the Panthers dating back to 1976.

Playing without leading scorer DeAndre Brown who was suspended indefinitely by head coach Kerry Rupp prior to the start of the game, the Bulldogs slashed the Panther defense early. Tech nailed eight of its first 10 shots, while holding the Panthers to just 3 of 11 shooting halfway through the first half.

The Bulldogs built their lead to 21-8 with 9:48 to play in the half, holding the Panthers without a field goal for nearly seven minutes.

Georgia State held Tech without a field goal over the final 8:46 of the half, as the Bulldogs hit just three free throws and missing nine straight field goals, while the Panthers used an 8-0 run to go into halftime down just 26-23.

A dunk by James Vincent quickly cut the Bulldogs lead to just one only seconds into the second half.

State took its first lead when freshman Rashaad Richardson made a lay-up with 15:07 remaining. State's 32-31 lead was the only time the Panthers would be ahead.

Other than a dunk by Ashaolu, the Panthers held the Bulldogs without a field goal over the final 9:33, but could not take advantage of a several open shots and put backs down the stretch.

Down four, senior Marques Johnson nailed a jumper at the top of the key cut the lead to two with 18.6 seconds, but State could not get over the hump.

The Panthers bench outscored the Bulldogs 18-0, while also holding a slim 34-33 lead on the boards.

Sophomore James Vincent, coming off his first career double-double, finished with six points and six rebounds, while junior Brandon McGee added six and four boards.

Louisiana Tech got 14 points on 5-of-7 shooting from Lonnie Smith, and 10 points from Kenyon McNeaill.

WILLIAM & MARY 69, GEORGIA STATE 65

Kaplan Arena • Williamsburg, Va.

Georgia State mounted a furious last minute comeback, but fell just short, 69-65, to William & Mary on Wednesday night at Kaplan Arena. The Panthers trailed nine with 30 seconds remaining, but cut it to just two with 4.3 seconds remaining, before the Tribe made two final free throws to secure the victory.

Freshman Javonte Maynor, who nailed the three-pointer with 4.3 seconds remaining to cut the lead to two, nailed seven three-pointers and scored a career-high 21 points. The Snellville, Ga. native hit 7-of-10 from outside the arc in 28 minutes off the bench.

Georgia State (11-17, 6-11 CAA) lost its third straight game, all on the road, while William & Mary (9-20, 4-13 CAA) won its second straight as the Tribe honored senior Marcus Kitts on senior night.

The difference in the game came at the free throw line where the Tribe went 29-of-37, while Georgia State managed to go just 4-of-9 as the Panthers committed 29 fouls to William & Mary's 11.

William & Mary freshman Brandon Britt led the Tribe with 20 points, hitting 10-of-12 from the free throw line.

The Tribe built its lead to 15 on a lay-up by Tim Rusthoven with 5:25 to play, before the Panthers made one last run.

Junior Josh Micheaux made back-to-back steals at mid-court and turned them into lay-ups to cut the lead to 58-52 with 1:38, capping an 8-0 run.

After building its lead back to 10 points, senior Dante Curry hit a three-pointer with 41 seconds remaining, cutting the lead to 62-55.

Junior Eric Buckner followed with a lay-up and freshman Devonta White made a pair of free throws to get the deficit back to seven after made free throws by the Tribe.

White's steal and lay-up by Micheaux with 10 seconds remaining cut the lead to 67-62, before Curry stole the ball on the inbounds pass and Maynor knocked down a three.

Micheaux finished with eight points, while James Fields dished out six assists.

After shooting 26.7 percent in the first half, the Panthers rebounded by shooting 56.3 percent in the second and finished the game 9-of-22 from three-point range.

The Tribe opened the first half with a hot hand, taking a 19-7 lead with 10:30 remaining, hitting six of their first 10 shots, including four of eight from three-point range. William & Mary held State to just three of 11 shooting to open the game.

Senior Marques Johnson finished with eight points, six rebounds and three assists in his final road game.

Game 29: Feb. 28, 2011, 6 p.m.

GEORGE MASON 65, GEORGIA STATE 58

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

In the regular-season finale for both teams, Georgia State fell, 65-58, to George Mason, which extended the nation's longest winning streak to 15 games Saturday at the GSU Sports Arena.

Georgia State (11-18, 6-12 CAA) is the ninth seed in the CAA Championship, which begin Friday in Richmond, Va. The Patriots (25-5, 16-2 CAA) are the top seed after winning the CAA regular season by two games.

Junior Josh Micheaux scored a career-high 17 points for the Panthers.

Cam Long led Mason with 19 points, hitting 6-of-11 from the field.

Georgia State stayed close throughout the night, taking a 45-43 lead with 9:30 to play. Mason answered with a basket by Long and never trailed again, although the Panthers stayed within striking distance until the Patriots pulled away in the final seconds.

The game featured 10 ties and seven lead changes.

With the scored tied at 54 with just 2:38 left, Andre Cornelius made a pair of free throws that put Mason ahead for good. After a missed shot by GSU, Michael Morrison's bucket put the Patriots ahead 58-54. Cam Long nailed a trey with 20 seconds left to seal the victory.

"They are a really good team; they've won 15 straight games for a reason," said GSU head coach Rod Barnes. "I thought our kids played hard, but just didn't make enough plays. We had a chance to score some points in transition that we didn't convert."

In his final game at the GSU Sports Arena, senior Marques Johnson contributed eight points, six rebounds and five assists. Senior Dante Curry was also honored before the game but was unable to play due to an ankle injury.

Micheaux connected on 7-of-11 shots from the field to record his sixth double-figure effort of the season. The junior from Missouri City, Texas also had four rebounds, four assists and two steals.

"Josh was really aggressive, and he did a great job bringing energy to our team tonight," Barnes continued.

Freshman Javonte Maynor had another solid effort with nine points and five rebounds. Jihad Ali added 10 points.

Junior Brandon McGee added eight points and seven rebounds for State.

Morrison added 14 points and five rebounds for Mason, while Vertrail Vaughns came off the bench to score 12 points, going 3-of-3 from beyond the arc.

Game 30: March 4, 2011, Noon

GEORGIA STATE 58, UNC WILMINGTON 52

CAA First Round • Richmond Coliseum • Richmond, Va.

Josh Micheaux scored 14 points and Eric Buckner added 12 points and eight rebounds to lead ninth-seeded Georgia State to a 58-52 victory over eighth-seeded UNC Wilmington in the first round of the Colonial Athletic Association Championship Friday at the Richmond Coliseum.

Georgia State (12-18), under interim head coach Paul Graham, advances to face top-seeded and 25th-ranked George Mason in Saturday's quarterfinals at 12 noon.

"It's about these guys," said Graham. "They worked hard all week and stayed focus, and our team played really well. Basketball is a team game, and we got contributions from everyone."

Jihad Ali pulled down a career-high 11 rebounds for the Panthers, along with nine points, two steals and a blocked shot, while Marques Johnson equaled his career best with seven assists to go with four points, three rebounds, two blocks and a steal. Micheaux added five rebounds, four assists, two blocks and two steals.

Trailing 16-8 midway through the first half, the Panthers scored 14 straight points to take the lead and never trailed again. After making just three of their first 15 shots, GSU hit 20 of 33 attempts the rest of the way to shoot 48 percent for the game, including 56 percent in the second half. Moving the ball and spreading the scoring, the Panthers were credited with 18 assists on 23 baskets.

Along with the 6-10 Buckner, 6-11 James Vincent also contributed key baskets in the paint with six points and three rebounds.

On the defensive end, the Panthers held UNCW Wilmington (13-18) to just 29.5 percent from the field, including 6-for-29 from three-point range. All-CAA guard Chad Tomko finished with a game-high 19 points but managed just 7-for-21 shooting.

Georgia State outrebounded the Seahawks, 42-38, and came up with eight blocked shots from five different players, including two each by Micheaux, Buckner and Johnson.

GSU led 46-44 with eight minutes to go when freshman Devonta White nailed a jumper for the Panthers and Buckner followed with a layup off a feed from Micheaux to put GSU ahead 50-44 with 6:29 to play. Keith Rendlemen scored for UNCW, but Vincent answered with a bucket down low for GSU. After the Seahawks' Trevor Deloach made one of two free throws, James Fields hit a pair for the Panthers, pushing their lead to 54-47 with just 2:21 left.

The Seahawks had one last gasp after Tomko hit a long three-pointer to pull the UNCW within 56-52 with 23 seconds to play, but Buckner sank two free throws to seal the win.

GEORGE MASON 68, GEORGIA STATE 45

CAA Quarterfinals • Richmond Coliseum • Richmond, Va.

Georgia State used a strong start to build an 11-point lead in the first half before succumbing to top-seeded and 25th-ranked George Mason, 68-45, in the quarterfinals of the Colonial Athletic Association Championship Saturday at the Richmond Coliseum.

The Panthers finish their season at 12-19. Mason (26-5) won its 16th straight game to advance to Sunday's semifinals.

Shooting 60 percent from the field in the first half, Georgia State built a 27-16 lead with seven minutes to play, but after James Vincent's field goal with 7:08 left, the Panthers couldn't manage another basket until a jumper by Marques Johnson with just 30 seconds left in the half. During that stretch, Mason scored 14 straight points, and the Patriots took a 31-29 lead into the locker room.

During Mason's comeback in latter part of the first half, the Panthers were hurt by foul trouble on post players Eric Buckner, who picked up two fouls early, and James Vincent, who was whistled for three of GSU's 12 first-half fouls. For the game, Mason hit 21 of 29 free throws, while GSU made nine of 17.

Buckner finished with 10 points and seven rebounds in just 17 minutes. Johnson had nine points and five rebounds in his final game for Georgia State.

"We got on a little bit of a roll in the first half, but when Buck (Buckner) picked up his second foul, that changed the way we could play," said interim head coach Paul Graham. "Then Big James (Vincent) came in and did some good things, but he got in foul trouble, too."

"George Mason is very good," continued Graham. "There's a reason they've won so many in a row; they've got good players and good coaches."

A three-pointer by Johnson kept the Panthers within 36-34 with just under 17 minutes to play, but from there, Mason used a 22-2 run to build a 58-36 lead with seven minutes to left.

After the strong first half, the Panthers managed to hit just five of 23 from the field after the intermission. Georgia State also hurt itself with 21 turnovers, which the Patriots converted into 27 points.

Cam Long led the Patriots with 15 points, while Andre Cornelius added 12.
