Overall: 19-4, CAA: 2-0
#55 National Ranking
#2 Seed-CAA Champ.

A THREE-YEAR RISE TO POWER

The Georgia State men's tennis team has set a new standard of success with its recent history of winning. Over the last three seasons, head coach Chase Hodges has led his squad to a 55-16 record. It is the best three-year stretch in the history of Georgia State men's tennis. Under Hodges' leadership, players such as senior Juan Pablo Gutierrez and juniors Victor Valente and Lucas Santana have set new benchmarks for individual success. The three have combined for 135 singles victories during their three years which have contributed to GSU's 55 wins.

DOMINANT SINGLES PLAY

Georgia State's singles play has carried them this season, and for good reason. The Panthers own a 104-30 mark this season in all singles matches for a .776 winning percentage. It is the highest winning percentage from a Georgia State team in singles play in school history. The Panthers are no slouch in doubles either as they own a 36-25 record throughout the 2012 season.

VICTOR-Y!

Georgia State junior Victor Valente earned back-to-back CAA men's tennis Player of the Week awards on Apr. 3 and 10. It was the third straight week a Georgia State player was honored as the CAA men's tennis Player of the Week after freshman Matias Hatem took the honor before Valente won it twice. Valente is a reigning First Team All-CAA Selection and is 15-4 in singles play this season. He has also paired with three different partners to earn a 12-7 mark in doubles in 2011-12.

Victor Valente

FRESHMAN SENSATION

Georgia State freshman Matias Hatem is setting a new standard for rookie success at GSU. The native of San Miguel de Tucuman, Argentina, owns a 19-3 singles record this season playing the majority of his matches in the second or third singles position. The freshman set a freshman school-record for most consecutive wins this season when he won 15 straight singles matches. Hatem is just two wins shy of tying for second all-time with junior Lucas Santana on the single-season wins list.

Juan Pablo Gutierrez

JUAN GREAT SENIOR

GSU has one senior on its 2011-12 team in Juan Pablo Gutierrez. The Guayaquil, Ecuador, native was honored prior to the Panthers' 5-2 win vs. UNC Wilmington on Apr. 8 after a stellar, three-year career. Gutierrez will finish his career as one of the most successful doubles players in Georgia State history. He owns more than 40 doubles victories in his career, the highest total for a player in at least the last four seasons. His .690 doubles winning percentage is also the best in the last four seasons. Gutierrez also posted a 41-15 record in singles throughout his career and is a veteran of 53 team wins at GSU.

NOSTRA-THOMAS?

Want to figure out if Georgia State will win today? Try watching GSU sophomore Thomas Cook in his singles match. The Lilburn, Ga., native has an uncanny ability to set the tone for Georgia State victories. Since he first became a regular last season in the Panthers' lineup, Cook has 33 victories in singles play. In those 33 matches where Cook triumphs in his singles match, GSU owns a 31-2 record as a team.

CUTTING TO THE CHASE

Third-year head coach Chase Hodges is already one of the most successful head coaches in Georgia State men's tennis history. He owns a 55-16 record since he became head coach prior to the 2009-10 season at GSU. He ranks third on the wins list for Georgia State head coaches behind Nick Brochu, who put together a 66-44 record from 2003-07 including a 2007 CAA Championship. The leader on the list is Chuck McCuen who coached from 1987-2000 and compiled a 145-86 record in those 14 seasons.

HAIL TO THE VICTOR

Junior Victor Valente has come up huge during his third season at Georgia State. The Sao Paulo, Brazil, native leads the team with seven match-clinching victories on the year.

CLOSING TIME

Junior Lucas Santana and freshman Jose Ortiz have provided several clutch victories at the No. 3 doubles match lately. The two first played together on Apr. 1 where they closed out GSU's 4-3 win vs DePaul with an 8-5 win. A week later, the two were at it again this time securing the doubles point with an 8-6 triumph in GSU's 5-2 upset vs. #37 UNCW. Finally, the duo once again secured the doubles point with an 8-5 win vs. Troy in the Panthers' 6-1 win to close out the regular season. Santana and Ortiz, whom his teammates affectionately call, "Pepe" will start in the No. 3 doubles slot in the CAA Championships as well.

FRENCH CONNECTION

Two freshmen, and French speakers, Sofiane Chevallier and Ismael Lahlou have started their GSU careers off magnificently. On the season, Lahlou is 15-5 and carries GSU's longest active singles winning streak at four matches into the CAA Championship. Chevallier is 9-4 this year after stringing together an eight-match winning streak. As a doubles duo,

2012 Georgia State Panthers Men's Tennis

Matias Hatem

the two own a 6-3 record when playing together.

WE'RE GOING STREAKING!

Georgia State had one of its best runs in recent history this season. The Panthers roared out to a 15-2 start thanks in part to an 11-match winning streak through the middle of its season. Freshman Matias Hatem also ran up a 15-match winning streak in singles play while sophomore Thomas Cook put together 13 straight singles victories.

SPRING CLEANING

Twice this spring the Panthers swept the CAA Player of the Week awards for women's and men's tennis. Women's tennis sophomore Abigail Tere-Apisah and men's tennis sophomore Thomas Cook each earned the honors on Mar. 7. Tere-Apisah earned it again on Apr. 10 as men's tennis junior Victor Valente followed suit on the same day.

PRESSURE COOK-ER

Georgia State won a 4-3 match on Feb. 29 thanks to a heroic effort from sophomore Thomas Cook. With the team score tied at 3-3, the 5-foot-11 Cook entered into a third-set tiebreaker to decide the match. In the tiebreaker, Cook fought off three match points that would've given SC State its first ever win over GSU. Instead, the sophomore stood tall and eventually took his match 6-2, 2-6, 7-6 (13-11) to win his match and clinch the victory for the Panthers. He was rewarded for his effort by being named the CAA Player of the Week on Mar. 7.

Thomas Cook

RANK AND FILE

Georgia State junior Victor Valente began his season on a strong note by achieving his first career regional ranking. He entered the season as the No. 14-ranked player in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's Southeast Regional Singles Rankings. It was the first ranking for a GSU men's tennis player since Nejc Podkrajsek on Jan. 6, 2009. The Southeast Region is comprised of 18 universities including tennis powers Georgia, Georgia Tech, Florida, Florida State, Miami (Fla.), and USF.

men's athletic teams at Georgia State. Juniors Victor Valente and Lucas Santana as well as freshman Ismael Lahlou headlined the effort as all were named to the President's List last semester after posting a GPA of 4.0 or higher. The Georgia State athletics department continued to achieve academic excellence as a whole by attaining its second-highest semester GPA at a 3.04 while also achieving a 3.03 cumulative GPA for the 2011 fall semester.

LEGENDS OF THE FALL

Junior Victor Valente and sophomore Thomas Cook notched a huge doubles victory this past fall season. The two defeated the University of Minnesota tandem of junior Rok Bonin and senior Julian Dehn, the No. 22-ranked doubles team in the nation, by a score of 9-8 (11). The win came in the second round of the Division I doubles bracket at the Southern Intercollegiate hosted by the University of Georgia. It is the highest-ranked doubles opponent GSU has beaten in school history.

Scott Curry

NEW FACES

For those familiar with the Georgia State men's tennis program, it came as no surprise when third-year head coach Chase Hodges announced the hiring of Scott Curry as assistant coach in January. Curry spent the last three seasons with the team as a volunteer then graduate assistant coach. His CAA tennis experience after a successful four-year career at UNC Wilmington has been vital to the team's development. Another addition to Hodges' staff was volunteer assistant coach Bradley Cox. Cox joined the staff after a stellar four-year career at the University of Kentucky where he was a 2010 ITA/NCAA All-American and two-year captain of the team. He was the third freshman in UK history to earn an NCAA individual championship bid in 2008.

Bradley Cox

FOUR FRESH MEN

The Panthers added four new players to their lineup just prior to the spring season. Sofiane Chevallier, Matias Hatem, Jose Ortiz and Michael Vallejo each enrolled at Georgia State just prior to the start of the spring semester. Chevallier competed on the Open International Juniors circuit in France in the spring last year prior to coming to GSU. He was ranked No. 1 in the city of San Miguel the past four years and was named "Sportist of the Year" in the province of Tucuman by his local newspaper, "La Gaceta," in 2008. Ortiz attended Ies Oretga y Gassette in Madrid, Spain prior to Georgia State. Vallejo transferred from Miami Dade College in Miami, Fla. He was a five-star recruit coming out of Coral Gables High School.

MOROCCAN WINNER JOINS GSU

Georgia State men's tennis head coach Chase Hodges announced on Aug. 16 the addition of freshman Ismael Lahlou to the team. Lahlou, a two-time Moroccan National Champion, came to Georgia State from Casablanca, Morocco. He ranked as high as No. 193 in the ITF Tennis Junior Rankings and was recently ranked No. 207 as of Aug. 15. He was also a member of the Moroccan Davis Cup team.
