GEORGIA TECH 66, GEORGIA STATE 56

Atlanta, Ga. (Alexander Memorial Coliseum)

Georgia State's season-opener saw the Panthers bow to Georg ia Tech, 66-56, in the 34th meeting of the two downtown schools Friday evening at Alexander Memorial Coliseum before 1.930 on the campus of Tech.

Georgia State trailed 35-20 at the break, but rallied to outscore the host Yellow Jackets, 36-31, in the second half. The key stretch of the game came in the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Tech held a 27-18 nine-point advantage with 3:54 in the half when they went on a 8-2 run to take the 35-20 halftime lead. They came out with a 9-2 start in the second half to open a 44-22 advantage at 16:32 that State whittled away at from

Perhaps the key stat of the game was GSU's 30 turnovers, 21 in the first half, that hindered the offensive production. Tech had 21 turnovers.

Georgia State held a 37-34 rebounding advantage against the taller Yellow Jackets and blocked seven shots. Tech got to the free throw line 14 times, while GSU never saw the line until 6:34 left in the game and ended with three attempts. GSU shot 45.5% with five treys, while Tech shot 44.4% with three treys. Tech had 15 steals on defense. State had 12 steals.

Junior forward Chan Harris led GSU with 15 rebounds and 12 points and three blocks. Freshman guard Kendra Long made her first game in the blue and white memorable coming off the bench with 13 points 10 in the second half with threeof-six made outside the arc. Senior wing Angelique Burtts netted 12 points. Sophomore center Cody Paulk had eight points, seven rebounds and three blocked shots.

"I guess the positive in a loss is that we kept fighting until the end and we executed a whole lot better in the second half." said new head coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener

"We turned the ball over way too much, especially in the first half, and we will continue to concentrate on taking care of the ball. Those turnovers cost us a ton of possessions with no shot attempted and limited our chances to score."

DeLand, Fla. (Edmunds Center)

DeLand, FL - Georgia State earned the first win under new head coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener with a 70-61 victory on Sunday afternoon at Stetson.

Angelique Burtts had a double-double with 19 points and 10 rebounds, as did Chan Harris with 14 points, 10 rebounds and four blocked shots. Traci Haltiwanger hit four three-point shots and added 15 points to the attack. Haltiwanger's 15 points tied her personal-best for a game

Georgia State (1-1) shot 55.9% in the second half and 49.2% for the game while having a 46-33 rebound advantage in the road win The Panthers had 18 offensive rehounds

The visiting Panthers made 5-of-8 three-point shots in the second half and 6-of-13 total for the game.

GSU pounded the ball inside and scored 40 of its 70 points in the paint. "I am happy for the team and it is always great to get any win on the road," veteran head coach Baldwin-Tener said. "We started the game strong today, then hit the drought at the end of the first half. But, we did what we needed to do in the second half and played better." "Angelique had big plays when we needed them this afternoon," coach added. "Getting the rebound advantage and the 18 offensive rebounds is pleasing. But, I am not pleased with the turnover total (21) because that is still too many." Georgia State hit seven of its first 10 shots and nine of its first 14 shots in building its early lead. GSU grew a 12-9 advantage to 26-13 with a 14-4 run with 8:47 to play in the opening half. But, the Panther missed their final nine shots of the half, coupled with the turnovers and Stetson closed to 26-24 at halftime

In the second half, GSU held a 38-32 lead when Stetson rallied to tie at 38 with 14:11 to play. GSU responded with a 7-0 advantage at 11:47.

The visiting Panthers had nine-point leads twice during the 10-to-five minute span, when Stetson made a rare four-point play to make it 50-45 with 4:46 on the clock. A Haltiwanger three-pointer and a Burtts follow made it 63-53 with 3:27 and

GEORGIA STATE 70, BETHUNE-COOKMAN 49

Daytona Beach, Fla. (Moore Gymnasium)

Daytona Beach, Fla. - Georgia State raced to a 70-49 win over Bethune-Cookman Tuesday night at Moore Gymnasiur by shooting 58.8 percent for the game.

The Panthers (2-1) were led by senior forward Angelique Burtts with her 23 points, nine assists and eight rebounds Junior redshirt forward Chan Harris added 19 points in just 23 minutes, to go with five rebounds and three blocked shots.

In getting their second straight win on the Florida road trip, GSU hit 30-of-51 shots, while controlling the boards, 38-26. GSU's defense had 11 steals and held Bethune-Cookman to 30% from the field.

GSU gained control of the game by scoring the final 13 points of the first half in 3:51, to erase a 10-point B-C lead and take a 36-33 halftime lead. In the second half, GSU used another 12-0 run to go from a five-point lead of 45-40 with 14:45 to a 57-40 advantage with 9:37 left.

"I am really pleased to pick up two road wins and the team responded well to the challenges" said new head coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener "Angelique had a big game to carry us tonight when Chan got into foul trouble and missed the final 15 minutes of the first half. I am not happy at all that we had 27 turnovers. We threw the ball away too many times unforced and we have got to correct that. The rebounding in our two wins has helped us overcome those turnovers."

Tonight, GSU led 8-6 and Harris had six of those eight points when her second foul at 15:04 sent her to the bench for the rest of the half. Bethune-Cookman went on a 13-0 run to open a 20-8 lead before GSU began to regroup without the six-foot-two Harris. The Panthers cut it to one-point at 22-21 with 7:40 but B-C burst back to a 33-23 lead at 3:51 with an 11-2 streak. But, the rest of the half belonged to GSU and Burtts, who had 16 points in the first half to spark the 36-33 lead.

With back-to-back wins and scoring 70 points in each, the Panthers extended the win streak to 15 straight games when scoring 70 or more points. The Panthers have outscored all three opponents in the second half this season, including tonight's second-half domination of 34-16.

RICE 55, GEORGIA STATE 52

Atlanta, Ga. (Georgia State Sports Arena)

ATLANTA (Nov. 28) - In a game fitting of a championof the GSU Thanksgiving Tournament. It was also the home visiting Rice claiming a 55-52 win in the GSU Thanksgiving to UAB Thursday night at the GSU Sports Arena.

Georgia State battled back to make it a two-point game at blocked two shots, while Angelique Burtts netted 13 points, 54-52 with 1:48 to play. Rice misfired and GSU had a chance and not really give yourself a chance to win." hauled down 10 rebounds, made five steals and blocked four to tie or go-ahead, but missed on a three-point shot, got the shots. Traci Haltiwanger contributed eight points, six rebounds rebound and missed a two-pointer with 30 seconds left. Rice in a nine-point loss. and three steals. Cody Paulk added six rebounds, six blocks, turned the ball over again, but GSU had a turnover of its own with 12 seconds. Morgan Mayse made one of two free throws throwing the ball away or traveling, frustrates me." The third straight win for GSU (3-1) moves them into the with 12 seconds left, leaving GSU one last chance for a tying

Georgia State had a 42-40 rebound advantage, including 22 offensive boards, but Rice countered by making six three- a 13-13 tie after the first 10 minutes of play to outscore host

Rice (4-3) started the game strong, hitting 9-of-15 shots and 4-of-8 treys, to open a 22-17 lead just over eight minutes into the game. But, GSU responded and eventually gained the lead again at 32-31 with 50 seconds in the half. Rice's D'Frantz Smart hit the Owls' sixth three-pointer of the half to give them

The visiting Owls led 42-39 with 10:46 in the game when rallied with a 16-4 run to take its biggest lead of the game at their defense provided a couple steals and transition baskets as they stretched the lead to 10 at 49-39 with 8:55. However, GSU was ready with an answer and closed back to three at The host Panthers got baskets from four different players 51-48 with four minutes left in the game. That set the stage for in a quick 9-0 burst to start the second half and pull away the frantic four minutes to see who could get that last basket

"Rice is a good, well-coached basketball team," said Coach

All-Tournament Team: Morgan Mayse, Rice; Angelique all four of its opponents in the second half this year as well. Burtts & Chan Harris, GSU, Whiquitta Tobar, Alabama tage, but gave up 14 offensive rebounds to also frustrate the A&M, Briana Williams, Mercer. Tournament MVP: Brianna Panthers head coach. GSU did shoot 41% from the field and Hypolite, Rice.

UAB 50, GEORGIA STATE 41

Atlanta, Ga. (Georgia State Sports Arena)

Georgia State coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener used the word in the opening game to advance to the championship game ship contest, Rice and GSU battled right to the wire with frustrating multiple times in describing her team's 50-41 loss

- The Panthers' new boss offered these bits of analysis:
- "It is frustrating to hold a good team like UAB to 50 points
- "It is frustrating to shoot 6-of-15 from the free throw line
- "Making 23 turnovers, with so many unforced errors like
- "I bet we missed seven or eight lay-ups tonight. That is frustrating

Visiting UAB (4-3) from Conference USA pulled away from GSU (3-3) over the final 10 minutes of the half 13-7 to take a 26-20 lead into halftime. GSU was matching turnovers for shots in the first half as the host Panthers committed 15 firsthalf turnovers and got off only 16 shots.

In the second half, UAB opened with a 7-0 run to make it 33-20 with 17:50 left. A three-point basket by Amanda Peterson at 12:35 gave UAB its largest lead of the game at 42-24 with that 16-4 start to the second half.

GSU re-grouped and made a rally, getting it back to 45-35 with 7:16 left to play, but could never mount another serious rally in that final seven minutes. UAB was led by Amber Jones, who scored 14 points in 25 minutes coming off the bench. Peterson's three treys gave her nine points and guard Khalilah Watson added nine more GSU had no one in double figures as Chan Harris topped disappointing to miss some of those final shots and especially the stats with nine points and 10 rebounds. Leading scorer Georgia State did control the rebounding advantage, 47-44, frustrating not to get the last shot off in the final 10 seconds." Angelique Burtts did not start for the first time in her career Rice's tough early slate saw them lose to No. 2 Baylor and at GSU for team discipline and scored just seven points in 22 minutes

Georgia State did end up with a 35-33 rebounding advanheld UAB to 35%, but the turnovers cost the Panthers too few attempted shots

DREXEL 56, GEORGIA STATE 46

Philadelphia, Pa. (Daskalakis Center)

Georgia State led the first 30 minutes, but host Drexel made a come-from-rally to claim a 56-46 win in a Colonial Athletic Association win on Thursday night.

Visiting Georgia State opened up an early nine-point lead at 15-6 after 11 minutes played as they held Drexel without a trey. GSU led by eight points at 25-17 with 15 seconds in the half, but Drexel got a free throw with five seconds, got an offensive rebound on the second miss and made a basket at the buzzer to close to 25-20 GSU at the break.

GSU's defense continued to stifle Drexel in the second half and the Panthers led 36-29 with 12:35 to play in the game. Drexel's Hollie Marshon drained a three-pointer with 10:20 and then made a lay-up at 9:42 to give Drexel its first lead of the game at 39-38.

Drexel clung to a 46-42 lead with less than four minutes to play when Taylor Wooten scored in the paint at 3:46 and then Marshon made another trey with 3:05 to put the Dragons up 51-42 with three minutes left and secure the win

GSU (5-8, 0-2) was led in scoring by freshman guard Kendra Long's 17 points with five three-point baskets, plus 16 points and eight rebounds from junior post player Chan

GSU held a 38-33 rebound advantage for the game, but had 20 turnovers to cost themselves possessions. After shooting 47.6 percent in leading in the first half, GSU shot just 25 percent in the second half and 35 percent for the game.

Drexel (9-4, 1-1) knocked down nine three-point baskets, but actually shot 33 percent beyond the arc, 10 percent lower than their NCAA best 43 percent. Drexel's star was Hollie Marshon's ignition when she came off the bench to score 18 points with 4-of-7 three-pointers. Kamile Nacickaite added

"A key stretch came right around the 30-minute mark where we had four straight possession turnovers and showed a lack of communication about the same time in giving some open lay-ups, said coach Baldwin-Tener."

DELAWARE 50, GEORGIA STATE 46

Atlanta, Ga. (GSU Sports Arena)

Georgia State and Delaware swapped the lead six times, were tied three times and it was still a one-point game several times in the final two minutes before the visiting Blue Hens edged away with free throws for a 50-46 win.

Leading 47-46, Delaware's Danielle Parker cashed in on a one-and-one free throw opportunity with 17.3 seconds to put UD up 49-46 as GSU's final three-point attempt then bounced off the rim with one-second left on the clock. UD added a final free throw for its win.

Georgia State (7-11, 2-5) had led at the half, 24-21, and the first 11 minutes of the second half before a trey by Delaware's Lauren Carra at 8:40 edged the Blue Hens back into the lead, 38-36, for the first time since 2:32 in the first half at 18-17.

Carra led Delaware (11-7, 4-3) with 16 points as their only double-figure scorer. GSU was led by Tiffany Anderson, who a pass, with 10 points. Angelique Burtts had 11 points, but was just 4-of-16 from the field. Over the final six minutes, the Delaware lead was at one-point and GSU had four different possessions with a chance to re-gain the lead, but could never capitalize.

Down 45-44 in the final two minutes, GSU's Tiffanv Anderson was called for a key offensive foul under the basket making a pass and fouled out of the game with 1:13. Two free throws by Jocelyn Bailey put UD up 47-44 at 46 seconds, but Burtts answered that with a basket with 22 seconds. That set up Parker's eventual one-and-one free throw situation.

Both teams struggled shooting today, with GSU 13-of-59 for 22 percent and Delaware 17-for-54 at 31 percent. GSU's more misses helped Delaware claim a 47-41 rebound advantage.

GSU shot well from the free throw line (17-for-22, 77.3%), but shot only two free throws over the final eight minutes, while Delaware hit 14-of-22 (63.6%) from the line with 12 free throws in that same eight-minute span, making eight of those 12

"We missed a lot of easy shots, especially in the first half, and you have to shoot better than we did today to win. Baldwin-Tener said. "We had chances to win today, we shot our free throws better and the defense fought hard, but we hurt ourselves by missing a lot of makeable shots."

VCU 67, GEORGIA STATE 52

Richmond, Va. (Siegel Center)

VCU's women's basketball team shot 52 percent, including 55 percent outside the arc, to turn back Georgia State, 67-52, Thursday afternoon at The Siegel Center.

VCU, who features the nation's #1 rebounder and #3 scorer Convocation Center. in Courtney Hurt, found a new leader today as junior college transfer guard Andrea Barbour scored a career-high 23 points on 7-of-11 field goals to double her 11-point per game blocked shots. average. Hurt, who averages 23.9 points and 13.2 rebounds, added "below-average" 18 points and nine rebounds today The Rams (11-7, 6-2), who were 9th in the CAA in three-point baskets made 5-of-9 outside the arc today

Georgia State (7-12, 2-6) was led by junior center Chan Harris with 19 points and seven rebounds.

The host Rams jumped out early with a 10-0 run to turn a 5-3 deficit into a 13-5 lead six minutes into the game. They advantage with 2:55 remaining in the half. took a 14-7 lead to a 26-10 advantage with eight minutes to helped close the margin to 26-19 with 5:20 to go. But. VCU went on an 11-3 run and held a 37-22 halftime lead

The second half was a 30-30 tie, but the first half was too much for GSU to ever overcome. The Panthers were down 12 points six times in the second half, the last with 5:20 to play at 56-44, but never got closer.

"They shot the ball well today outside and inside and we didn't," said Coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener. "We missed too from guard Jasmine Parker to go with 10 points. many free throws and too many make-able baskets. We got in the big hole early and just couldn't get out of it."

VCU held a 38-35 rebound advantage, but GSU hustled

GSU's defense had 11 steals and forced 18 turnovers, scoring 20 points off turnovers.

GEORGIA STATE 57, NORTHEASTERN 44

Boston, Mass. (Solomon Court)

Georgia State defeated Northeastern, 57-44, Sunday afternoon at Solomon Court in the 1.000th all-time game in GSU women's basketball history.

Senior guard Traci Haltiwanger scored a career-best 17 Paulk contributed 13 points 9 rebounds and 4 blocks in the win. Haltiwanger's 21st double-figure game included 3-of-5 three-point baskets.

Georgia State (11-17, 6-11) dominated the boards with a 44-23 rebound advantage, made 13 steals and blocked five shots in allowing a season-low 44 points.

The Panthers limited Northeastern to just 32 percent shooting from the field and forced 22 NU turnovers. GSU also hit 79% of its free throws, 11-of-14, in today's win.

GSU was cruising towards a win with a 14-point lead at 37-23 with 16:40 to play when the host Huskies went on a and is fourth in the nation in scoring. 11-2 run, sparked by a pair of Kerkhof treys, to close to 39-34 GSU held a 41-39 rebound advantage and shot 44% from with 11:21. A trey by Kendra Long and lay-up by Haltiwan- the field tonight. ger opened it back to 10 points a 44-34 with 7:34. GSU was hampered in that span as Burtts picked up her fourth foul just 22.9 in the first half when GSU took a 28-26 lead into with 17:15 still to play and had to retreat to the bench for an

The Huskies put together a 9-0 run, paced by free throws, to close o 44-43 with 3:44 to go. A pair of free throws by Haltiwanger at 3:42, a put-back by Paulk and a driving bank shot by Burtts opened it back to 52-44 with 1:06 left.

Northeastern (8-20, 3-14) was led by five three-point baskets and 15 points by Deanna Kerkhof.

In the first half, Georgia State used a 15-0 run to erase a lead at 9:22. A pair of treys and an old-fashioned three-point a foul a minute during the game, having their first eight play gave Haltiwanger nine points during that run.

VCU 69, GEORGIA STATE 57

Atlanta, Ga. (GSU Sports Arena)

VCU shot a school-record 45 free throws to come from behind and defeat Georgia State, 69-57, Wednesday night.

Georgia State (11-18, 6-12) actually controlled and led most of the game before the foul trouble ended up costing the points, while Angelique Burtts added 14 points and Cody Panthers. GSU got the lead in the first half at 3:24 and kept it until a tie at 47 with nine minutes left in the game. GSU regained the lead, 50-49, and didn't lose it until VCU scored with 3:11 left to move ahead, 57-55.

The Panthers were substituting regularly as the 33 fouls called kept most of the starters in danger. Three players fouled out, including both seniors in their final game, and three players had four fouls. GSU, meanwhile, shot just 14 free throws and made nine. VCU was called for only 16 fouls

VCU (18-10, 13-5) got a CAA-record 23rd double-double effort from Courtney Hurt with 32 points, despite shooting just 7-of-24, and 10 rebounds. She leads the NCAA in rebounding

Georgia State held VCU to 26.2 percent from the field and the locker room. The Panthers built the lead to seven points in the first five minutes of the second half and led by eight at 45-37 with 12:22 to play and at 47-40 with 11:23 when VCU began a run.

The Rams tied the game at 47 with nine minutes left, but GSU rallied to lead by four at 53-49 with 6:00 to play. GSU held its last lead at 55-53 with 4:25 left before Hurt tied the game at 55 with 4:10 left. The Rams outscored the depleted Panthers 14-2 over the final four minutes.

In the second half alone, VCU shot 26-of-35 free throws three-point deficit at 9-6 with 16:37 on the clock into a 21-9 and made only seven field goals. GSU was called for almost before the first eight minutes of the game was played. And, GSU had its largest lead of the first half of 16 points at the fouls were just on the defensive end as GSU had eight

"I am proud of how hard we played tonight, but we were "We played aggressively today and our defense was certainly out of our rhythm with all the fouls. Usually when

GEORGIA STATE 68, GEORGE MASON 64

Upper Marlboro, Md. (Show Place Arena)

Georgia State earned a 68-64 win over George Mason in the opening round game of the CAA Championship.

GSU seniors Traci Haltiwanger and Angelique Burtts led the way. Haltiwanger scored 10 of GSU's first 13 points of the CAA Championship.

Madison in the quarterfinal round of the CAA Friday afternoon at The Show Place Arena.

Chan Harris and Angelique Burtts each sc game and ended with 14 points, 6 rebounds, 3 assists and 2 steals. Burtts then finished the game strong and made two key free throws with seven seconds left in producing 15 points, 13 rebounds 5 assists and 2 steals Georgia State (12-18) has won five of its last nine games. No. 9-seed GSU jumped out quickly today to a 13-5 lead after four and a half minutes before Mason got back within one point at 20-19 with 10 minutes left in the half. GSU it 31-19 at 7:37. After a three-point basket just ahead of the first-half buzzer from CAA All-Freshman guard Kendra Long, GSU took a 38-26 lead into halftime.

GSU was cruising along with a double-figure lead through the first eight minutes of the second half. Mason crawled back to 49-44 at the 10-minute mark, but GSU got it back to double figures at 56-46 at 8:54.

GSU was still leading 64-54 with only 3:19 left, but Mason was not going to go out quietly. The Patriots' Taleia Moton led a surge that brought her team back to 64-62 with 41.9 seconds left.

make it 66-62. Burtts missed a pair of free throws with 14.7 seconds, and Mason's Brittany Eley scored to make it 66-64 with 7.9 ticks left on the scoreboard. This time. Burtts made both free throws when fouled with seven seconds left, and the Panthers had their first tournament win since 2006.

GSU had a 48-41 rebounding advantage, including 19 offensive boards. The Panthers shot 44 percent in the first half in building the 12-point lead and finished at 38 percent on the today," she added. James Madison is certainly a good, quality day while making 16-of-24 free throws. Mason could shoot ball club that takes advantage of your mistakes. That's why

"I think the key today was the way we started the game," said first-year GSU coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener. "We were 27 with 17:21 to play, but James Madison came back with an aggressive on both ends most of the game and came out with a lot of energy today. I give Mason credit for not quitting and fighting back. But, we came ready to play and played team basketball today.'
