(Arizona, Delaware and Bethune-Cookman).

Had personal-best six assists at Old Dominion (1-4-12) and had four assists at Western Carolina (11-29-11)... Had four more games with three assists.

In rebounding, top effort was a seven-board game at Western Carolina (11-29-11), plus six-rebound games vs. Hofstra 12-4-11), Kennesaw State (12-14-11) and Old Dominion (1-4-12).

Her 97 season rebounds were sixth-most on the team.

Got first start at Western Carolina (11-29-11) in her fifth collegiate game and started the next seven straight and 10 of the next 11.

Pretty In Pink

Kayla Nolan - SOPHOMORE

Made 30 steals on the year, sixth best on team, with four steals against both Old Dominion (1-4-12) and Bethune-Cookman (1-2-12).

PREP

Nolan is a metro Atlanta product, starring her final two seasons at Duluth High north of downtown in Gwinnett County.

Kayla began at Norcross High, just a few miles from Duluth, her freshman and sophomore seasons before moving.

A double-figure scorer, Nolan was Georgia All-State second team and All-Region first team. She is a good penetrator to the basket, but also averaged four assists a game.

Her Wildcats' team of Coach Chad Pittman advanced to the Sweet Sixteen and Kayla had a 22-point game in the Region Playoffs vs. Norcross... Kayla also had a 25-point game vs. rival Northview.

She also played AAU ball with the Georgia Pistols, FBC and Georgia Hoopstars under Coach J.D. Davis.

Nolan was an All-Gwinnett County second team honoree in a second sport, volleyball, as an outside hitter.

She earned two varsity letters in a third sport, track and field, running the 100 and 200 meters, while also being a long jumper and a triple jumper.

Off the court, Kayla was an Academic Scholar honoree her final three years.

Kayla had received recruited interest from Stetson, Charlotte, UAB and Jacksonville before choosing Georgia State.

She was recruited by Charlotte of the A-10 and Jacksonville of the A-Sun. ..Ultimately, she liked the GSU coaches and players, as well as the chance to play at home in Atlanta for her family and friends to cheer her on.

PERSONAL

Kayla Kathleen Nolan was born Sept. 24, 1993 in Milwaukee, Wisc. and moved to the Atlanta area when she was in the fifth grade.

Her mother, Michele Singleton is a nurse, along with just about every female relative she has, Kayla notes... Kayla has a younger sister, Jasmine, 11.

She was also an Academic Scholar and in the National Honor Society at Du-luth HS.

Kayla has set a goal of graduating from GSU with a 3.2 GPA and then working to earn a master's degree.

Her current aspiration is work in the dentistry field and she will began her studies in biology and chemistry at Georgia State.

FISHING FOR GSU WINS

blocked shots (at JMU).

PREP

Smith scored 1,169 points in her four-year prep career in Virginia at Patrick Henry and Franklin County High Schools in the state that five Colonial Athletic Association teams call home.

The combo wing/guard averaged 13.6 points for her career, with 7.2 rebounds a game over her four years (619 rebounds).

The 5-9 Smith made 153 assists and blocked 126 shots. She also averaged two steals a game.

Smith had a 25-point, 17-rebound game vs. Franklin County as a senior for Coach Toree Dunleavy. Her top high school scoring game was 28 points.

She also had a 21-point game vs. Pulaski County and a pair of 20-point nights as a senior at Patrick Henry in Roanoke.

Miranda was a two-time All-Western Valley District honoree, an All-Region first team pick and an All-State honorable mention choice.

In addition, Miranda played AAU ball with the Roanoke Lady Hawks on a team that was the state of Virginia runner-ups.

ESPN's recruiting services said that Smith "uses her college-level strength and size" and "plays with energy and aggression."

She was rated one of the top 40 wing players in the country by one recruiting service.

During her high school career, Smith received recruiting early interest from George Washington University, East Carolina University and Norfolk State.

Later, she began being scouted and recruited by a pair of ACC schools, but stayed true to her commitment to Georgia State.

PERSONAL

Miranda Brinae Smith was born

April 11, 1993 in Roanoke, Va. to Anthony and Rhonda Smith. She has a younger sister, Lauryn, 12.

Miranda's family tree on her mother's side includes Dwaine "Pee Wee"

Board, an NFL player for 10 years and an NFL assistant coach for 20 more years. "Pee Wee" was a defensive end and has been with teams that have played in six Super Bowls, winning five of those.

Miranda's fun time finds her accepting the challenges of video games...Smith will begin studies as a health and exercise science major at Georgia State.

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION 2012

The conference continued to make its presence known nationally last season with six teams advancing to the postseason. It was a seventh straight year the CAA had at least three teams in the postseason. The CAA's conference RPI rank was No. 7 last year, just behind the Big 10 and ACC.

Last year, Delaware finished 31-2, ranking No. 7 in the final AP poll and No. 6 in the RPI ratings. James Madison's 29-7 mark saw the Dukes advance to the championship game of the WNIT. VCU advanced to the final 16 in the WNIT.

Elena Delle Donne, Delaware's 6-foot-5 star earned first-team All-America honors after leading the nation in scoring. VCU's Courtney Hurt led the nation in rebounding.

Stretching along the East Coast, the CAA footprint includes six of the nation's top media markets – New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Washington, D.C., Atlanta and Baltimore.

Regarded as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences, the CAA has produced:

- 16 national team champions in five different sports*
- 33 individual national champions*
- 12 national players of the year*
- 12 national coaches of the year*
- 12 Honda Award winners*
