THE KICKOFF

The inaugural season of Georgia State football (6-4) concludes with a trip to 10th-ranked Alabama (8-2, 5-2) for a nationally-televised, Thursday night contest.

The Panthers (6-4), coached by Bill Curry, have already clinched a winning season following a 23-17 victory over Lamar on Nov. 6. Drew Little capped the game-winning drive with a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Arthur Williams with less than five minutes to play.

Little, the redshirt freshman from McDonough, Ga., directs a GSU attack that averages 29.5 points per game. Little has passed for 2,033 yards on the season with 18 touchdown passes and seven interceptions. Eight Panthers have 10 or more catches, but Little's favorite target has been redshirt freshman Danny Williams with 53 receptions for 640 yards and five scores. GSU's leading rusher is backup quarterback Kelton Hill, who has 386 yards and averages 7.3 yards per carry. Defensively, safety Fred Barnes leads in tackles with 58, while outside linebacker Jake Muasau has 8.5 tackles for loss, four sacks and three fumble recoveries.

CURRY RETURNS TO ALABAMA

Georgia State head coach Bill Curry returns to Tuscaloosa two decades after he roamed the sideline as the head coach of the Crimson Tide. Curry spent three seasons at Alabama and compiled a 26-10 record, highlighted by a 10-2 mark and the Southeastern Conference title in 1989. He was named SEC Coach of the Year while earning Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors.

Curry's coaching record against Alabama stands at 2-4. His Georgia Tech teams went 2-3 against the Crimson Tide from 1980-84, including a pair of memorable victories. In 1981, Curry's rebuilding Georgia Tech squad finished the season with a 1-10 record, but the one win was a 24-21 victory over fourth-ranked Alabama at Legion Field in Birmingham. In 1984, Tech knocked off a 19th-ranked Alabama team, 16-6, in Atlanta. As the head coach at Kentucky, Curry only faced Alabama once, falling 35-7 at Tuscaloosa in 1996.

MORE ALABAMA CONNECTIONS

George Pugh, GSU's assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach, played tight end at Alabama under coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. During his four years (1972-75), the Crimson Tide lost just one regular-season game, highlighted by a national championship in 1973.

Assistant head coach/defensive coordinator John Thompson spent one year (1987) on the Alabama staff as the linebackers coach under Bill Curry.

Backup quarterback Star Jackson was a member of the Crimson Tide's 2009 national championship team before transferring to Georgia State last June. He played in five games as a redshirt freshman in 2009, completing 13 of 18 passes for 116 yards. Jackson, from Lake Worth, Fla., saw his most extensive playing time against North Texas, when he directed the offense for all but the opening drive of the second half and completed 9-of-13 passes for 87 yards.

Placekicker Iain Vance spent time as a walk-on for the Crimson Tide in 2008-09 but did not play in a game.

Tight end and long-snapper Bailey Woods, a transfer from Auburn, played against the Crimson Tide in last year's 26-21 win by Alabama.

SENIOR SENDOFF

Despite being a first-year program, Georgia State has five seniors:

- Charles Borowsky (Decatur, Ga.) - Walk-on wide receiver
- Hubert Davis (Valdosta, Ga.) - Reserve defensive back, plays on special teams
- Trey Ennis (Ivey, Ga.) - Backup linebacker, plays on special teams
- Brandon Lupo (Smryna, Ga.) - Holder on PATs and field goals
- Iain Vance (Duluth, Ga.) - Starting placekicker

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Quarterback Drew Little is averaging 203.3 yards passing per game. The redshirt freshman from McDonough, Ga., has completed 63 percent of his passes for 2,033 yards with 18 touchdowns and just seven interceptions. That includes a string of 202 consecutive passes over 24 quarters of play without an interception, which was snapped by South Alabama.

One of the keys to the Panthers' success through the air is an offensive line that has allowed just eight sacks all season while GSU has averaged 32 pass attempts per game.

FAST STARTS

Georgia State has gotten out of the gate quickly in most games, scoring on its opening possession in seven of 10 games, including five touchdowns and two field goals. In an eighth game (Savannah State), the Panthers drove to the 11-yard line on their opening possession but fumbled.

WILLIAMS HITS CENTURY MARK . . . AGAIN

Leading receiver Danny Williams has recorded three 100-yard games, most recently Oct. 23 at Old Dominion, when he caught a season-high 11 balls for 102 yards. He added five catches for 82 yards, with a season-long 42-yard touchdown against South Alabama.

Over the last four games, Williams has 27 catches for 348 yards.

The redshirt freshman from Orlando, Fla., became Georgia State's first-ever 100-yard receiver with eight catches for 101 yards in the Panthers' victory over Morehead State on Oct. 2.

Two games later, he broke his own school record with five receptions for 103 yards in the Oct. 16 win over North Carolina Central. With GSU trailing 14-10 in the fourth quarter, he caught a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Little to put the Panthers ahead with 5:36 to play. He also had a key third-down conversion on the drive with a 19-yard reception down to the NCCU 33-yard line.

Williams leads the Panthers with 53 receptions for 640 yards and five touchdowns. Because of his height and leaping ability, he also plays on defense in late-game situations when the opponent is attempting a Hail Mary pass, and he contributed a key pass breakup in the end zone on Lamar's final play.

VANCE HONORED BY FRED MITCHELL AWARD

Georgia State's Iain Vance is one of 42 placekickers at the FCS, Division II, Division III and NAIA levels recognized by the Fred Mitchell Award for excellence on the football field and in the community during the month of October. Vance was also honored in September.

Vance, the senior from Duluth, Ga., is 15-of-17 on field goals and 34-of-36 on PATs with game-winning kicks against Campbell (one second left) and North Carolina Central (overtime). He volunteered for Kaboom Play Day by working with local elementary school students to teach them the value of a healthy, active lifestyle, visited patients at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and participated in cleanup project at historic Oakland Cemetery.

The annual Fred Mitchell Outstanding Place-Kicker Award is provided to the nation's top collegiate place-kicker among more than 600 FCS, Division II, III and NAIA football teams. The Award is named for Fred Mitchell, the record-setting place-kicker, Wittenberg University Athletic Hall of Famer, author, philanthropist and Chicago Tribune sports columnist. The recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award will be chosen based on excellence on the football field and in the community.

SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMS

Special teams are a strong emphasis for Georgia State, and the result is productive units in virtually every area:

- Starting punter Bo Schlechter, who has missed the last two games with a knee injury, averages 44.3 yards per punt, including eight kicks of 50 yards or more and eight of 27 punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.
- Even with Schlechter missing the last two games, Georgia State's net punting average of 39.06 yards per kick would rank as the third best mark among NCAA FCS teams
- Placekicker Iain Vance has been very solid, connecting on 15-of-17 field goals, including two game-winners, and 34-of-36 extra points. He leads the team with 79 points.
- Darren McCray has a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, and Albert Wilson averages a team-leading 25.2 yards on 19 returns.

FREE FOOTBALL

Two of Georgia State's first seven games went into overtime, with the Panthers winning one.

In week three, the Panthers put a scare into then fourth-ranked Jacksonville State before falling 34-27 in overtime. GSU rallied to tie the game with four minutes left in regulation and then stopped the Gamecocks to force overtime. After JSU scored a touchdown on its possession, the Panthers came up just short as a fourth down pass from the two-yard line was caught at the back of the end zone by Arthur Williams but he was ruled out of bounds.

On Oct. 16, Georgia State earned its first overtime victory with a 20-17 win over North Carolina Central, which forced the extra session with a field goal with five seconds left in regulation. GSU again went on defense first and held the Eagles to a missed field goal, thanks to a third-down pass breakup by freshman cornerback Jamal Ransby. Then Iain Vance booted the game-winning field goal from 33 yards.

Senior placekicker Iain Vance has delivered a pair of game-winning kicks for Georgia State.

Most recently, the Duluth, Ga., native booted a 33-yard field goal in overtime to lift the Panthers to a 20-17 victory over North Carolina Central Oct. 16 at the Georgia Dome.

His first game-winning kick came Sept. 25 at Campbell, when he nailed a 30-yarder with one-second left for the 24-21 road win.

Against Lamar, Vance added a 29-yard field goal with 1:39 left and the Panthers clinging to a three-point lead.

DEFENSE STEPS UP IN WINS OVER MSU, SSU & NCCU

Georgia State's defense stepped up with strong performances in the Panthers' back-to-back victories over Morehead State (37-10) and Savannah State (55-21). GSU forced a total of seven turnovers in the two games, and held both opponents below 300 total yards. In both games, the Panther defense held the opponent to fewer than 100 yards in the first half while the offense was building a big lead.

In the win over North Carolina Central, the GSU defense came up with four turnovers, including a season-high three interceptions, giving the Panthers 11 takeaways in the last three games, all victories.

"PHAT" ALBERT

True freshman Albert Wilson caught two touchdown passes on consecutive drives in the Panthers' 55-21 victory over Savannah State. Just before halftime, he got behind the defense down the sideline and hauled in a 29-yard touchdown pass from Drew Little. On GSU's opening possession of the second half, he took a short pass in the flat, shook off a defender and raced 28 yards for the score.

On the season, Wilson has 19 catches for 260 yards, an average of 15.5 yards per catch. He has GSU's longest reception of the season with a 51-yard completion against Campbell.

The Port St. Lucie, Fla., native also averages 25.2 yards on kickoff returns to lead GSU in all-purpose yards with 88.1 per game.

JAKE & LOUIE

The flowing locks you see when Georgia State's defense is the on the field belong to linebackers Jake (35) and Louie Muasau (38), pronounced MWAH-sow. The brothers are the sons of Asoiva Muasau and the late Liuavano Muasau, natives of American Samoa. Jake's given name is Manumalo, while Louie is short for Tuugalue.

Although they are both juniors and look as if they could be twins, Louie is actually a year older. Jake plays outside linebacker, while Louie plays inside linebacker.

The brothers hail from Sierra Vista, Ariz., where they attended Buena High School. They went on to play junior college football at Phoenix College before enrolling at Georgia State in January 2010.

Both brothers have shown play-making ability, especially Jake, who leads the team with 8.5 tackles for loss. He has also collected three fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles, an interception and three pass breakups.

In the Oct. 9 win over Savannah State, Jake forced a fumble, recovered a fumble, broke up a pass and had a tackle for loss, while Louie had an interception. Against N.C. Central, Jake had a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and a key pass breakup on fourth down.

Jake had a similarly productive game against Lambuth, when he collected six tackles with four tackles for loss, including three sacks and also caused a fumble, recovered a fumble and intercepted a pass, all in the first half. He earned honorable mention recognition for the national Linebacker of the Week award from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA).

Louie is the Panthers' third-leading tackler with 41 and has one interception.

BULLY-ING THE DEFENSE

Tight end Arthur Williams made perhaps the play of the season in Georgia State's 23-17 victory over Lamar, which ensured a winning record for the Panthers in their inaugural campaign. With GSU trailing 20-17 in the fourth quarter, Williams caught a two-yard touchdown pass, hauling in the ball after it was tipped by a defender for the winning score.

Williams had made a similar catch in the back of the end zone on the Panthers' final play in the overtime loss to Jacksonville State, but he was ruled out of bounds, ending the game.

The Miami, Fla., native first made his mark with two touchdown catches in the Panthers' 37-10 victory over Morehead State. Williams lived up to his nickname of "Bully" on his first TD. The 6-3, 270-pounder caught a short pass in the flat from Drew Little and literally dragged a defender 11 yards into the end zone. Later in the game, he hauled in a two-yard scoring pass.

One game earlier, Williams had a key 24-yard reception on the Panthers' final drive to set up the winning field goal against Campbell.

Williams has 15 catches on the season for a 10.8-yard average.

WORTH THE WAIT FOR VANCE

Placekicker Iain Vance has been remarkably efficient for the Panthers, connecting on 15 of 17 field goals and 34 of 36 extra points for a team-leading 79 points.

Vance was the hero of Georgia State's win at Campbell as he booted a 30-yard field goal with just one second left to lift the Panthers to the 24-21 victory. He added another game-winner with a 33-yard kick in GSU's 20-17 overtime win over N.C. Central.

The Duluth, Ga., native was honored by the Fred Mitchell Award as a placekicker who displayed excellence on the field and in the community in the month of September, when he was perfect on field goals (5-for-5) and extra points (13-for-13) in the Panthers' first four games.

Then he began October by booting a career-best 49-yard field goal in the win over Morehead State.

Vance, a fifth-year senior, was a former walk-on player at both Georgia Tech (2006-07) and Alabama (2008) but never appeared in a game. He enrolled at Georgia State in the summer of 2009 and practiced with the Panthers last fall. When he lined up to kick the extra point following the Panthers' first touchdown in their inaugural game, it marked his first appearance in a football game since his senior season at Duluth High School - in the fall of 2005.

FOURTH-QUARTER RALLIES

Throughout the season, Georgia State has shown the ability to rally in the fourth quarter, winning three games in the fourth period or overtime (Campbell, North Carolina Central, Lamar) but also rallying in eventual losses to Jacksonville State (overtime), Old Dominion and South Alabama.

Quarterback Drew Little has been particularly effective late, completing 69 percent of his passes in the fourth quarter (including overtimes) for 574 yards with five TD passes, three touchdowns rushing and only one interception.

A look at Georgia State's notable fourth-quarter performances:

Jacksonville State (L 34-27 OT): Scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to force overtime against the fourth-ranked team in FCS. On the game-tying drive, Little was 5-for-8 for 52 yards and converted third downs with completions to Sidney Haynes (14 yds) and Travis Evans (7 yds). He hit Danny Williams with a 16-yard completion to the one-yard line, and then took it in himself for the score.

Campbell: Little went 9-for-10 for 82 yards in the fourth quarter, throwing an eight-yard scoring pass to Danny Williams with six minutes left and then moving the Panthers in position for Iain Vance's winning field goal with one second left.

North Carolina Central: With GSU trailing 14-10, Little engineered an eight-play, 66-yard drive, capped by a 24-yard touchdown pass to Danny Williams. After allowing NCCU to kick a tying field goal with five seconds left, the Panthers won the game in overtime on Vance's 33-yard field goal.

Old Dominion: Little went 12-for-20 for 192 yards in the fourth quarter with a 32-yard touchdown pass to Travis Evans and a one-yard scoring run as the Panthers rallied for two scores in the 34-20 loss.

South Alabama: Georgia State rallied for 13 fourth-quarter points, pulling within 39-34 on a touchdown with 3:57 left. Little completed 7-of-9 passes for 82 yards and scored on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter.

Lamar: After allowing Lamar to take a 17-13 lead with nine minutes left, GSU responded with a 10-play, 71-yard touchdown drive. Little was 6-for-8 for 45 yards in the fourth quarter, including a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Arthur Williams with less than five minutes to play.

DARREN DASHES FOR END ZONE, EARNS NATIONAL AWARD

Darren McCray used an explosive play to reach the end zone each in back-to-back games against Jacksonville State (Sept. 18) and Campbell (Sept. 25).

INAUGURAL STARTING LINEUP

Georgia State's starting lineup for its inaugural game is below. Of the 24 players (including kickers), nine are redshirt freshmen, one is a true freshmen, two are sophomores, and the remainder are transfers, including six junior college transfers and six from four-year schools.

The diminutive redshirt freshman, who is just 5-7 and barely 150 pounds, fielded the opening kickoff against Campbell and raced 96 yards down the right sideline for a touchdown, easily the longest scoring play in Georgia State's brief history. He was named national Kickoff Returner of the Week in FCS by the College Football Performance Awards.

One week earlier, McCray scored GSU's first touchdown against fourth-ranked Jacksonville State with an electrifying 41-yard run on a reverse handoff from Albert Wilson.

SPECIAL TEAMS EARN RECOGNITION

Two key members of the Georgia State special teams earned national recognition for their performances in the Panthers' 24-21 victory at Campbell on Sept. 25.

Darren McCray was named national Kickoff Returner of the Week in FCS by the College Football Performance Awards for his 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Punter Bo Schlechter, who punted four times for a 50-yard average with three punts inside the 20, was an honorable mention choice for Punter of the Week by the CFPA. And that doesn't even include placekicker Iain Vance, who booted the game-winning field goal with one second left.

PANTHERS RECEIVE VOTES IN FCS POLLS

Just three weeks into its inaugural season, the Georgia State football program earned votes in the two recognized Top 25 polls for the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision for the week of Sept. 20.

The Panthers were coming off a 34-27 overtime loss to Jacksonville State, which is ranked fourth in the FCS.

In the FCS Coaches Poll, Georgia State received two points that week, while in the Sports Network/Fathead.com Top 25, which is compiled by media members and sports information directors, the Panthers received one point.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Georgia State's balanced offense has shown the ability to spread the ball around. Fourteen different players have caught passes, including eight with 10 or more catches. The Panthers regularly use four tailbacks, and 12 different players have scored touchdowns.

WHAT A BEGINNING

The football era at Georgia State began with a bang as the Panthers defeated Shorter, 41-7, before a crowd of 30,237 fans on Thursday, Sept. 2 at the Georgia Dome.

Quarterback Drew Little led the Panthers' attack with a 13-of-17 performance and touchdown passes to Emmanuel Ogbuehi and Jordan Giles, while running back Parris Lee scored twice on the ground.

The program's first-ever game capped a preparation period that began in April 2008, when it was first announced that the school would field a football team.

"I've never been more proud of a group of young men than I am of this group," said head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State piled up 366 yards of total offense, including 212 yards rushing, in the contest and allowed the Shorter offense inside the red zone just once in the game.

BO KNOWS PUNTING . . . AND RECEIVING

After earning the role as the Panthers' starting punter, Bo Schlechter added wide receiver to his resume, moving there from quarterback the week of Sept. 6.

Schlechter got his first few snaps at wide receiver against Lambuth but did not catch a pass. Then against Jacksonville State, he caught five passes for 64 yards, including an 11-yard catch on third-and-eight and a 14-yard grab on third-and-six. He added two catches for 31 yards against Savannah State for a total of seven receptions for 95 yards, with a 13.6-yard average. On the season, he has eight catches for a 14.8-yard average.

On punts, Schlechter is averaging 44.3 yards with a net of 40.1.

The redshirt freshman from Wellington, Fla., is one of Georgia State's most versatile athletes. Not only did he star in football at Glades Day High, but he also played volleyball and earned a scholarship offer to Boise State in that sport.

Schlechter has served as special teams captain in four games this season. He also earned the team's first Magnanimitas award. Magnanimitas is a Latin word meaning "greatness of spirit," and the award recognizes an exemplary display of one of the six characteristics of a champion. In Schlechter's case, the characteristic he exemplified was unselfishness because of his willingness to move from quarterback to wide receiver.

NO PLACE LIKE DOME

Georgia State's inaugural season began with three straight home games, and the Panthers made their first ever road trip to Campbell on Sept. 25. The Panthers then had another three-game homestand at the Georgia Dome, giving Georgia State six of its first seven games at home. The inaugural season concludes with three of the final four games on the road.

LITTLE EARNS INAUGURAL GAME START

After a four-man battle for the starting job throughout the preseason, redshirt freshman Drew Little (Henry County HS, McDonough, Ga.) was the starting quarterback for Georgia State's inaugural game. Little earned the nod over redshirt freshmen Kelton Hill (Lithia Springs HS, Lithia Springs, Ga.) and Bo Schlechter (Glades Day HS, Wellington, Fla.) as well as sophomore Star Jackson (Lake Worth HS, Lake Worth, Fla.), the transfer from Alabama.

Little, who was spelled at times by Hill, completed 13 of 17 passes for 135 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions. After leading the Panthers to a touchdown on their first offensive possession, he threw the first touchdown pass in GSU history on a four-yard completion to tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi. He later added a 16-yard scoring pass to Jordan Giles.

PLAYERS WITH PREVIOUS D-I GAME EXPERIENCE

The Georgia State roster was bolstered this summer by the addition of four transfers from major Division I programs, all of whom were immediately to eligible play for the Panthers this fall. The quartet includes a backup quarterback from 2009 national champion Alabama (Star Jackson) as well as one starting offensive lineman (Joseph Gilbert) and one reserve (Clyde Yandell) from Georgia Tech's 2009 Atlantic Coast Conference championship team, and a member of Auburn's Outback Bowl squad (tight end Bailey Woods).

While the four recent additions have received the most fanfare, two other key Panthers have previous Division I FBS experience in center Ben Jacoby and wide receiver Sidney Haynes, both of whom enrolled last fall and practiced with the team.

Jacoby, a junior from Buford, Ga., spent two seasons at Ball State, including the 2008 season, when he saw action in six games on the Cardinals' squad that won the MAC West Division title with a 12-2 record and played in the GMAC Bowl.

Haynes played two seasons at UCF, helping the Knights win the Conference USA title in 2007. He had four catches for 48 yards in his UCF career.

Cornerback Jockey Fears also has previous Division I experience, playing two seasons at FCS program Northeastern. The NU program was disbanded following the 2009 season, and Fears, an Atlanta native, transferred to GSU. Walk-on linebacker Brad Chahoy played in two games at Georgia Southern in 2008, giving GSU a total of eight player with previous Division I game experience.

Several other players had playing experience at other levels, including starting free safety Brandon Jones, who played two years at NCAA Division II Mars Hill before transferring to GSU.

TRUE FRESHMEN IN THE SECONDARY

As a first-year program, Georgia State's roster is filled with youth at virtually every position, but none more so than cornerback.

True freshman Justin Hughes of Port St. Lucie, Fla. (Treasure Coast HS) earned a starting berth in preseason and has started every game at cornerback. GSU's other starting cornerback is redshirt freshman Brent McClendon. When he went down with an injury against Jacksonville State, his replacements were freshmen Demarius Matthews of Powder Springs, Ga. (McEachern HS) and Jamal Ransby of Newnan, Ga. (Newnan HS), who started against Campbell and Morehead State. And the Panthers' only other corner is true freshman Isaiah Howard of Boynton Beach, Fla. (American Heritage, Fla.).

EXPERIENCED COACHES

Georgia State is blessed with a pair of coordinators with a wealth of major college experience in assistant head coach/defensive coordinator John Thompson and offensive coordinator John Bond.

Thompson has served as defensive coordinator or co-coordinator at SEC schools Mississippi (2007), Florida (2002), Arkansas (2000-01), South Carolina (2005), as well as Memphis (1999), Southern Miss (1992-98), Louisiana Tech (1990-91) and Northwestern State (1988-89), for a total of 23 years as a Division I coordinator.

Bond, a 25-year coaching veteran, directed prolific offenses at Georgia Tech (2007), Northern Illinois (2004-06), Army (2000-03) and Illinois State (1997-99) for a total of 13 years as a Division I coordinator.

Thompson and assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator George Pugh also have head coaching experience. Thompson spent two seasons (2004-05) as the head coach at East Carolina, where he coached current NFL standout running back Chris Johnson. Pugh compiled a 19-10 record in three seasons at Alabama A&M (1989-91), winning three SIAC titles.

NFL FACILITIES

Georgia State is one of just eight collegiate programs to play its home games in the same facility as an NFL team. Six are FBS programs: Miami, Pittsburgh, San Diego State, Temple, Tulane and USF. The only other FCS program to play in an NFL facility is Tennessee State.

WHAT IS THIS STUFF?

Georgia State's game at Alabama's Bryant-Denny Stadium will mark the Panthers' first game on natural grass after 10 straight on artificial turf.

The Panthers' home field, the Georgia Dome, features artificial turf, as do Campbell's Barker-Lane Stadium, Old Dominion's Foreman Field and South Alabama's Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

FATHERS & SONS

Two members of Bill Curry's first Georgia State team are the sons of his former players at Georgia Tech.

Mark Hogan, Jr. was GSU's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. His father, Mark, Sr., played for Curry at Tech from 1982-85. Mark, Jr., spent the spring 2009 semester as a team of one, working out by himself with strength and conditioning coach Ken Coggins.

The Panthers added another second-generation player in Auburn transfer Bailey Woods, whose father, John, was an offensive lineman at Tech in 1976 when Curry was the line coach.

ANOTHER FAMOUS FATHER

Sophomore cornerback Brent McClendon is the son of former Chicago Bears running back Willie McClendon. The elder McClendon starred at Georgia, where he was the 1978 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Brent's older brother, Bryan, also played at Georgia and is a now the running backs coach for the Bulldogs.

MATTHEWS HONORS HIGH SCHOOL TEAMMATE

For Georgia State freshman cornerback Demarius Matthews, his jersey number holds special significance. Matthews, from Powder Springs, Ga., asked to wear No. 5 in honor of Rajaan Bennett, his teammate at McEachern High who was killed in an apparent murder-suicide last February. Bennett was an outstanding player himself who had earned a scholarship to Vanderbilt.

NOT THE ONLY DEBUT

The Georgia State football team isn't the only debut this season. The launch of football has also given birth to the University's first marching band. Under the direction of Dr. Chester Phillips, the GSU marching band features 140 members, including 89 woodwinds and brass, 20 Percussion, 23 Color guard, four rock band members and four drum majors.

HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

A name synonymous with CLASS AND INTEGRITY in the coaching profession, BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

An Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry has spent the last two years developing and directing the football program in every area, and now he leads the Panthers on the field as they play their inaugural season of 2010.

Curry brings 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference—including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues—as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals.

Curry's 10-year playing career as a center included stops with the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974). He served as President of the NFL Players Association.

Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Curry is a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

His passion for mentoring young people is also evident in his previous position as the director of Leadership Baylor at the Baylor School in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he served before taking over at Georgia State.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.

- Fifth-year senior who handles kickoffs and placekicking for the Panthers
- Has connected on 15-of-17 field goals and 34-of-36 PAT
- GSU's leading scorer with 79 points.
- Would rank in the top 10 nationally in field goals per game and field goal percentage
- Has two game-winning field goals vs. Campbell & N.C. Central
- Booted the game-winning, 30-yard field goal with just one second left to lift GSU to a 24-21 victory over Campbell
- Nailed a 33-yard field goal to give GSU a 20-17 overtime win over N.C. Central
- Booted three field goals, including the game-clincher with 1:39 left, versus Lamar despite battling a groin injury
- Missed his first field of the season in game five on a 43-yard attempt vs. Morehead but followed by booting a season-long 49-yarder
- Recognized by the Fred Mitchell Award as a placekicker who displayed excellence on the field and in the community in both September (5-for-5 FG and 13-for-13 PAT) and October (7-9 FG and 19-21 PAT)
- Former walk-on player at Georgia Tech (2006-07) and Alabama (2008) but did not play in a game at either school
- When he kicked the extra point following GSU's first touchdown against Shorter, it marked his first football game since 2005 when he was a senior at Duluth High School

TE • 6-3, 270 • Jr.
Miami, Fla. (Carol City HS/Palomar JC)

- Tight end with 15 catches for 162 yards and three touchdowns
- Made perhaps the play of the season in Georgia State's 23-17 victory over Lamar, which ensured a winning record for the Panthers in their inaugural campaign. With GSU trailing 20-17 in the fourth quarter, Williams caught a two-yard touchdown pass, hauling in the ball after it was tipped by a defender for the winning score.
- Nearly made a similar catch in the back of the end zone on the Panthers' final play in the overtime loss to Jacksonville State, but he was ruled out of bounds, ending the game.
- Three catches for 43 yards in win at Campbell, including a 24-yard reception down to the CU 30-yard line to help set up the game-winning FG
- Caught two touchdowns in win over Morehead State. Scored on an 11-yard reception from Drew Little on which he caught a short pass in the flat and literally dragged the defender into the end zone. Also caught a two-yard TD pass
- Nicknamed Bully

- GSU's leading receiver with 53 receptions for 640 yards and five TD. Averaging 5.3 catches and 64.0 yards per game
- Has 27 catches for 348 yards over last four games
- Became the Panthers' first-ever 100-yard receiver with eight catches for 101 yards in win over Morehead State
- Bettered that with five catches for 103 yards against N.C. Central, including a 24-yard touchdown catch that put GSU ahead with 5:36 to play. Also had a 19-yard catch for a third-down conversion on the scoring drive.
- Season-high 11 catches for 102 yards against Old Dominion
- Had five receptions for 82 yards against South Alabama, including a 47-yard scoring play that is his longest reception of the year

- Caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Drew Little in the fourth quarter of GSU's 24-21 win at Campbell. Also had a spectacular, one-handed grab on that drive.
- Had seven catches for 78 yards in overtime loss to fourth-ranked Jacksonville State. Set up the tying touchdown late in regulation with a 16-yard reception down to the one-yard line
- Caught a 39-yard TD pass from Roosevelt Watson vs. Lambuth
- Had receptions of 15 and 13 yards vs. Shorter
- Because of his height and leaping ability, he also plays on defense in late-game situations when the opponent is attempting a Hail Mary pass, and he contributed a key pass breakup in the end zone on Lamar's final play.

GEORGIA STATE 41, SHORTER 7

Game 1: Sept. 2, 2010 • 7:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

The football era began at Georgia State with a 41-7 victory over NAIA Shorter before a crowd of 30,237 fans at the Georgia Dome Thursday night. Quarterback Drew Little led the Panthers with a 13-of-17 performance and two touchdown passes, while running back Parris Lee scored twice on the ground.

The program's first-ever game capped a preparation period that began in April 2008, when it was first announced that the school would field a football team.

"I've never been more proud of a group of young men than I am of this group," said head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State (1-0) piled up 366 yards of total offense, including 212 yards rushing, and allowed the Shorter offense inside the red zone just once in the game. Safety Brandon Jones led the defense with six tackles on the night.

The Panthers jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter and never looked back, moving the ball 63 yards on 11 plays on the game's first possession and capping the drive with a 4-yard Lee touchdown run. A 15-yard completion by Little to wide receiver Danny Williams on third down put the ball inside the Shorter 10 and helped set up the opening score.

Georgia State scored three times in the second quarter on two Iain Vance field goals (from 22 and 18 yards out) and a touchdown drive of 30 yards after the Panthers recovered a Shorter fumble. Little found tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi for an 8-yard score and the Panthers' first-ever touchdown through the air.

Quarterback Kelton Hill piloted the offense for the first drive of the second half, which resulted in the first of the period's two field goals. Hill capped the scoring in the contest with a 24-yard touchdown run with eight seconds remaining in the game.

The second-half scoring for the Panthers began with Lee's second touchdown of the game, a 10-yard run into the corner of the end zone with 2:12 left in the third. Little found wide receiver Jordan Giles from 16 yards out for the Panthers' first score of the fourth quarter and his second passing touchdown of the night.

Shorter scored its first points of the game with 8:14 left in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Ben Williams, making the score 27-7. The Hawks had a chance to get on the scoreboard on their first possession of the second half, but David Guilford hooked the 51-yard field goal attempt wide left.

Georgia State finished the game with no turnovers; Shorter gave the ball up twice on the evening.

"When you don't turn the ball over and you get some turnovers you almost always win," added Curry. "That is an incredible coefficient of victory that we have hammered and preached so hard."

Official attendance for the game was announced at 30,237, with overflow into the mezzanine level of the Georgia Dome.

LAMBUTH 23, GEORGIA STATE 14

Game 2: Sept. 11, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

After erasing a nine-point halftime deficit to take a lead late into the fourth quarter, Georgia State fell to NAIA Lambuth, 23-14, at the Georgia Dome. Two late interceptions — one of which was returned for a Lambuth touchdown — doomed the Panthers in their second game as a program.

"We did not sustain anything running the ball today," said Panthers head coach Bill Curry after the game. "And we couldn't stop them when we needed to."

The Panthers trailed 9-0 at the half before coming alive on offense.

Georgia State (1-1) got on the scoreboard on its second drive of the second half, starting at its own 48-yard line after forcing a Lambuth punt. Quarterback Kelton Hill, in for starter Drew Little, took off out of the pocket on third-and-13 and broke free for a 53-yard gain down to the Lambuth 2-yard line. Two plays later, Travis Evans ran 2 yards for a Panthers touchdown, and Iain Vance hit the point after to cut it 9-7.

After penalties helped stop the ensuing Lambuth (1-1) drive, Georgia State struck again on a 77-yard drive that culminated in the Panthers' biggest pass play of the season so far. Hill, in again under center, pitched to Roosevelt Watson, who then found a wide-open Danny Williams for a 39-yard touchdown pass, putting GSU ahead, 14-9, with just six seconds remaining in the third quarter.

The Panthers' second touchdown drive was set up by a 14-yard pass from Little to Darren McCray and a 20-yard run from Evans.

"I was proud the guys fought back in the third quarter to get the lead," added Curry. "But Lambuth deserves the win today because they outplayed us."

A clock-eating Lambuth touchdown drive in the fourth quarter put the Eagles back on top 16-14 with 2:27 left in the game. Lambuth's game-winning drive covered 69 yards on 17 plays and lasted more than eight minutes, capped by B.A. Davis' four-yard touchdown run.

GSU's Demarius Matthews returned the ensuing kickoff to the 32-yard line, but Hill's pass was deflected up in the air and into the arms of Darius Buckley, who returned it 37 yards for the clinching score.

Lambuth, coached by former Temple head coach Ron Dickerson, used a possession passing game, combined with the running of Marquis Williams to take a 9-0 lead at the half. Williams, frequently taking direct snaps, rushed for 149 yards on 17 carries, including a 23-yard scoring run on the Eagles' first possession.

Linebacker Jake Muasau came up with two turnovers in the first half, getting an interception and a fumble recovery, and also had three sacks in the game. Olufemi Opanubi led the defense with nine total tackles.

JACKSONVILLE STATE 34, GEORGIA STATE 27 (OT)

Game 3: Sept. 18, 2010 • 1 p.m. (CSS-TV)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

In its first-ever contest against an NCAA Football Championship Subdivision opponent, Georgia State fell to No. 4 Jacksonville State, 34-27, in overtime at the Georgia Dome.

Needing a touchdown and extra point to prolong the extra period after giving up a score to JSU on the first possession, Georgia State quarterback Kelton Hill threw incomplete in the back of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the two-yard line. Tight end Arthur Williams came down with the tipped pass, but after one official signaled touchdown, he was ruled out of bounds.

Jacksonville State scored on four plays on the first possession of overtime, with quarterback Marques Ivory running four yards for a touchdown.

"We didn't come here to do well against good teams," said head coach Bill Curry. "We came here to beat them, and there were so many ways that we could have today, but we weren't ready to take that step just yet."

After falling behind 27-20 early in the fourth quarter, Georgia State scored with 3:57 left in regulation to tie the score 27-27 on a one-yard Drew Little quarterback sneak. The tying drive covered 75 yards on 13 plays, including third-down completions by Little to Sidney Haynes for 14 yards and Travis Evans for seven yards. Little hit Danny Williams for 16 yards down to the JSU one to set up the score.

Regulation ended in frantic fashion with Jacksonville State in possession of the ball in field goal range on the GSU 20-yard line. After completing a five-yard pass with time running down, Ivory took the snap rather than spiking the ball or calling timeout to stop the clock and bring up a potential game-winning field goal attempt. His pass was tipped and nearly intercepted by Brandon Jones to send the game into overtime.

After allowing a field goal to JSU on the first possession of the game, Georgia State struck quickly on its first drive with a scintillating 41-yard touchdown run by Darren McCray to take a 7-3 lead. On the play, McCray took a reverse handoff from Albert Wilson and streaked down the sideline, fighting off several Gamecock defenders to find the end zone.

JSU countered with a short touchdown pass by Ivory, who found Jamal Young for the four-yard scoring play on the first play of the second quarter to regain the lead, 10-7.

The score at halftime was 17-10 in the Gamecocks' favor as JSU mounted a late touchdown drive after an Iain Vance 39-yard field goal with 4:13 to go in the second.

The two teams traded field goals to begin the third quarter, with Vance again connecting on a 25-yard try.

Down 20-13 in the fourth quarter, Georgia State again struck quickly on offense. After moving the ball into JSU territory, Evans took a handoff up the middle and eluded several would-be tacklers to go 46 yards for the touchdown and tie the game at 20-20 with 13:26 to go in the contest.

The Panthers put up 339 yards of total offense in the game, with Little completing 25 of 38 passes for 227 yards. Receivers Danny Williams and Bo Schlechter were the main targets, with Williams catching seven passes for 78 yards and Schlechter, the former quarterback, bringing in five passes for 64 yards. Safety Brandon Jones led the defense with seven total tackles.

"Obviously, Drew Little was outstanding at quarterback," Curry added. "Obviously, Travis Evans is a force when he contains his enthusiasm. He is an amazing player. The offensive line took a giant step forward today from last week."

"I'm proud of our effort," said Curry. "We can go back on the field and improve again if we practice the way we did this week, and get ready for the next one, and the next one, until we play like we should virtually all the time."

GEORGIA STATE 24, CAMPBELL 21

Game 4: Sept. 25, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Barker-Lane Stadium • Buies Creek, N.C.

Iain Vance booted a 30-yard field goal with just one second left to lift Georgia State to a 24-21 victory over Campbell Saturday afternoon at Barker-Lane Stadium, giving the Panthers (2-2) a win in their first-ever road game.

Vance's field goal capped a 10-play, 63-yard drive after Campbell (1-3) tied the game with a touchdown with 3:14 to play. GSU quarterback Drew Little completed three passes on the drive, including a 24-yard completion to tight end Arthur Williams to the Campbell 30, and then Roosevelt Watson got the Panthers into field goal range with runs of 15 and six yards down to the 24.

The Panthers ran two plays to run down the clock and get the ball into the middle of the field for Vance, the fifth-year senior from Duluth, Ga., who has not missed this season.

"We've put him under pressure in practice every single day since Aug. 11, 2009, just so that he would be ready for this," said GSU head coach Bill Curry.

Little's eight-yard touchdown pass to Danny Williams had put the Panthers ahead, 21-14, with 6:11 to play after a 13-play, 80-yard drive, but the Camels answered by moving 64 yards on just six plays. Quarterback Daniel Polk accounted for the game-tying score on a seven-yard run.

Little, the redshirt freshman from McDonough, Ga., completed 16 of 23 passes for 163 yards and two touchdowns on the day.

Rashaun Brown rushed for a career-high 133 yards on 19 carries for the Camels, who fell in the final seconds for the second straight game after allowing a touchdown to Davidson with 13 seconds left last week.

"I'm proud of my guys for one thing, which we've shown every day since we got here, and that is resilience," said Curry. "We will fight back every single time. We're 2-2 and we'll take that. Give credit to a very valiant Campbell team."

After a 14-all tie at the half, the Panthers' defense dodged two scoring threats in the second half as Campbell missed a pair of field goals, the second one coming early in the fourth quarter after third-down sack by GSU defensive tackle Christo Bilukidi.

From there, GSU took over at its own 20, and the Panthers moved down the field behind the combination of Little's passing and key runs by Travis Evans, who finished with 53 yards on 11 carries. Little started the drive with a 14-yard completion to Arthur Williams, then hit Parris Lee and Emmanuel Ogbuehi for short gains for a first down at the GSU 45. Then Evans carried three straight times, including a three-yard gain on third-and-two. On first down at the Campbell 44, Little hit Danny Williams for five yards, and then Evans ran 18 yards down to the 21. After an incompletion and a six-yard gain by Evans, Little converted on third down with a five-yard strike to Danny Williams to the 10. On second down, Little again found Williams, this time in the corner of the end zone for an eight-yard scoring pass and a 21-14 lead with 6:11 to go.

On the two fourth-quarter scoring drives, Little was 9-for-10 for 82 yards.

The Panthers won the toss and elected to receive, which proved to be a good decision when Darren McCray took the opening kickoff and raced 94 yards for the score, staking Georgia State to the early, 7-0 lead. Not only was McCray's jaunt a first in Georgia State history, but it was also the first surrendered by the Campbell program in its third year of existence.

Campbell also had an early scoring chance when the Camels recovered a fumbled punt at the GSU 17-yard line. Five plays later, quarterback Daniel Polk punched it in from the one to knot the score at 7-all with 9:47 to play in the first quarter.

Georgia State answered on its first offensive possession with a 10-play, 51-yard drive, capped by Little's five-yard touchdown pass to Sidney Haynes as the Panthers regained the lead, 14-7, with 4:06 left in the first quarter.

The Camels tied the game by grinding out a 13-play, 94-yard drive that lasted nearly eight minutes. Georgia State appeared to have the drive stopped, but a roughing the passer call gave Campbell a key third-down conversion. Polk finished the drive with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Harrison Jordan, knotting the score at 14-all just 1:31 before halftime.

GEORGIA STATE 37, MOREHEAD ST. 10

Game 5: Oct. 2, 2010 • 1 p.m. (CSS-TV)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by a stellar passing performance from Drew Little and tenacious defense, Georgia State cruised past Morehead State, 37-10, in the Georgia Dome on Saturday. The Panthers' first-ever Homecoming Game resulted in the program's second win over a fellow FCS opponent and third win overall on the season.

Georgia State (3-2) got 287 yards and four touchdowns on 21-of-29 passing from Little, who enjoyed his best game as a Panther. The defense held a previously prolific Morehead State (2-3) offense to just 280 total yards, giving up the only MSU touchdown early in the fourth quarter.

"Drew Little's performance today was just masterful," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "We are really proud of him. He also has some very good receivers who catch the ball well, even if he does not throw it exactly right sometimes. The o-line grew up today, and we played our most complete game. They got it together and came out and played about as well as we have played. The other key factor is that the defense came to play today in a way they have not this entire year."

Little gave credit to the entire offense.

"What I did today was because of the o-line, the wide-outs, the running backs," he said. "You have got to have the time to get it to the receivers and make a good play."

GSU jumped out to a 30-3 halftime lead, its best scoring output on the season for a single half.

The Panthers struck early with two scoring drives in the first quarter. After forcing a three-and-out on MSU's first possession, Little and company embarked on an eight-play, 56-yard drive that culminated in a 6-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Giles, who made his return after missing the last three games with injury. First-down passes to Sidney Haynes and Danny Williams helped set up the score.

On the Panthers' next possession, the offense struck in just over a minute with a three-play, 57-yard scoring drive. On the second play of the drive, Little hit Albert Wilson deep down the sideline for a 42-yard gain, putting the ball at the MSU 4-yard line and setting up Parris Lee's third rushing touchdown of the season on the next play.

Little found 6-foot-3, 270-pound Arthur Williams for his first of two touchdowns with 3:29 remaining in the second quarter. Williams caught the ball near the line of scrimmage at the MSU 11-yard line and dragged an Eagle defender nearly the whole way to the goal line for an impressive score.

Arthur Williams' second touchdown came on a play-action rollout from Little on fourth-and-1 from the MSU 2-yard line with 7:47 to go in the third quarter. Little hit him in stride for the Panthers' final score on the afternoon to make it 37-3. The two receiving scores for the junior college transfer from Miami, Fla., were his first at Georgia State.

Haynes scored his second receiving touchdown on the season with a 12-yard fade route into the end zone with just :17 remaining in the first half. Earlier in the drive, Little found Danny Williams on third-and-14 for an over-the-shoulder, 39-yard reception to the MSU 38-yard line. Danny Williams set career highs with eight catches and 101 yards.

Iain Vance also set a personal best with a 49-yard field goal with 7:55 left in the second quarter. Coming into the game, Vance was perfect on both field goals (5-for-5) and extra points (13-for-13), but missed a 43-yard FG attempt and one extra point on the afternoon. The career-long kick was set up by an MSU fumble that was recovered at the Eagles' 35-yard line by Brandon Jones.

Travis Evans was the Panthers' leading rusher with 62 yards on eight carries.

The Panther defense turned in a great statistical performance in picking up four turnovers, a season high, and limiting Morehead State, known for its pass-heavy attack, to 280 yards of total offense, including just 98 yards in the first half.

GSU recovered two fumbles - one by Jones and another by Nate Anthony on a muffed MSU punt, both in the second quarter - and gathered in two interceptions. Linebacker Brad Chahoy picked off Lewis in the third quarter, and cornerback Demarius Matthews grabbed an errant MSU pass with 0:52 left in the game.

"Coach [John] Thompson, [Anthony] Midget, [Jason] French and [Chris] Ward spent many, many hours evaluating route systems and protections," Curry said. "I think they had such a marvelous plan.

"Our young defensive backs are growing up and our veteran defensive backs are redshirt freshmen."

The Eagles got a 27-yard field goal from Rainer Duzan in the first quarter, then found the end zone when Zach Lewis passed to Jaison Yoshimura for a 23-yard score with 11:20 left in the game.

Quarterback Star Jackson saw his first snaps of the season against Morehead State. The Alabama transfer, a 6-foot-3, 210-pound redshirt sophomore, had a rough game with two interceptions. Kelton Hill also directed the offense for a series late in the fourth quarter.

Georgia State held the ball for 32:25 in the game to win its first advantage in time of possession on the season.

GEORGIA STATE 55, SAVANNAH ST. 21

Game 6: Oct. 9, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State got four takeaways on defense and four touchdown passes from Drew Little to pick up its second consecutive blowout win, 55-21 over Savannah State on Saturday at the Georgia Dome. Georgia State (4-2) is now 3-1 this season against schools from the FCS division, and is on its first three-game win streak in school history.

"I'm very pleased with our men today because this is another first for us," said Panthers head coach Bill Curry. "(It is) the first time we have played two decent games in a row."

The Panthers scored a total of 17 points on drives after three of the four Savannah State (0-6) miscues, all of which happened in the first half. Linebacker Louie Muasau had an interception and a fumble recovery - both in the first quarter - to spark the Panthers' defense. Jamal Ransby added an interception and Brent McClendon picked up a fumble.

"We knew we couldn't get passive and take it easy, we just had to do what we're here to do," said McClendon of the Panther defense. "We just had to cause turnovers and try to intercept them and recover the ball."

The 55-point offensive outburst eclipsed the Panthers' next-highest total of 41 points against Shorter in the season-opening win.

Albert Wilson had two touchdown catches, one from 29 yards out in the second quarter and one from 28 yards out in the third, for his first scores of the season. Sam Burkhalter also had a two-touchdown day, catching a pass for the Panthers' first score and running for a 1-yard TD in the third quarter.

Drew Little finished 16-of-25 passing for 166 yards and four scores on the afternoon, going his third straight game without an interception. Iain Vance continued his superb senior season by going 2-for-2 on field goals (from 46 and 27 yards, both in the second quarter) and hitting all of his PATs. He is 8-of-9 on the year on field goals.

Three quarterbacks led the Panthers on scoring drives, with Star Jackson and Kelton Hill taking the team into the end zone in the fourth quarter. Hill totaled 95 yards rushing, including an 8-yard touchdown run inside the final minute of the game, with no pass attempts.

The first series of the game kicked off the parade of turnovers, with McClendon picking the ball off the turf after the first Tiger fumble and returning it nine yards to the Savannah State 23. But the Panthers gave the ball away themselves (their only turnover of the game) after Danny Williams fumbled on the SSU 11-yard line.

On the Panthers' next offensive series, however, they would capitalize on the second Savannah State turnover after Louie Muasau's interception of Tiger QB Antonio Bostick gave GSU the ball back at the SSU 19.

Four plays later, Parris Lee found the corner of the end zone from 4 yards out to give the Panthers a 7-0 advantage with 8:23 remaining in the first quarter. On the previous play, a third down and long, Bo Schlechter caught a 15-yard slant to give the Panthers the first and goal.

Savannah State's fumble on the first play of its next series - recovered by Jake Muasau at the Tiger 21 after a Fred Barnes sack - set up the next touchdown drive, as Burkhalter hauled in the 9-yard touchdown pass from Little to give the Panthers a 14-0 lead just eight minutes into the game.

GSU would add two more touchdowns before halftime. Danny Williams caught his third touchdown pass of the season from seven yards out to cap a 67-yard drive, and Wilson caught his first TD pass of the game with just :20 to go in the half to make it 34-7.

Wilson's second touchdown reception of the game finished off the opening drive of the second half, as Wilson caught a short pass on the sideline, shook off a tackler, and darted the rest of the way for the 28-yard score to give GSU the 41-7 advantage.

The Panthers are averaging 33 points a game on offense through their first six games of the season.

"We're getting better and better every day," said Wilson. "We just need to work on ball security and keep cutting down the turnovers on offense. We're doing more drills on ball security in practice. We're working on the small things and making sure we block our assignments at the right time."

The Panther defense gave up scoring drives of 53, 64 and 94 yards, with running back Sheldon Barnes going for two short touchdown runs and Bostick hitting wide receiver Bryan Lackey for a 38-yard scoring pass.

Fred Barnes led the defense with 6.5 total tackles, including a sack, forced fumble and two tackles for loss.

GEORGIA STATE 20, NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL 17 (OT)

Game 7: Oct. 16, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Iain Vance hit a 33-yard field goal in overtime to push Georgia State past North Carolina Central, 20-17, in the Georgia Dome. The victory moved the Panthers' overall record to 5-2 and extended their winning streak to four games.

The game-winner was Vance's second of the season. He hit a 30-yarder against Campbell with one second remaining to send the Panthers to a 24-21 victory three weeks ago.

"Every kick that you get like that, just like we do it every day in practice, obviously it helps," said the fifth-year senior. "The snapper, the holder and the kicker all need to be in sync."

After NCCU kicked the tying field goal with five seconds left in regulation, Georgia State won the coin toss heading into the extra period and elected to play defense first. Cornerback Jamal Ransby made a touchdown-saving pass breakup on a third-down play, and Frankie Cardelle's 45-yard field goal attempt sailed wide to turn the ball over to GSU.

It was the Panthers' second overtime contest of their inaugural season; they lost the first one to Jacksonville State, 34-27, on September 18 at home. It was also their first come-from-behind victory when trailing at the half, as Central led 7-3 at the break.

"Another routine Georgia State win," joked Panther head coach Bill Curry. "What a wonderful testament for our guys. In order to be a decent program, you have got to win these games."

For the second week in a row, the State defense picked up four turnovers. Brad Chahoy, Brent McClendon and Fred Barnes all intercepted passes from Central quarterback Keon Williams (all in the first half), and Jake Muasau recovered a Williams fumble caused by Christo Bilukidi on the first play of the fourth quarter.

The Panthers trailed 14-10 in the fourth period before mounting an eight-play, 66-yard scoring drive that culminated in a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Little to Danny Williams to take a 17-14 lead with 5:36 left in the game.

After Jake Muasau batted down a pass on a fourth-down fake-punt attempt, the Panthers took over possession on the Central 39-yard line with 2:54 remaining. Faced with a fourth-and-one three plays later, Little looked to sneak for a first down to ice the game but came up just short, giving the ball back to the Eagles with 50 seconds left.

Central took off on a torrid drive, with Williams completing three straight passes to move to the GSU 27. After two straight incompletions, Cardelle came on for the game-tying field-goal attempt with just :10 remaining in regulation.

Cardelle's attempt from 44 yards sailed wide left, but Panther head coach Bill Curry had called his final timeout just prior to the snap. On Cardelle's second try, the kick was good to send the game into overtime.

Little finished 16-of-29 passing for 205 yards and a touchdown. He also went his fourth straight game without an interception, a total of 18 error-free quarters. Danny Williams broke his own school record of 101 receiving yards, set two weeks ago against Morehead State, by going for 103 yards on five catches and a touchdown.

Quarterback Kelton Hill led the team in rushing with 71 yards, but lost two fumbles.

The Panther offense struggled for much of the game, mustering only 28 rushing yards in the first half. GSU got its first points of the game late in the second quarter on a 32-yard field goal from Vance, who went 2-for-3 on the day to make him 10-for-12 so far this season.

"We are just glad to come out 5-2," said Little. "We got a 'W' and that's all that matters. We didn't play as well as we would have liked to, but we came out on top."

The Panthers picked up their first lead of the game in the third quarter. They embarked on their longest drive of the season so far, an 85-yard march that resulted in a 25-yard touchdown scamper by Travis Evans, his third of the season, to make it 10-7 with 3:50 to go in the third quarter.

Central got a 29-yard touchdown run from Arthur Goforth in the first quarter and then took a 14-10 lead in the fourth quarter when Williams hit receiver Geovonie Irvine behind the defense for a 47-yard touchdown with 9:58 left in the game.

The Panther defense set a season-high with the three interceptions. Fred Barnes led the team in tackles with 7.5 stops in addition to his interception, and Bilukidi and Khiry Karriem came up with sacks.

Bo Schlechter continued his stellar play at both punter and wide receiver. Schlechter, who started the season as a quarterback, punted four times for a 51-yard average, including two inside the 20-yard line. He also caught one pass, a key 23-yard reception in the third quarter on third down to help set up Evans' touchdown run.

OLD DOMINION 34, GEORGIA STATE 20

Game 8: Oct. 23, 2010 • 3:30 p.m. (TV)

S.B. Ballard Stadium/Foreman Field • Norfolk, Va.

Playing just its second road game, the Georgia State football team fell at Old Dominion, 34-20, Saturday before 19,278 fans at S.B. Ballard Stadium, snapping the Panthers four-game winning streak.

Georgia State quarterback Drew Little passed for 414 yards and Danny Williams had another 100-yard receiving day, but the Panthers hurt themselves with four fumbles and several untimely penalties.

"Had we held onto the football and not committed so many stupid penalties, it might have been a different ballgame," said head coach Bill Curry. "You can't do that against a really good football team like Old Dominion, especially on the road, and expect to have a chance."

Georgia State led 6-0 at the end of the first quarter, but the Monarchs (4-3) closed the first half with 17 straight points to take a 17-6 lead into the intermission.

Trailing by just 11, the Panthers began the second half with the ball and drove into ODU territory before Parris Lee fumbled at the 29-yard line at the end of a 12-gain. The Monarchs took advantage with a 71-yard touchdown drive, capped by Colby Goodwyn's 23-yard scoring run, to take a 24-6 lead.

Georgia State then mounted another promising drive, getting a first down at the ODU 8, but Little's fourth-down pass fell incomplete. Still, GSU stopped the Monarchs and forced a punt, but Albert Wilson misplayed the ball and ODU recovered at the Panthers' nine-yard line. That led to a 29-yard field goal by Jarrod Brown and a 27-6 lead for the Monarchs.

Another Panther fumble, this one by Sam Burkhalter, gave ODU possession at the GSU 29, setting up a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Thomas DeMarco, extending the Monarchs' lead to 34-6 late in the third quarter. DeMarco passed for 152 yards and one touchdown while rushing for 31 yards and a score.

The Panthers kept fighting and managed a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns on a 32-yard catch-and-run by Travis Evans and a three-yard plunge by Little. After Little's score made the score 34-20 with 3:18 to play, GSU attempted an onside kick but did not recover the ball.

Little finished 32-for-53 for 414 yards, easily the biggest numbers of his young career, with one touchdown pass. The redshirt freshman from McDonough, Ga., extended his interception-less streak to 187 passes.

Danny Williams caught a season-high 11 passes for 102 yards, and Sidney Haynes added six catches for 73 yards. The Panthers outgained ODU, 477 yards to 381, but GSU managed just 58 yards rushing, while ODU backs Mario Crawford and Colby Goodwyn combined for 163 of the Monarchs' 229 yards on the ground.

In the first quarter, the Panthers twice drove deep into ODU territory but had to settle for a pair of Vance field goals.

GSU moved down the field on its opening possession as a 30-yard run by Roosevelt Watson gave the Panthers first-and-goal at the ODU two. But three running plays netted minus-two yards, and GSU had to settle for Vance's 21-yard field goal.

The Panthers' next possession also resulted in a field goal as GSU drove from its own 20 to a first-down at the ODU 20 before Vance was good from 34 yards. He is now 12-of-14 on the season.

"One of our stated goals coming in was to score touchdowns when we got in the red zone, but we didn't do that today," said Curry. "When Old Dominion got in the red zone, they did score touchdowns."

"Congratulations to [ODU head coach] Bobby Wilder on a well-coached and well-prepared football team," continued Curry.

Old Dominion got on the scoreboard with an 80-yard drive in the second quarter, capped by a six-yard touchdown run by Mario Crawford, putting the Monarchs ahead, 7-6, with 7:03 remaining in the second quarter.

After forcing a three-and-out by GSU, ODU began its next possession at midfield and drove for an 18-yard touchdown pass from DeMarco to Marquel Thomas with 2:34 left in the first half.

Georgia State went to a hurry-up offense and was on the move until Danny Williams fumbled at the end of a 13-yard completion. Donald Smith recovered for the Monarchs, giving ODU the ball at the 46-yard line with 1:46 still remaining in the half. The Monarchs moved to the GSU 27 before settling for Brown's career-long 44-yard field goal.

SOUTH ALABAMA 39, GEORGIA STATE 34

Game 9: Oct. 30, 2010 • 5 p.m.
Ladd-Peebles Stadium • Mobile, Ala.

Georgia State rallied with 13 fourth-quarter points before falling at undefeated South Alabama, 39-34, Saturday at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Ala.

Drew Little threw two touchdown passes and rushed for two more for the Panthers (5-4), but South Alabama's Kendall Houston rushed for 175 yards, including the first down that enabled the Jaguars to run out the clock and improve to 8-0 on the season and 15-0 in their two-year history.

Jaguar quarterback C.J. Bennett threw three touchdown passes as South Alabama scored 24 straight points in the second quarter to turn a 14-6 deficit into a 30-14 halftime lead.

Trailing 33-14, the Panthers began their rally as Little hit Danny Williams for a 47-yard touchdown pass to move GSU within 33-21 with two minutes left in the third quarter.

After South Alabama's T.J. Glover returned the ensuing kickoff to the GSU 38-yard line, the Panthers held the Jaguars to a field goal and trailed 36-21 with 13:25 to play.

Little found Sidney Haynes for a 39-yard completion to USA 25, and Travis Evans picked up 20 yards down to the one on a swing pass from Kelton Hill. Little kept it for the one-yard touchdown, and after Iain Vance's PAT was blocked, the Panthers trailed 36-27 with 11:24 left.

South Alabama managed another field goal to extend their lead to 29-27. After Albert Wilson returned the kickoff out to the 44 to give the Panthers good field position, Little drove GSU to a first down at the USA 20, On fourth-and-six at the 16, he hit Emmanuel Ogbuehi for 11 yards to the five, and then Hill scored a on a five-yard keeper, pulling the Panthers within 39-34 with 3:57 on the clock.

South Alabama took over at its own 26-yard line and managed to run out the clock. On third-and-four, Bennett found Courtney Smith for a six-yard gain and a crucial first down. Out of timeouts, Georgia State still had a chance after forcing a third-and-two with 1:28 to play, but Houston gained nine yards to seal the win.

"This team always fights back, and I'm proud of that," said head coach Bill Curry. "We have wonderful, tough, smart young men, but we're not mature and we're not consistent, and that is the head coach's responsibility. We will become a consistent football team. My job is to get that done this week."

The Jaguars rushed for 293 yards on the day, often breaking tackles after backs appeared to be stopped.

"You've got to tackle," said Curry. "We've work on that every single day in practice, but we didn't get it done today. [Houston] is a heck of a back and he kept fighting, but a lot of that was poor tackling."

For the second straight game, the Panthers took the lead in the first quarter. Georgia State opened the game with an impressive scoring drive, moving 60 yards in 10 plays, with Little hitting Sidney Haynes for a two-yard scoring strike and an early 7-0 advantage.

Georgia State took a 14-6 lead on Little's one-yard scoring run, which was set up when Kail Singleton recovered a fumbled punt at the South Alabama 14-yard line. That put the Panthers ahead by eight points with 11 minutes to play in the second quarter.

That marked the largest deficit that the Jaguars have faced in their two-year history, but it did not last long.

Bennett threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Bryant Lavender to put South Alabama within 14-13 with nine minutes to play in the second quarter.

On the Panthers' next offensive play, Little's pass was tipped and intercepted by Tim Harvey at the GSU 39-yard line. Not only did that snap Little's streak of consecutive passes without an interception at 202, but it set up Bennett's nine-yard scoring pass to Kevin Helms. That gave the Jaguars a 20-14 lead with seven minutes still left in the second quarter.

After forcing a GSU punt, South Alabama put together an 80-yard scoring drive, capped by Bennett's three-yard scoring pass to Jereme Jones, extending the Jaguars advantage to 27-14 with 41 seconds left in the half.

Starting with good field position at the GSU 45, Little hit Danny Williams for a 13-yard gain to the South Alabama 42, but his next pass was intercepted, again by Harvey, who broke several tackles to return the ball all the way to the Panther 18, setting up Lawson McGlon's 35-yard field goal with just three seconds left.

Little completed 20 of 34 passes on the day for 234 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, along with his two rushing touchdowns. Danny Williams caught five passes for 82 yards and a touchdown, and Sidney Haynes added four catches for 50 yards and a score.

Georgia State played without standout Bo Schlechter and starting linebacker Olufemi Opanubi, who each sustained knee injuries in practice this week

GEORGIA STATE 23, LAMAR 17

Game 10: Nov. 6, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State rallied with a two-yard touchdown catch by tight end Arthur Williams and then held off a last-minute Lamar drive to defeat the visiting Cardinals, 23-17, at the Georgia Dome on Saturday, ensuring a winning record in the Panthers' inaugural season.

Georgia State fell behind, 17-13, in the fourth quarter before rallying on the touchdown pass from Drew Little to Williams with five minutes to play, and then Iain Vance added his third field goal of the day to put the Panthers ahead, 23-17, with 1:39 left.

Doug Prewitt's last two desperation heaves from the GSU 39-yard line with under 10 seconds to play fell incomplete, with both attempts batted down by wide receiver Danny Williams, who was in on the plays as a safety.

"We have a lot to work on, but the bottom line is this, we have a winning record for the year and we have a winning record at home," said Panthers head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State led Lamar, 13-3, to begin the fourth quarter, but a Cardinal touchdown with 9:50 left to play cut the deficit to three points. Prewitt, playing for injured starter Andre Bevil, hit J.J. Hayes for a 13-yard score to cap an impressive 99-yard drive after the Panthers had downed a punt inside the Lamar 1-yard line.

Just 14 seconds later, the Panther crowd was shocked into silence. On the first play from scrimmage after the Lamar kickoff, Little threw an interception to Ryan Clark, who returned it 54 yards for a touchdown to give the Cardinals a 17-13 lead.

But the Panther offense would come alive after struggling for much of the game, storming down the field on a 71-yard drive to retake the lead with 4:52 remaining. Arthur Williams, the junior from Miami, Fla., caught a tip-drill touchdown from two yards out, plucking the Little pass out of the air amidst several Cardinal defenders after it was tipped by a Lamar lineman.

The play was reminiscent of the final snap of the Panthers' overtime meeting with Jacksonville State, in which Williams caught a tipped pass but was ruled to be out of the end zone to hand Georgia State its second loss of the year.

"We went through [the play] in practice, and it was the exact same play as what happened in the Jacksonville State game (in the overtime)," Williams said. "So, I just told myself, 'not twice, not in one year' As I released, the ball was coming right to me, and the defensive lineman slapped it. I just kept my focus on the ball and made the catch."

Little was 5-of-6 on the drive that put the Panthers ahead for good.

"You put your team down, but then again, you have to take your team back on your shoulders and let them look at you for leadership," Little said. "You have to show them that you shook it off, that it's a new drive, and they can follow you and you're going to lead them down the field for six."

Running back Travis Evans was instrumental in the go-ahead scoring march, gaining two first downs on rushes of 17 and 13 yards, the second of which set the Panthers up on the Lamar four-yard line.

The Panthers would tack on three more points thanks to Jamal Ransby's interception of Prewitt on Lamar's next possession. Ransby picked a Prewitt pass off his shoe tops on the first Cardinal series after State's go-ahead touchdown, returning it 20 yards to the Lamar 31.

Iain Vance would knock through a 29-yard field goal several plays later, giving the Panthers the six-point advantage with just 1:39 remaining.

"We didn't mean to make it this type of game," Curry said. "Nonetheless, we did and we still found a way to come back and win in spite of giving up a 99-yard touchdown drive, in spite of giving up a touchdown on an interception.

"In spite of the things we did, we managed to find ways to win the game."

In addition to the timely interception from Ransby, the Panthers got three sacks on Prewitt. The last sack by Allen McKay, his first of the season, pushed the Cardinals back nine yards to the 39-yard line and set up the two incomplete pass attempts to end the game. Safety Fred Barnes led the team with eight total tackles.

The Panthers got off to another fast start, going up 10-0 on Lamar in the first quarter to push the team's first-quarter scoring advantage to 79-25 on the season.

GSU opened the scoring on the first drive of the game on a 33-yard field goal from Iain Vance, his first of three on the day. The drive started with a 62-yard run on a handoff to wide receiver Sidney Haynes, the longest rushing play of the Panthers' short history.

After forcing a three-and-out on the next series, the Panthers experienced another first for their young program when Jordan Giles — a wide receiver used on special teams coverage — blocked a Lamar punt, which was recovered by Justin Hughes at the Cardinal 6. Three plays later, Little hit Haynes in the back of the end zone for the receiver's fourth scoring reception of the year.

Vance moved the Panther advantage to 13-3 with a 47-yard field goal, just 2 yards shy of his season best, with 5:57 remaining in the third quarter.

Little finished the game 22-of-35 passing for 189 yards, two touchdowns and an interception, giving him 18 passing TDs on the season to just seven picks. Arthur Williams led the team in receiving with 66 yards on five catches, and Danny Williams netted 61 yards on six grabs.

Five seniors were honored before the game for Senior Day, including Vance and Brandon Lupo, the holder on field goals and extra points. Defensive back Hubert Davis, linebacker Trey Ennis and wide receiver Charles Borowsky were also recognized before kickoff.

Attendance was 14,689 for Saturday's game, bringing the home average to 16,750.
