WHAT A BEGINNING

The football era at Georgia State began with a bang as the Panthers defeated Shorter, 41-7, before a crowd of 30,237 fans on Thursday, Sept. 2 at the Georgia Dome.

Quarterback Drew Little led the Panthers' attack with a 13-of-17 performance and touchdown passes to Emmanuel Ogbuehi and Jordan Giles, while running back Parris Lee scored twice on the ground.

The program's first-ever game capped a preparation period that began in April 2008, when it was first announced that the school would field a football team.

"I've never been more proud of a group of young men than I am of this group," said head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State (1-0) piled up 366 yards of total offense, including 212 yards rushing, in the contest and allowed the Shorter offense inside the red zone just once in the game.

LAMBUTH UP NEXT

The Panthers now turn their attention to another NAIA opponent as Lambuth visits the Georgia Dome Saturday for a 1 p.m. kickoff. The Eagles (0-1) opened their season with a 34-19 loss at Arkansas Tech but entered the year ranked No. 7 nationally in the NAIA coaches' poll.

Last season, Lambuth posted a 12-1 record, including an undefeated regular season and a berth in the NAIA quarterfinals. Following the season, head coach Hugh Freeze moved to Arkansas State, and Ron Dickerson was elevated to head coach. The former head coach at Temple (1993-97), Dickerson was the first African-American head coach of a Division I program.

PARRIS LEE MAKES HISTORY

One of the offensive stars for Georgia State in its opening victory over Shorter was redshirt freshman running back Parris Lee, who capped the Panthers' first drive by scoring the first touchdown in GSU history on a four-yard run. The Jacksonville, Fla., native later scored again on a 10-yard jaunt, and he finished with 62 yards on just eight carries.

Lee spent the 2009-10 at slot receiver but moved to running back this preseason.

LITTLE EARNS START

After a four-man battle for the starting job throughout the preseason, redshirt freshman Drew Little (Henry County HS, McDonough, Ga.) was the starting quarterback for Georgia State's inaugural game. Little earned the nod over redshirt freshmen Kelton Hill (Lithia Springs HS, Lithia Springs, Ga.) and Bo Schlechter (Glades Day HS, Wellington, Fla.) as well as sophomore Star Jackson (Lake Worth HS, Lake Worth, Fla.), the transfer from Alabama.

Little, who was spelled at times by Hill, completed 13 of 17 passes for 135 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions. After leading the Panthers to a touchdown on their first offensive possession, he threw the first touchdown pass in GSU history on a four-yard completion to tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi. He later added a 16-yard scoring pass to Jordan Giles.

BO KNOWS PUNTING . . . AND RECEIVING

After earning the role as the Panthers' starting punter, Bo Schlechter added wide receiver to his resume this week, moving there from quarterback.

The redshirt freshman from Wellington, Fla., is one of Georgia State's most versatile athletes. Not only did he star in football at Glades Day High, but he also played volleyball and earned a scholarship offer to Boise State in that sport.

Schlechter will serve as the special teams captain for the second straight game. He also earned the team's first Magnanimitas award. Magnanimitas is a Latin word meaning "greatness of spirit," and the award recognizes an exemplary display of one of the six characteristics of a champion. In Schlechter's case, the characteristic he exemplified is unselfishness.

INAUGURAL STARTING LINEUP

Georgia State's starting lineup for its inaugural game is below. Of the 24 players (including kickers), nine are redshirt freshmen, one is a true freshmen, two are sophomores, and the remainder are transfers, including six junior college transfers and six from four-year schools.

NO AD-VANCE EXPERIENCE

When Georgia State placekicker Iain Vance lined up to kick the extra point following the Panthers' first touchdown in their inaugural game, it marked his first appearance in a football game since his senior season at Duluth High School - in the fall of 2005.

Vance, a fifth-year senior, was a former walk-on player at both Georgia Tech (2006) and Alabama (2008) but never appeared in a game. He enrolled at Georgia State in the summer of 2009 and practiced with the Panthers last fall.

PLAYERS WITH PREVIOUS D-I GAME EXPERIENCE

The Georgia State roster was bolstered this summer by the addition of four transfers from major Division I programs, all of whom are eligible to play for the Panthers this fall. The quartet includes a backup quarterback from 2009 national champion Alabama (Star Jackson) as well as one starting offensive lineman (Joseph Gilbert) and one reserve (Clyde Yandell) from Georgia Tech's 2009 Atlantic Coast Conference championship team, and a member of Auburn's Outback Bowl squad (tight end Bailey Woods).

While the four recent additions have received the most fanfare, two other key Panthers have previous Division I FBS experience in center Ben Jacoby and wide receiver Sidney Haynes, both of whom enrolled last fall and practiced with the team.

Jacoby, a junior from Buford, Ga., spent two seasons at Ball State, including the 2008 season, when he saw action in six games on the Cardinals' squad that won the MAC West Division title with a 12-2 record and played in the GMAC Bowl.

Haynes played two seasons at UCF, helping the Knights win the Conference USA title in 2007. He had four catches for 48 yards in his UCF career.

Cornerback Jocquez Fears also has previous Division I experience, playing two seasons at FCS program Northeastern. The NU program was disbanded following the 2009 season, and Fears, an Atlanta native, transferred to GSU and is eligible this fall. Walk-on linebacker Brad Chahoy played in two games at Georgia Southern in 2008, giving GSU a total of eight player with previous Division I game experience.

Several other players had playing experience at other levels, including starting free safety Brandon Jones, who played two years at NCAA Division II Mars Hill before transferring to GSU.

TRUE FRESHMEN MAKE IMPACT

A couple of true freshmen have made an immediate impact on the Georgia State lineup.

Justin Hughes of Port St. Lucie, Fla. (Treasure Coast HS) earned a starting berth at cornerback.

Another true freshman to watch is receiver Albert Wilson, also from Port St. Lucie, Fla. (Port St. Lucie HS). The versatile speedster caught a pass for seven yards and returned a kickoff 53 yards in the opener.

Also in the return game is cornerback Demarius Matthews of Powder Springs,

Other true freshmen who have earned spot as backups in the two-deep include center Tim Wynn, linebacker Cole Moon, and defensive backs Jamal Ransby and Isaiah Howard.

EXPERIENCED COACHES

Georgia State is blessed with a pair of coordinators with a wealth of major college experience in assistant head coach/defensive coordinator John Thompson and offensive coordinator John Bond.

Thompson has served as defensive coordinator or co-coordinator at SEC schools Mississippi (2007), Florida (2002), Arkansas (2000-01), South Carolina (2005), as well as Memphis (1999), Southern Miss (1992-98), Louisiana Tech (1990-91) and Northwestern State (1988-89), for a total of 23 years as a Division I coordinator.

Bond, a 25-year coaching veteran, directed prolific offenses at Georgia Tech (2007), Northern Illinois (2004-06), Army (2000-03) and Illinois State (1997-99) for a total of 13 years as a Division I coordinator.

Thompson and assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator George Pugh also have head coaching experience. Thompson spent two seasons (2004-05) as the head coach at East Carolina, where he coached current NFL standout running back Chris Johnson. Pugh compiled a 19-10 record in three seasons at Alabama A&M (1989-91), winning three SIAC titles.

JAKE & LOUIE

The flowing locks you see when Georgia State's defense is the on the field belong to linebackers Jake (35) and Louie Muasau (38), pronounced moose-OW. The brothers are the sons of Asoiva Muasau and the late Liuvano Muasau, natives of American Samoa. Jake's given name is Manumalo, while Louie is short for Tuugalue.

Although they are both juniors and look as if they could be twins, Louie is actually a year older. Jake plays outside linebacker, while Louie plays inside linebacker.

The brothers hail from Sierra Vista, Ariz., where they attended Buena High School. They went on to play junior college football at Phoenix College before enrolling at Georgia State in January 2010.

NFL FACILITIES

Georgia State is one of just five collegiate programs to play its home games in the same facility as an NFL team. The other four are all FBS programs: Miami, Pittsburgh, Tulane and USF.

ARTIFICIAL TURF

In its inaugural season, Georgia State will play just one of its 11 games on natural grass - the season finale at Alabama's Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Panthers' home field, the Georgia Dome, features artificial turf, as do Campbell's Barker-Lane Stadium, Old Dominion's Foreman Field and South Alabama's Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

FATHERS & SONS

Two members of Bill Curry's first Georgia State team are the sons of his former players at Georgia Tech.

Mark Hogan, Jr. was GSU's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. His father, Mark, Sr., played for Curry at Tech from 1982-85. Mark, Jr., spent the spring 2009 semester as a team of one, working out by himself with strength and conditioning coach Ken Coggins.

The Panthers added another second-generation player in Auburn transfer Bailey Woods, whose father, John, was an offensive lineman at Tech in 1976 when Curry was the line coach.

ANOTHER FAMOUS FATHER

Sophomore cornerback Brent McClendon is the son of former Chicago Bears running back Willie McClendon. The elder McClendon starred at Georgia, where he was the 1978 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Brent's older brother, Bryan, also played at Georgia and is now the running backs coach for the Bulldogs.

MATTHEWS HONORS HIGH SCHOOL TEAMMATE

For Georgia State freshman cornerback Demarius Matthews, his jersey number holds special significance. Matthews, from Powder Springs, Ga., asked to wear No. 5 in honor of Rajaan Bennett, his teammate at McEachern High who was killed in an apparent murder-suicide last February. Bennett was an outstanding player himself who had earned a scholarship to Vanderbilt.

NOT THE ONLY DEBUT

The Georgia State football team isn't the only debut this season. The launch of football has also given birth to the University's first marching band. Under the direction of Dr. Chester Phillips, the GSU marching band features 140 members, including 89 woodwinds and brass, 20 Percussion, 23 Color guard, four rock band members and four drum majors.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Three Panther players are celebrating birthdays today: free safety Brandon Jones (21), offensive guard Joseph Gilbert (22) and linebacker Olufemi Opanubi (21).

HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

A name synonymous with CLASS AND INTEGRITY in the coaching profession, BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

An Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry has spent the last two years developing and directing the football program in every area, and now he leads the Panthers on the field as they play their inaugural season of 2010.

Curry brings 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference—including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues—as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals.

Curry's 10-year playing career as a center included stops with the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974). He served as President of the NFL Players Association.

Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Curry is a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

His passion for mentoring young people is also evident in his previous position as the director of Leadership Baylor at the Baylor School in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he served before taking over at Georgia State.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.

GEORGIA STATE 41, SHORTER 7Game 1: Sept. 2, 2010*Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

The football era began at Georgia State with a 41-7 victory over NAIA Shorter before a crowd of 30,237 fans at the Georgia Dome Thursday night. Quarterback Drew Little led the Panthers with a 13-of-17 performance and two touchdown passes, while running back Parris Lee scored twice on the ground.

The program's first-ever game capped a preparation period that began in April 2008, when it was first announced that the school would field a football team.

"I've never been more proud of a group of young men than I am of this group," said head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State (1-0) piled up 366 yards of total offense, including 212 yards rushing, and allowed the Shorter offense inside the red zone just once in the game. Safety Brandon Jones led the defense with six tackles on the night.

The Panthers jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter and never looked back, moving the ball 63 yards on 11 plays on the game's first possession and capping the drive with a 4-yard Lee touchdown run. A 15-yard completion by Little to wide receiver Danny Williams on third down put the ball inside the Shorter 10 and helped set up the opening score.

Georgia State scored three times in the second quarter on two Iain Vance field goals (from 22 and 18 yards out) and a touchdown drive of 30 yards after the Panthers recovered a Shorter fumble. Little found tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi for an 8-yard score and the Panthers' first-ever touchdown through the air.

Quarterback Kelton Hill piloted the offense for the first drive of the second half, which resulted in the first of the period's two field goals. Hill capped the scoring in the contest with a 24-yard touchdown run with eight seconds remaining in the game.

The second-half scoring for the Panthers began with Lee's second touchdown of the game, a 10-yard run into the corner of the end zone with 2:12 left in the third. Little found wide receiver Jordan Giles from 16 yards out for the Panthers' first score of the fourth quarter and his second passing touchdown of the night.

Shorter scored its first points of the game with 8:14 left in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Ben Williams, making the score 27-7. The Hawks had a chance to get on the scoreboard on their first possession of the second half, but David Guilford hooked the 51-yard field goal attempt wide left.

Georgia State finished the game with no turnovers; Shorter gave the ball up twice on the evening.

"When you don't turn the ball over and you get some turnovers you almost always win," added Curry. "That is an incredible coefficient of victory that we have hammered and preached so hard."

Official attendance for the game was announced at 30,237, with overflow into the mezzanine level of the Georgia Dome.
