THE KICKOFF

The encore season of Georgia State football kicks off with the “Battle of the Panthers” as GSU hosts Clark Atlanta at the Georgia Dome.

Georgia State's inaugural football season was positive in every area as the fledgling Panthers of head coach Bill Curry posted a winning record at 6-5 while exceeding all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and exposure.

After the fanfare of 2010, Curry now looks for his program to focus on consistency, beginning with the season opener against their Atlanta neighbor.

“Our most important goal is to become a consistent football team,” said Curry, the former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky.

“Last season, we played well at times, but we seldom put together four solid quarters,” he continued. “We never quit and we almost always came back in the fourth quarter. But it's not enough to play hard in the fourth quarter; we've got to play hard and play well.”

Clark Atlanta, an NCAA Division II program, posted a 4-6 record in 2010 under head coach Daryl McNeill, who enters his second season at the helm.

To build consistency, Curry can rely upon a veteran team that returns more than 50 letterwinners, including 21 of 22 starters on offense and defense.

SCHLECHTER EARNS START AT QUARTERBACK

Sophomore Bo Schlechter will get the starting nod at quarterback for Georgia State in the season opener. The 6-3, 210-pounder is one of the best all-around athletes on the squad, but he will see his first action at quarterback. His one pass attempt in 2010 came on a fake punt attempt.

A native of Wellington, Fla., Schlechter was a highly-regarded prep quarterback who signed as part of the Panthers' first recruiting class in 2009. He played quarterback throughout a redshirt year in 2009 and competed for the starting berth in the 2010 preseason. When he didn't win the quarterback job, he elected to move to wide receiver and caught eight passes for 118 yards.

Schlechter is also GSU's starting punter. He averaged 44.5 yards per punt in 2010 and helped the Panthers to a net punting average of 37.3, which would have ranked among the Top 10 nationally had Georgia State been eligible for NCAA statistical rankings. He was a preseason, fourth-team All-American as well as an All-Independent by selection Phil Steele's 2011 College Football Preview.

STEPPING UP THE SCHEDULE

Georgia State's schedule has toughened considerably in the Panthers' second season. In addition to a game at FBS-member Houston, which features Heisman Trophy candidate Case Keenum at quarterback, GSU will face three Top 30 FCS programs, according to preseason rankings. According to a consolidated listing of the major FCS polls, Jacksonville State enters the season at No. 10, South Carolina State at No. 24 and Murray State at No. 27.

TRANSFERS BOLSTER ROSTER

At the start of preseason camp, Georgia State added three transfers from FBS programs in running back Donald Russell and tight end Alex Smith, both from Kentucky, and defensive end A.J. Portee, who formerly played at Connecticut.

Russell and Portee both saw game action at their previous stops. That gives the Panthers a total of seven players with prior game experience at the FBS level. They join Ben Jacoby (Ball State), Clyde Yandell (Georgia Tech), Joseph Gilbert (Georgia Tech), Bailey Woods (Auburn) and Sidney Haynes (UCF).

DANNY WILLIAMS ON THE RECEPTION

Danny Williams quickly established himself as Georgia State's top receiving threat as a redshirt freshman in 2010. He led GSU in receptions (54), receiving yards (649) and touchdown catches (5). The Orlando, Fla., native also owns the Panthers' single-game records for receptions (11 vs. Old Dominion), and receiving yards (103 vs. North Carolina Central). He had three 100-yard games on the season, the only three in GSU's young history.

SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMS

Special teams have been a strong emphasis for Georgia State, and the Panthers will look to duplicate their productivity from a year ago, when:

- Punter Bo Schlechter averaged 44.5 yards per punt, including nine kicks of 50 yards or more and eight punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.
- Even with Schlechter missing two games due to injury, Georgia State's net punting average of 37.3 yards would have ranked among the top 10 in FCS
- Graduated placekicker Iain Vance connected 15-of-17 field goals, including two game-winners, and 35-of-37 extra points. He was a third-team All-America selection by the Sports Network and a finalist for the Fred Mitchell Award.

- Albert Wilson averaged 28.1 yards on 22 kickoff returns.
- Two kickoff returns for touchdowns: Darren McCray, 96 yards at Campbell, and Albert Wilson, 97 yards at Alabama
- One blocked punt (by Jordan Giles)

ALL-PURPOSE ALBERT

During the inaugural season, Wilson led the Panthers in all-purpose yards, averaged 93.2 yards per game. He was Georgia State's third-leading receiver with 19 catches for 294 yards and two touchdowns.

The Port St. Lucie, Fla., native is also highly involved on special teams, returning punts and kickoffs. Last season, he averaged 28.1 yards on 22 kickoff returns, including a 97-yard touchdown return at Alabama.

Wilson was named to the CFPA Kick Returner Preseason Watch List and the preseason All-Independent team by Phil Steele's College Football Preview.

"ROBOCOP" NOW AT NOSEGUARD

Senior noseguard Kalan Jenkins is now playing his fourth different position since arriving at Georgia State 18 months ago.

The Midlothian, Texas, native joined the program in January of 2010 after two seasons as a tight end at Navarro College. He remained at tight end for spring practice of 2010 before moving to defensive end, where he started every game during the inaugural season. This spring, he switched to defensive tackle, and then at the start of preseason camp, he moved even further inside to noseguard.

Teammates have nicknamed Jenkins "Robocop" for his relentless effort.

EXPERIENCED COACHES

Georgia State is blessed with a pair of coordinators with a wealth of major college experience in assistant head coach/defensive coordinator John Thompson and offensive coordinator John Bond.

Thompson previously served as defensive coordinator or co-coordinator at SEC schools Mississippi (2007), Florida (2002), Arkansas (2000-01), South Carolina (2005), as well as Memphis (1999), Southern Miss (1992-98), Louisiana Tech (1990-91) and Northwestern State (1988-89), for a total of 23 years as a Division I coordinator before coming to Georgia State.

Bond, a 26-year coaching veteran, directed prolific offenses at Georgia Tech (2007), Northern Illinois (2004-06), Army (2000-03) and Illinois State (1997-99) for a total of 13 years as a Division I coordinator.

Thompson and associate head coach/recruiting coordinator George Pugh also have head coaching experience. Thompson spent two seasons (2004-05) as the head coach at East Carolina, where he coached current NFL standout running back Chris Johnson. Pugh compiled a 19-10 record in three seasons at Alabama A&M (1989-91), winning three SIAC titles.

NFL FACILITIES

Georgia State is one of just eight collegiate programs to play its home games in the same facility as an NFL team. Six are FBS programs: Miami, Pittsburgh, San Diego State, Temple, Tulane and USE. The only other FCS program to play in an NFL facility is Tennessee State.

FATHERS & SONS

Three members of the Georgia State team are the sons of head coach Bill Curry's former players at Georgia Tech.

Mark Hogan, Jr. was GSU's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. His father, Mark, Sr., played for Curry at Tech from 1982-85. Mark, Jr., spent the spring 2009 semester as a team of one, working out by himself.

The Panthers added another second-generation player in the summer of 2010 in Auburn transfer Bailey Woods, whose father, John, was an offensive lineman at Tech in 1976 when Curry was the offensive line coach.

This season, Nick Henderson is a freshman safety. His father, Steve, played for Curry at Georgia Tech in the early 1980s.

ANOTHER FAMOUS FATHER

Sophomore cornerback Brent McClendon is the son of former Chicago Bears running back Willie McClendon. The elder McClendon starred at Georgia, where he was the 1978 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Brent's older brother, Bryan, also played at Georgia and is now the running backs coach for the Bulldogs.

MATTHEWS HONORS HIGH SCHOOL TEAMMATE

For Georgia State cornerback Demarius Matthews, his jersey number holds special significance. Matthews, from Powder Springs, Ga., asked to wear No. 5 in honor of Rajaan Bennett, his teammate at McEachern High who was killed in an apparent murder-suicide in February 2010 when both were seniors. Bennett was an outstanding player himself who had earned a scholarship to Vanderbilt.

WHAT A BEGINNING

The football era at Georgia State began with a bang as the Panthers defeated Shorter, 41-7, before a crowd of 30,237 fans on Thursday, Sept. 2 at the Georgia Dome.

Quarterback Drew Little led the Panthers' attack with a 13-of-17 performance and touchdown passes to Emmanuel Ogbuehi and Jordan Giles, while running back Parris Lee scored twice on the ground.

The program's first-ever game capped a preparation period that began in April 2008, when it was first announced that the school would field a football team.

Georgia State piled up 366 yards of total offense, including 212 yards rushing, in the contest and allowed the Shorter offense inside the red zone just once in the game.

WHAT IS THIS STUFF?

During Georgia State's inaugural season of 2010, the Panthers played only one of their 11 games on natural grass, the season finale at Alabama.

The encore season will be more of the same. GSU's only game on natural grass will be at Houston's Robertson Stadium.

HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

The Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry spent more than two years developing, directing and promoting the football program in preparation for Georgia State's inaugural season. When his Panthers took the field for the first time in 2010, the city of Atlanta and the football world took notice. Not only did his fledgling squad post a winning record at 6-5, but the program exceeded all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and media exposure. Curry has called his current post the highlight of his storied career.

Curry brought to Georgia State his 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference—including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues—as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals.

Curry's 10-year playing career as a center included stops with the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974). He served as President of the NFL Players Association.

Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Curry is a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.
