THE KICKOFF

Georgia State's second straight road game and second-ever game against an FBS program is at Houston in a regionally televised (CSS) contest that kicks off at 8 p.m. ET Saturday at Robertson Stadium.

Head coach Bill Curry's Panthers played nearly even for three quarters at No. 16/17 Jacksonville State before succumbing in the fourth quarter, 37-21, to fall to 1-2. Albert Wilson set a school record with 146 yards receiving on six catches.

The Cougars are off to a 3-0 start and stand just outside the Top 25. Houston scored 28 straight points in the game's final 20 minutes to earn a 35-34 victory at Louisiana Tech Saturday night. Case Keenum was 25-40 for 351 and three touchdowns, including the 32-yard game-winner to Patrick Edwards with 1:36 left in the game.

Behind Keenum, the sixth-year senior who is approaching several NCAA career records, the Cougars lead the nation in passing offense at 408 yards per game, along with 536 yards of total offense and 40.3 points a game.

GSU VS. FBS

Georgia State's game at Houston represents the Panthers' second-ever game against an FBS opponent. In last year's inaugural season, Georgia State played at defending national champion and 10th-ranked Alabama on Nov. 18, 2010, falling 63-7.

Georgia State recently announced an FBS game for next season as the Panthers will visit Tennessee on Sept. 8, 2012.

LONE STAR STATE

Georgia State is making the first of two trips this season to the state of Texas. On Oct. 29, the Panthers will play at UTSA.

The Panthers have one player from Texas in Kalan Jenkins. The senior noseguard hails from Midlothian where he attended Midlothian High. He played at Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas, before enrolling at Georgia State.

ALL-PURPOSE ALBERT

Sophomore receiver and return specialist Albert Wilson is the Panthers' most versatile weapon. He is GSU's leading receiver with 13 catches for 284 yards (21.8 yards per catch). He averages 185 all-purpose yards per game, which ranks eighth nationally in FCS.

Wilson set the GSU school record with 146 receiving yards on six catches Saturday at No. 16/17 Jacksonville State. He had a 54-yard catch and then a 53-yard reception late in the game on which he appeared headed for the end zone but pulled up with a hamstring injury and will not play this week.

In the season-opening win over Clark Atlanta, he was the game's leading receiver with three catches for 85 yards, including touchdown catches of 30 and 48 yards, the latter the longest scoring pass in GSU history. He also returned three punts for 34 yards and had a 10-yard run. Against Old Dominion, he totalled a school-record 229 all-purpose yards, including four catches for 53 yards and seven punt returns for 85 yards.

During the inaugural season, Wilson led the Panthers in all-purpose yards, averaging 93.2 yards per game. He was Georgia State's third-leading receiver with 19 catches for 294 yards and two touchdowns, and he averaged 28.1 yards on 22 kickoff returns, including a 97-yard touchdown return at Alabama.

Wilson was named to the 2011 CFPA Kick Returner Preseason Watch List and the preseason All-Independent team by Phil Steele's College Football Preview.

SKELTON MAKES BIG PLAYS

Safety Demazio Skelton turned in a big play in each of Georgia State's first two games.

In the opener against Clark Atlanta, the junior from Myrtle Beach, S.C., grabbed an interception off a tipped pass and returned it 26 yards to the CAU 20, setting up Georgia State's first touchdown.

Against Old Dominion, Skelton scooped up a fumble in the end zone and raced 93 yards before he was brought down at the seven-yard line. That is the third-longest play of any kind in GSU history, behind kickoff returns of 97 and 96 yards.

BILUKIDI NOTICED BY CFL

Georgia State defensive lineman Christo Bilukidi is rated one of the top 15 prospects for the 2012 CFL Canadian Draft, according to a list published by the CFL Scouting Bureau.

Bilukidi is a 6-5, 290-pound senior from Ottawa, Ontario. He is playing his second season at Georgia State after transferring from Eastern Arizona J.C.

Tabbed to the preseason All-Independent team by Phil Steele's 2011 College Football Preview, he led Georgia State's inaugural team in sacks with five, along with seven tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and 51 tackles in 2010.

Born in Angola, Bilukidi lived in France and Brazil before settling in Canada. He played just one year of high school football at St. Patrick's in Ottawa.

The 2012 CFL Draft will be held next May and will include six rounds.

ANOTHER IMPRESSIVE OPENER

The kickoff of the encore season of Georgia State football produced exactly the same result as the kickoff of GSU's inaugural season: a 41-7 Georgia State victory before a tremendous crowd of 26,273 at the Georgia Dome.

And for the second straight year, a quarterback playing his first collegiate game under center turned in an impressive performance. Bo Schlechter passed for 196 yards and three touchdowns against Clark Atlanta while directing a GSU offense that rolled up 41 points and did not commit a turnover. Also making a strong debut was running back Donald Russell, a transfer from Kentucky who rushed for a team-high 56 yards and two touchdowns in his first game in a GSU uniform. Sophomore Albert Wilson caught touchdown passes of 30 and 48 yards. Safety Demazio Skelton and outside linebacker Robert Ferguson grabbed interceptions to set up touchdowns, and the GSU defense limited Clark Atlanta to a school-record 247 yards of total offense.

BENVENUTO EARNS NATIONAL AWARD

True freshman Christian Benvenuto had large shoes to fill, replacing third-team All-American Iain Vance as the Georgia State placekicker, and the rookie did not disappoint. Benvenuto was named National Placekicker Performer of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA), sharing the honor with Cody Sandlin of UT-Martin.

On his first collegiate field goal try, Benvenuto booted a 44-yard field goal on GSU's first possession. He added a 45-yard field goal and was a perfect 4-for-4 on extra points. The Palm Coast, Fla., native also handled kickoff duties.

Benvenuto was one of three Panthers honored by the CFPA. Quarterback Bo Schlechter was an honorable mention selection as Quarterback Performer of the Week, and tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi, who caught three passes for 28 yards, was an honorable mention choice as Tight End Performer of the Week.

THE DONALD'S DEBUT

Running back Donald Russell turned in strong performance in the season opener against Clark Atlanta in his Georgia State debut. The junior transfer from Kentucky rushed for a team-high 56 yards on just nine carries. He scored touchdowns of 20 and two yards the first two times he touched the ball in a GSU uniform.

SECOND LARGEST FCS CROWD

Georgia State had another tremendous crowd for opening night with 26,273 fans watching GSU defeat Clark Atlanta at the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome was the second largest of the opening weekend in any FCS team's home stadium. The only FCS game to attract a larger crowd was UTSA's inaugural game, which drew 56,743 at the Alamodome. At a neutral site, the Chicago Football Classic drew 35,653 for Hampton and Alabama A&M at Soldier Field.

THE GAUNTLET

Georgia State is in an extremely difficult stretch of its schedule. After hosting future CAA foe Old Dominion last week, the Panthers are now in the middle of back-to-back road tests at No. 16/17 Jacksonville State, a 2010 NCAA playoff team and the preseason favorite to win the Ohio Valley Conference, and then at FBS Houston, which features Heisman Trophy candidate Case Keenum at quarterback and is just outside the Top 25.

The schedule gets no easier when the Panthers return home because they host Murray State, ranked No. 27 in the consolidated preseason rankings. Then GSU faces another tough road test at South Carolina State, a 2010 playoff team, before hosting South Alabama on Oct. 22.

BO KNOWS QUARTERBACK, TOO

Sophomore Bo Schlechter earned the starting nod at quarterback for Georgia State in the season opener. The 6-3, 210-pounder is one of the best all-around athletes on the squad, but he was playing his first collegiate game at quarterback. His one pass attempt in 2010 came on a fake punt attempt.

Schlechter passed for 196 yards and three touchdowns against Clark Atlanta while directing a GSU offense that rolled up 41 points and did not commit a turnover. He completed 13-of-18 passes and also rushed nine times for 27 yards.

Schlechter was named FCS Independent Player of the Week by College Sports Madness, and he was an honorable mention selection as Quarterback Performer of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA).

A native of Wellington, Fla., Schlechter was a highly-regarded prep quarterback who signed as part of the Panthers' first recruiting class in 2009. He played quarterback throughout a redshirt year in 2009 and competed for the starting berth in the 2010 preseason. When he didn't win the quarterback job, he elected to move to wide receiver and caught eight passes for 118 yards.

Schlechter also punts for GSU. He averaged 44.5 yards per punt in 2010 and helped the Panthers to a net punting average of 37.3, which would have ranked among the Top 10 nationally had Georgia State been eligible for NCAA statistical rankings. He was a preseason, fourth-team All-American as well as an All-Independent by selection Phil Steele's 2011 College Football Preview. He has not punted in the last two games due to a bruised foot.

TRANSFERS BOLSTER ROSTER

At the start of preseason camp, Georgia State added three transfers from FBS programs in running back Donald Russell and tight end Alex Smith, both from Kentucky, and defensive end A.J. Portee, who formerly played at Connecticut.

Russell and Portee both saw game action at their previous stops. That gives the Panthers a total of seven players with prior game experience at the FBS level. They join Ben Jacoby (Ball State), Clyde Yandell (Georgia Tech), Joseph Gilbert (Georgia Tech), Bailey Woods (Auburn) and Sidney Haynes (UCF).

DANNY WILLIAMS ON THE RECEPTION

Danny Williams quickly established himself as Georgia State's top receiving threat as a redshirt freshman in 2010. He led GSU in receptions (54), receiving yards (649) and touchdown catches (5). The Orlando, Fla., native also owns the Panthers' single-game records for receptions (11 vs. Old Dominion). He had the first three 100-yard games in GSU history in 2010, with a high of 103 vs. North Carolina Central that was the school record until broken this season by Albert Wilson.

Williams has had at least one reception in every game Georgia State has played.

"ROBOCOP" NOW AT NOSEGUARD

Senior noseguard Kalan Jenkins is now playing his fourth different position since arriving at Georgia State 18 months ago.

The Midlothian, Texas, native joined the program in January of 2010 after two seasons as a tight end at Navarro College. He remained at tight end for spring practice of 2010 before moving to defensive end, where he started every game during the inaugural season. This spring, he switched to defensive tackle, and then at the start of preseason camp, he moved even further inside to noseguard.

Teammates have nicknamed Jenkins "Robocop" for his relentless effort.

EXPERIENCED COACHES

Georgia State is blessed with a pair of coordinators with a wealth of major college experience in assistant head coach/defensive coordinator John Thompson and offensive coordinator John Bond.

Thompson previously served as defensive coordinator or co-coordinator at SEC schools Mississippi (2007), Florida (2002), Arkansas (2000-01), South Carolina (2005), as well as Memphis (1999), Southern Miss (1992-98), Louisiana Tech (1990-91) and Northwestern State (1988-89), for a total of 23 years as a Division I coordinator before coming to Georgia State.

Bond, a 26-year coaching veteran, directed prolific offenses at Georgia Tech (2007), Northern Illinois (2004-06), Army (2000-03) and Illinois State (1997-99) for a total of 13 years as a Division I coordinator.

Thompson and associate head coach/recruiting coordinator George Pugh also have head coaching experience. Thompson spent two seasons (2004-05) as the head coach at East Carolina, where he coached current NFL standout running back Chris Johnson. Pugh compiled a 19-10 record in three seasons at Alabama A&M (1989-91), winning three SIAC titles.

NFL FACILITIES

Georgia State is one of just eight collegiate programs to play its home games in the same facility as an NFL team. Six are FBS programs: Miami, Pittsburgh, San Diego State, Temple, Tulane and USF. The only other FCS program to play in an NFL facility is Tennessee State.

FATHERS & SONS

Three members of the Georgia State team are the sons of head coach Bill Curry's former players at Georgia Tech.

Mark Hogan, Jr. was GSU's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. His father, Mark, Sr., played for Curry at Tech from 1982-85. Mark, Jr., spent the spring 2009 semester as a team of one, working out by himself.

The Panthers added another second-generation player in the summer of 2010 in Auburn transfer Bailey Woods, whose father, John, was an offensive lineman at Tech in 1976 when Curry was the offensive line coach.

This season, Nick Henderson is a freshman safety. His father, Steve, played for Curry at Georgia Tech in the early 1980s.

ANOTHER FAMOUS FATHER

Sophomore cornerback Brent McClendon is the son of former Chicago Bears running back Willie McClendon. The elder McClendon starred at Georgia, where he was the 1978 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Brent's older brother, Bryan, also played at Georgia and is now the running backs coach for the Bulldogs.

MATTHEWS HONORS HIGH SCHOOL TEAMMATE

For Georgia State cornerback Demarius Matthews, his jersey number holds special significance. Matthews, from Powder Springs, Ga., asked to wear No. 5 in honor of Rajaan Bennett, his teammate at McEachern High who was killed in an apparent murder-suicide in February 2010 when both were seniors. Bennett was an outstanding player himself who had earned a scholarship to Vanderbilt.

WHAT A BEGINNING

The football era at Georgia State began with a bang as the Panthers defeated Shorter, 41-7, before a crowd of 30,237 fans on Thursday, Sept. 2, 2010 at the Georgia Dome.

Quarterback Drew Little led the Panthers' attack with a 13-of-17 performance and touchdown passes to Emmanuel Ogbuehi and Jordan Giles, while running back Parris Lee scored twice on the ground.

The program's first-ever game capped a preparation period that began in April 2008, when it was first announced that the school would field a football team.

WHAT IS THIS STUFF?

During Georgia State's inaugural season of 2010, the Panthers played only one of their 11 games on natural grass, the season finale at Alabama.

The encore season will be more of the same. GSU's only game on natural grass will be at Houston's Robertson Stadium.

HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

The Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry spent more than two years developing, directing and promoting the football program in preparation for Georgia State's inaugural season. When his Panthers took the field for the first time in 2010, the city of Atlanta and the football world took notice. Not only did his fledgling squad post a winning record at 6-5, but the program exceeded all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and media exposure. Curry has called his current post the highlight of his storied career.

Curry brought to Georgia State his 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference—including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues—as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals.

Curry's 10-year playing career as a center included stops with the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974). He served as President of the NFL Players Association.

Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Curry is a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.

- Four times earned honorable mention recognition for the national Punter of the Week award in FCS by the CFPA
- Played wide receiver in 2010 and had eight catches for a 14.8-yard average. Elected to move to WR after he did not win the QB job in preseason.
- Earned the team's first Magnanimitas ("greatness of spirit") helmet sticker, recognizing an exemplary display of one of the six characteristics of a champion. The characteristic he exemplified was unselfishness when he elected to move from QB to WR.

- Tight end with 16 catches for 164 yards and three touchdowns in 2010
- Made perhaps the play of Georgia State's inaugural season in the 23-17 victory over Lamar, which ensured a winning record for the Panthers in their inaugural campaign. With GSU trailing

20-17 in the fourth quarter, Williams caught a two-yard touchdown pass, hauling in the ball after it was tipped by a defender for the winning score.

- Nearly made a similar catch in the back of the end zone on the Panthers' final play in the overtime loss to Jacksonville State, but he was ruled out of bounds, ending the game.
- Career highs of five receptions for 66 yards against Lamar
- Three catches for 43 yards in win at Campbell, including a 24-yard reception down to the CU 30-yard line to help set up the game-winning field goal
- Caught two touchdowns in win over Morehead State
- Nicknamed Bully for his blocking ability

- Has caught at least one pass in every GSU game
- Became the Panthers' first-ever 100-yard receiver with eight catches for 101 yards in win over Morehead State (10-2-10)
- Bettered that with five catches for 103 yards against N.C. Central, including a 24-yard touchdown catch that put GSU ahead with 5:36 to play.
- Career-high 11 catches for 102 yards against Old Dominion (10-23-10)
- Had five receptions for 82 yards against South Alabama, including a 47-yard scoring play that is his longest reception of the year
- Had seven catches for 78 yards in overtime loss to fourth-ranked Jacksonville State. Set up the tying touchdown late in regulation with a 16-yard reception down to the one-yard line
- Caught a 39-yard TD pass from Rosevelt Watson vs. Lambuth
- Because of his height and leaping ability, he also plays on defense in late-game situations when the opponent is attempting a Hail Mary pass, and he contributed a key pass breakup in the end zone on Lamar's final play.

GEORGIA STATE 41, CLARK ATLANTA 7

Game 1: Sept. 2, 2011 • 7:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State opened its encore season with a 41-7 victory over Division II Clark Atlanta before 26,273 fans at the Georgia Dome. Sophomore Bo Schlechter, in his first collegiate start at quarterback, completed 13-of-18 passes for 196 yards and three touchdowns, two of them to Albert Wilson. Running back Donald Russell, playing his first game for GSU after transferring from Kentucky in the offseason, scored twice on the ground with 56 yards rushing to lead the Panthers.

"This was my first college start, but I tried to come out confident," Schlechter said. "It was just getting some plays run and I was able to build up some confidence going into the second quarter."

Schlechter, the starting punter and a reserve wide receiver last year during his freshman season, played in place of both Drew Little and Kelton Hill because of team-enforced suspensions to the Panthers' top two quarterbacks. He tossed the first TD pass of his college career to Jordan Giles on a 12-yard slant in the second quarter to make it a 24-0 GSU lead before halftime, then hit Wilson in the third and fourth quarters on scoring passes of 30 and 48 yards. The 48-yard TD connection is currently the longest touchdown pass in Panthers history.

"We had a quarterback who had never played a college game at quarterback and we had zero turnovers," said Georgia State head coach Bill Curry. "In my fondest dreams, I would have struggled to believe that."

Wilson finished with 85 yards receiving on three receptions, and tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi added 48 yards receiving on three catches. Travis Evans was the Panthers' second-leading rusher with 52 yards on eight attempts.

"We've been waiting for this moment for a long time," Wilson said. "We had a great camp this summer. We were all anxious to see how Bo would play. He showed up and played well."

Schlechter also retained punting duties, averaging 39 yards on four punts and leaving two inside the CAU 20-yard line, including a punt downed at the 1 late in the fourth quarter.

The defense had two key takeaways in the second quarter, with linebackers Robert Ferguson and Demazio Skelton snagging interceptions on back-to-back Clark Atlanta possessions to set up short touchdown drives.

The first interception, by Skelton on a pass from CAU quarterback Bryan Mann, gave GSU possession at the Clark Atlanta 34-yard line. The ensuing two-play scoring drive consisted of a 14-yard first-down pass to wide receiver Danny Williams, then a 20-yard touchdown run by Russell. On CAU's next possession, Ferguson intercepted quarterback T.J. Smith and returned it 31 yards to the 3-yard line, with Russell again rushing for the score on the next play to make it 17-0 Georgia State.

"We had terrific backs before, but Donald makes a difference when he handles the ball, and you saw that tonight," Curry said. "He has the capacity and the physicality to punish tacklers and spin away and run away from some others. That's a gift, and a lot of great backs have that."

GSU freshman kicker Christian Benvenuto converted his first collegiate field goal try from 44 yards out to make the score 3-0 with 3:34 left in the first quarter, then hit a 46-yarder in the third quarter for a perfect debut.

Clark Atlanta (0-1) got on the scoreboard with a 34-yard touchdown pass from Bryan Mann to Terrence Milton on the first play of the fourth quarter. Georgia State (1-0) held CAU to 12 first downs and 140 yards rushing, and the quarterback duo of Mann and Smith combined for just 104 yards passing on 10 completions. Defensive end A.J. Portee tied for the lead in tackles with five total stops, and led the team with two tackles for loss.

"The run defense against their run offense was pretty good," Curry said. "We do have more athletic people defensively (than last year), our linebackers and our secondary run a lot faster than they did a year ago."

The 41-7 final is the same score by which Georgia State defeated Shorter University in its inaugural game in 2010, also in the Georgia Dome.

OLD DOMINION 40, GEORGIA STATE 17

Game 2: Sept. 10, 2011 • 12 p.m. (CSS)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State suffered its first loss of the season with a 40-17 home defeat to Old Dominion on Saturday at the Georgia Dome. It was the Panthers' (1-1) first match-up against a full-fledged member of the Colonial Athletic Association, as the third-year Old Dominion (2-0) program is in its first season of conference play.

The Panthers were shut out in the second half as Old Dominion extended its 27-17 halftime lead with two touchdown runs by quarterback Thomas DeMarco.

The game was also the Panthers' first ever against a repeat opponent; GSU dropped a 34-20 contest to Old Dominion last season in Norfolk, Va. With that game, ODU began a winning streak that it extended today to seven games.

"I would love to play a good game against ODU someday but we seem to save our worst for ODU," said Georgia State head coach Bill Curry. "So hats off to a good job by [Old Dominion]. We didn't find out today just how good they are because we really didn't test them. We gave them opportunities at every turn and they took advantage."

Quarterback Bo Schlechter, starting his second game for the Panthers, was 10-of-27 passing with an interception. Drew Little got his first snaps of the season late in the third quarter and finished 6-of-17 passing with two picks.

"We went out and played hard, but we had a couple of penalties and turnovers that shouldn't have happened," Schlechter said. "That caused us to get off key and we never could get back into it. We didn't execute our game plan like we should have."

A wild first half featured numerous miscues on both sides that led to points.

Old Dominion started the game with 51 and 45-yard field goals from Jarod Brown to jump out to a 6-0 lead. The Panthers' first score was made possible by an Antonio Vaughan fair catch fumble on a punt by Matt Hubbard. Nate Anthony subsequently recovered on the ODU 14 for the Panthers, and Christian Benvenuto ended the short drive with a 26-yard field goal to make it a 6-3 Old Dominion lead nine minutes into the game.

Later in the first quarter with Old Dominion leading 13-3, ODU safety Devon Simmons intercepted Schlechter and returned the pick 33 yards to the GSU 13. But several plays later, GSU linebacker Michael Hall forced Colby Goodwyn to fumble into the end zone, and linebacker Demazio Skelton returned it 93 yards to the Monarchs 7-yard line. Two plays later Donald Russell scored on a 2-yard run with 29 seconds left in the period to cut the ODU lead to three.

The Panthers, however, committed two special teams errors of their own in the second quarter. A Hubbard punt attempt was blocked by Alex Arain and returned 36 yards by Blair Roberts for an ODU touchdown with 12:16 left in the half.

A GSU scoring drive of 55 yards, capped by a 5-yard Travis Evans touchdown run, cut Old Dominion's lead to 20-17, but the Monarchs partially blocked another punt on the next Panthers possession, getting the ball at the GSU 19. ODU struck quickly with a DeMarco touchdown pass to Reid Evans to end the first-half scoring.

Georgia State was looking to cut into a 33-17 ODU lead when its most promising drive of the second half was cut short. Early in the fourth quarter, Little's pass attempt was tipped at the line and intercepted by Monarchs cornerback Eriq Lewis at the ODU 12-yard line.

Albert Wilson accounted for 77 punt return yards on six attempts and tied with Jordan Giles for the team lead with 53 yards receiving. Evans paced the Panthers with 74 yards on the ground.

JACKSONVILLE STATE 37, GEORGIA STATE 21

Game 3: Sept. 17, 2011 • 3:30 p.m. (CSS)
Burgess-Snow Field • Jacksonville, Ala.

Georgia State played nearly even with 16th-ranked Jacksonville State for three quarters before succumbing in the fourth quarter and falling, 37-21, at Burgess-Snow Field.

GSU (1-2) wide receiver Albert Wilson set a school-record with 146 yards receiving on six catches, including receptions of 53 and his 54 yards. On his final catch covering 53 yards, the sophomore appeared headed for the end zone but pulled up with an injured hamstring.

Jacksonville State (2-1) quarterback Coty Blanchard completed nine of 11 passes for 155 yards and one touchdown while rushing 12 times for 77 yards and two scores. His 17-yard scoring run with four minutes remaining in the third quarter proved to be the key blow, putting the Gamecocks ahead, 24-14. The score came on fourth-and-one as Blanchard faked a handoff up the middle, snuck around the right side and then dove into the end zone.

The Panthers answered with Travis Evans' three-yard touchdown run to pull within 24-21 late in the third quarter. The 80-yard drive was highlighted by a 54-yard completion from quarterback Bo Schechter to Wilson. Georgia State's longest pass play of the season moved the Panthers to the JSU 27, and from there, GSU kept it on the ground. On first down at the 15, Evans ran 12 yards to the three and then bulled his way into the end zone on the next play.

Holding a three-point lead, Jacksonville State ground out a 13-play, 74-yard drive that lasted 7:24 and was capped by Washaun Ealey's four-yard run. Ealey, the Georgia transfer, finished with 82 yards on the ground, and while backfield mate Calvin Middleton rushed for 89 yards and one score. For the game, JSU rushed for 246 yards.

Now leading 30-21, JSU forced the Panthers to go three-and-out and then managed another touchdown drive that was kept alive by a roughing the punter penalty. Blanchard scored from 11 yards out with 1:39 left for the final 37-21 margin.

"If we take the penalties and simply play intelligently, then we are right in the game," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "But we kept their drives alive with silly mistakes, and we didn't sustain enough offensively. We didn't show poise in the clutch."

The teams were tied at 14-all at the half. Jacksonville State opened the scoring on Blanchard's 28-yard touchdown pass to Kevyn Cooper with 10 minutes left in the first half, but Georgia State struck back as Schlechter found tight end Arthur Williams for an 11-yard touchdown with three minutes to play in the first quarter.

After the Gamecocks regained the lead early in the second quarter by blocking Drew Little's attempt at a quick kick and returning it 34 yards for a score, Georgia State again knotted the score on Donald's Russell's one-yard plunge. That score was set up by Demarius Matthews' 67-yard kickoff return to the JSU 24-yard line.

Schlechter passed for 145 yards and one touchdown while completing 15 of 26 passes. He added 29 yards rushing. Donald Russell managed 47 yards and a touchdown, while Evans finished with 41 yards rushing, one touchdown, and five catches for 27 yards.

Punter-Wide Receiver • 6-3, 210 • Fr.-R
Wellington, Fla. (Glades Day HS)

- Starting punter and former backup quarterback who moved to wide receiver Sept. 8
- Missed the South Alabama and Lamar

games due to a knee injury but returned to average 46.2 yards against Alabama

- Averaged 44.5 yards per punt, including nine kicks of 50 yards or more and eight punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.
- Helped GSU to a net punting average of 37.3, which would rank among the Top 10 nationally
- Top punting performance was against Campbell, when he punted four times for a 50-yard average, with three punts inside the 20-yard line. Earned honorable mention recognition for the national Punter of the Week award in FCS by the College Football Performance Awards
- Again recognized by CFPA after punting for a 50-yard average versus Savannah State
- Earned his third honorable mention award from the CFPA against N.C. Central, when he averaged 51 yards on four punts, putting two inside the 20-yard line
- Added a fourth honorable mention citation from the CFPA following the Alabama game
- Earned the team's first Magnanimitas ("greatness of spirit") helmet sticker, recognizing an exemplary display of one of the six characteristics of a champion. The characteristic he exemplified was unselfishness when he elected to move from QB to WR.
- Also plays wide receiver and had eight catches for a 14.8-yard average
- In his first significant action at wide receiver, he caught five passes for 64 yards against Jacksonville State, including an 11-yard catch on third-and-eight and a 14-yard grab on third-and-six.
- Added two catches for 31 yards against Savannah State
- Caught a 23-yard pass for a key third-down conversion on a touchdown drive versus N.C. Central
- Part of four-man battle for starting quarterback position in the preseason

JAKE & LOUIE

The flowing locks you see when Georgia State's defense is on the field belong to linebackers Jake (35) and Louie Muasau (38), pronounced MWAH-sow. The brothers are the sons of Asoiva Muasau and the late Liuavano Muasau, natives of American Samoa. Jake's given name is Manumalo, while Louie is short for Tuugalue.

Although they are both juniors and look as if they could be twins, Louie is actually a year older. Jake plays outside linebacker, while Louie plays inside linebacker.

The brothers hail from Sierra Vista, Ariz., where they attended Buena High School. They went on to play junior college football at Phoenix College before enrolling at Georgia State in January 2010.

Both brothers have shown play-making ability, especially Jake, who leads the team with 8.5 tackles for loss. He has also collected three fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles, an interception and three pass breakups.

In the Oct. 9 win over Savannah State, Jake forced a fumble, recovered a fumble, broke up a pass and had a tackle for loss, while Louie had an interception. Against N.C. Central, Jake had a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and a key pass breakup on fourth down.

Jake had a similarly productive game against Lambuth, when he collected six tackles with four tackles for loss, including three sacks and also caused a fumble, recovered a fumble and intercepted a pass, all in the first half. He earned honorable mention recognition for the national Linebacker of the Week award from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA).

Louie is the Panthers' third-leading tackler with 41 and has one interception.

BULLY-ING THE DEFENSE

Tight end Arthur Williams made perhaps the play of the season in Georgia State's 23-17 victory over Lamar, which ensured a winning record for the Panthers in their inaugural campaign. With GSU trailing 20-17 in the fourth quarter, Williams caught a two-yard touchdown pass, hauling in the ball after it was tipped by a defender for the winning score.

Williams had made a similar catch in the back of the end zone on the Panthers' final play in the overtime loss to Jacksonville State, but he was ruled out of bounds, ending the game.

The Miami, Fla., native first made his mark with two touchdown catches in the Panthers' 37-10 victory over Morehead State. Williams lived up to his nickname of "Bully" on his first TD. The 6-3, 270-pounder caught a short pass in the flat from Drew Little and literally dragged a defender 11 yards into the end zone. Later in the game, he hauled in a two-yard scoring pass.

One game earlier, Williams had a key 24-yard reception on the Panthers' final drive to set up the winning field goal against Campbell.

Williams has 15 catches on the season for a 10.8-yard average.

WORTH THE WAIT FOR VANCE

Placekicker Iain Vance has been remarkably efficient for the Panthers, connecting on 15 of 17 field goals and 34 of 36 extra points for a team-leading 79 points.

Vance was the hero of Georgia State's win at Campbell as he booted a 30-yard field goal with just one second left to lift the Panthers to the 24-21 victory. He added another game-winner with a 33-yard kick in GSU's 20-17 overtime win over N.C. Central.

The Duluth, Ga., native was honored by the Fred Mitchell Award as a placekicker who displayed excellence on the field and in the community in the month of September, when he was perfect on field goals (5-for-5) and extra points (13-for-13) in the Panthers' first four games.

Then he began October by booting a career-best 49-yard field goal in the win over Morehead State.

Vance, a fifth-year senior, was a former walk-on player at both Georgia Tech (2006-07) and Alabama (2008) but never appeared in a game. He enrolled at Georgia State in the summer of 2009 and practiced with the Panthers last fall. When he lined up to kick the extra point following the Panthers' first touchdown in their inaugural game, it marked his first appearance in a football game since his senior season at Duluth High School - in the fall of 2005.

FOURTH-QUARTER RALLIES

Throughout the season, Georgia State has shown the ability to rally in the fourth quarter, winning three games in the fourth period or overtime (Campbell, North Carolina Central, Lamar) but also rallying in eventual losses to Jacksonville State (overtime), Old Dominion and South Alabama.

Quarterback Drew Little has been particularly effective late, completing 69 percent of his passes in the fourth quarter (including overtimes) for 574 yards with five TD passes, three touchdowns rushing and only one interception.

A look at Georgia State's notable fourth-quarter performances:

Jacksonville State (L 34-27 OT): Scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to force overtime against the fourth-ranked team in FCS. On the game-tying drive, Little was 5-for-8 for 52 yards and converted third downs with completions to Sidney Haynes (14 yds) and Travis Evans (7 yds). He hit Danny Williams with a 16-yard completion to the one-yard line, and then took it in himself for the score.

Campbell: Little went 9-for-10 for 82 yards in the fourth quarter, throwing an eight-yard scoring pass to Danny Williams with six minutes left and then moving the Panthers in position for Iain Vance's winning field goal with one second left.

North Carolina Central: With GSU trailing 14-10, Little engineered an eight-play, 66-yard drive, capped by a 24-yard touchdown pass to Danny Williams. After allowing NCCU to kick a tying field goal with five seconds left, the Panthers won the game in overtime on Vance's 33-yard field goal.

Old Dominion: Little went 12-for-20 for 192 yards in the fourth quarter with a 32-yard touchdown pass to Travis Evans and a one-yard scoring run as the Panthers rallied for two scores in the 34-20 loss.

South Alabama: Georgia State rallied for 13 fourth-quarter points, pulling within 39-34 on a touchdown with 3:57 left. Little completed 7-of-9 passes for 82 yards and scored on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter.

Lamar: After allowing Lamar to take a 17-13 lead with nine minutes left, GSU responded with a 10-play, 71-yard touchdown drive. Little was 6-for-8 for 45 yards in the fourth quarter, including a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Arthur Williams with less than five minutes to play.

DARREN DASHES FOR END ZONE, EARNS NATIONAL AWARD

Darren McCray used an explosive play to reach the end zone each in back-to-back games against Jacksonville State (Sept. 18) and Campbell (Sept. 25).

The diminutive redshirt freshman, who is just 5-7 and barely 150 pounds, fielded the opening kickoff against Campbell and raced 96 yards down the right sideline for a touchdown, easily the longest scoring play in Georgia State's brief history. He was named national Kickoff Returner of the Week in FCS by the College Football Performance Awards.

One week earlier, McCray scored GSU's first touchdown against fourth-ranked Jacksonville State with an electrifying 41-yard run on a reverse handoff from Albert Wilson.

SPECIAL TEAMS EARN RECOGNITION

Two key members of the Georgia State special teams earned national recognition for their performances in the Panthers' 24-21 victory at Campbell on Sept. 25.

Darren McCray was named national Kickoff Returner of the Week in FCS by the College Football Performance Awards for his 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Punter Bo Schlechter, who punted four times for a 50-yard average with three punts inside the 20, was an honorable mention choice for Punter of the Week by the CFPA. And that doesn't even include placekicker Iain Vance, who booted the game-winning field goal with one second left.

PANTHERS RECEIVE VOTES IN FCS POLLS

Just three weeks into its inaugural season, the Georgia State football program earned votes in the two recognized Top 25 polls for the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision for the week of Sept. 20.

The Panthers were coming off a 34-27 overtime loss to Jacksonville State, which is ranked fourth in the FCS.

In the FCS Coaches Poll, Georgia State received two points that week, while in the Sports Network/Fathead.com Top 25, which is compiled by media members and sports information directors, the Panthers received one point.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Georgia State's balanced offense has shown the ability to spread the ball around. Fourteen different players have caught passes, including eight with 10 or more catches. The Panthers regularly use four tailbacks, and 12 different players have scored touchdowns.

BO KNOWS PUNTING . . . AND RECEIVING

After earning the role as the Panthers' starting punter, Bo Schlechter added wide receiver to his resume, moving there from quarterback the week of Sept. 6.

Schlechter got his first few snaps at wide receiver against Lambuth but did not catch a pass. Then against Jacksonville State, he caught five passes for 64 yards, including an 11-yard catch on third-and-eight and a 14-yard grab on third-and-six. He added two catches for 31 yards against Savannah State for a total of seven receptions for 95 yards, with a 13.6-yard average. On the season, he has eight catches for a 14.8-yard average.

On punts, Schlechter is averaging 44.3 yards with a net of 40.1.

The redshirt freshman from Wellington, Fla., is one of Georgia State's most versatile athletes. Not only did he star in football at Glades Day High, but he also played volleyball and earned a scholarship offer to Boise State in that sport.

Schlechter has served as special teams captain in four games this season. He also earned the team's first Magnanimitas award. Magnanimitas is a Latin word meaning "greatness of spirit," and the award recognizes an exemplary display of one of the six characteristics of a champion. In Schlechter's case, the characteristic he exemplified was unselfishness because of his willingness to move from quarterback to wide receiver.

NO PLACE LIKE DOME

Georgia State's inaugural season began with three straight home games, and the Panthers made their first ever road trip to Campbell on Sept. 25. The Panthers then had another three-game homestand at the Georgia Dome, giving Georgia State six of its first seven games at home. The inaugural season concludes with three of the final four games on the road.

LITTLE EARNS INAUGURAL GAME START

After a four-man battle for the starting job throughout the preseason, redshirt freshman Drew Little (Henry County HS, McDonough, Ga.) was the starting quarterback for Georgia State's inaugural game. Little earned the nod over redshirt freshmen Kelton Hill (Lithia Springs HS, Lithia Springs, Ga.) and Bo Schlechter (Glades Day HS, Wellington, Fla.) as well as sophomore Star Jackson (Lake Worth HS, Lake Worth, Fla.), the transfer from Alabama.

Little, who was spelled at times by Hill, completed 13 of 17 passes for 135 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions. After leading the Panthers to a touchdown on their first offensive possession, he threw the first touchdown pass in GSU history on a four-yard completion to tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi. He later added a 16-yard scoring pass to Jordan Giles.
