NCAA Principle of Sporting Behavior and Ethical Conduct:

For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, student-athletes, coaches, and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifest not only in athletics participation, but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program.

SUN BELT™

CONFERENCE

NO FOOTBALL CONFERENCE IN HISTORY has ever boasted as many bowl relationships in its first two decades of existence, but such breakthroughs have been the rule rather than the exception for a league that continues to exceed expectations.

Is the Sun Belt Conference a modern-day fixture among the decision-makers in the ever-changing world of college athletics? Or is the league a long-time innovator, responsible for advancements in many sports that we now take for granted?

Is the Sun Belt home of an alumni base that includes national and international leaders in the areas of government, business and entertainment as well as athletics?

Or is the conference one that has established itself as a national contender in a variety of sports, and one that continues to evolve in ways that directly benefit its institutions and more importantly its student-athletes?

The answer is yes, yes, yes and yes.

The Sun Belt Conference's "Together We Rise" motto isn't just hyperbole. It's proven fact on many different levels, not the least being its place in the hierarchy of collegiate athletics. As the league prepares to celebrate four decades since its founding in 1976, the Sun Belt occupies a "seat at the table" as a permanent part of the NCAA's 24-member Board of Directors. That alone insures that the conference has a voice in determining the future as college sports continues to change and evolve.

Changing and evolving have been hallmarks of the league since its existence. College basketball might be a shadow of its current self had the Sun Belt not led the way in the establishment of the shot clock. The conference also wrote history at the start of the century when it inaugurated football as a league sport – becoming the first already-existing Division I conference to take such action.

The Sun Belt was originally founded to give home to some of the nation's premier mid-major basketball teams, and the league's history is dotted with success in many different men's and women's sports through its history. But when the desire for a higher national profile and the desire of its membership brought about football sponsorship in 2001, the conference was figuratively reborn, and now stands as one of the 10 premier college football leagues in the country.

And, with the recent debut of the College Football Playoff, the Sun Belt is guaranteed universal access based strictly on performance. A worthy football team in the Sun Belt can be in the national championship picture, and the league is a permanent part of the "Group of Five" conferences (joining the American Athletic Conference, the Mountain West Conference, the Mid-American Conference and Conference USA) that will send its highest-rated champion to a premier Jan. 1 bowl game.

In only 15 years of football, the Sun Belt has earned ties to no fewer than seven bowl games. In addition to the potential of the College Football Playoff, the league has guaranteed spots in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, the GoDaddy Bowl, the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl and the new Cure Bowl for bowl-eligible teams each and every season. Beginning in 2016, the Sun Belt will also be part of a conference rotation that will send teams to the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl and the Miami Beach Bowl.

No football conference in history has ever boasted as many bowl relationships in its first two decades of existence, but such breakthroughs have been the rule rather than the exception for a league that continues to exceed expectations. Just in the last three seasons, league members have recorded 52 non-conference wins including a record 21 victories outside the league in 2013. The Sun Belt also has a winning record over its fellow "Group of Five" conferences over the past two seasons, and has claimed three bowl victories in those two years.

Football, though, is by no means the only hallmark of success for the league. Just this past season, Georgia State knocked off third-seeded Baylor in the NCAA men's basketball tournament and Little Rock defeated sixth-seeded Texas A&M in the women's NCAA tournament. With the league's postseason tournaments headed back to the conference's home city, the "Big Easy" of New Orleans, and a plethora of standouts returning for this season, the league is poised for another successful hoops season.

Baseball and softball continue to put the league in the national spotlight during the spring season, with deep runs into postseason play and high visibility in the national polls becoming a tradition. UL Lafayette's baseball team was the nation's No. 1 team in the final third of the 2014 season and has reached the NCAA Super Regional round each of the past two years, while the UL Lafayette softball team has advanced to the Super Regional three straight years including a trip to the 2014 College World Series.

Many league sports have made statements on the national level, and that is a tribute to the university and athletic administrators that serve both the league institutions and the student-athletes at each school. That this level of success comes at a time of sweeping change in collegiate athletics adds even more to these accomplishments.

With those changes, opportunities for student-athletes to succeed both on and off the field have never been greater, and the Sun Belt is well positioned in the areas of scholarship, student welfare and academic success. During the 2014-15 academic year alone, Sun Belt member institutions awarded nearly $50 million in scholarship funds to more than 3,084 student-athletes while also contributing over $2 million from the Student Assistance Fund (SAF) to more than 1,779 student-athletes.

The league and its institutions rewrite the Sun Belt's record book each year in grade-point averages and academic honors, and member schools' success in the NCAA's APR rankings provide even more proof of the league's academic commitment. In 2015, the conference doubled the number of teams that received NCAA Public Recognition Awards, given to teams that post APR scores in the top 10 percent of their sport, as 14 teams were among the national honorees compared to seven in 2014.

The strength of any league lies in its membership, with the Sun Belt's 11-school football membership including Appalachian State, Arkansas State, Georgia Southern, Georgia State, Idaho, UL Lafayette, UL Monroe, New Mexico State, South Alabama, Texas State and Troy. Little Rock and UT Arlington compete in all sports as non-football members while Idaho and New Mexico State are football-only members. Those members give the Sun Belt a mix of the "old" and the "new", with many long-time Sun Belt institutions continuing to have success and a solid corps of conference newcomers ready to make their marks on the league and national levels.

The varied campuses and locations reflect another league strength – its diversity. The mix of regions and regional cultures provide a rare opportunity for the league's student-athletes to experience many environments. But those same student-athletes can also experience that without leaving their own campuses.

For every All-Pro linebacker DeMarcus Ware (Troy) and Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Charles Tillman (UL Lafayette), and for every World Series MVP David Freese (South Alabama) coming from Sun Belt campuses, there are also U.S. presidents (Lyndon Johnson, Texas State), business icons (Chick-fil-a president Daniel Cathy, Georgia Southern), nationally-known entertainers (Tim McGraw, UL Monroe, and Ludacris, Georgia State), and there is royalty (Miss America Debbye Turner, Arkansas State).

These proud alumni, as well as the thousands of student-athletes and staff members at all of its institutions, are proof that the Sun Belt Conference continues to gain stature and provide the promise of future success with every sunrise. "Together We Rise" has never been more appropriate.

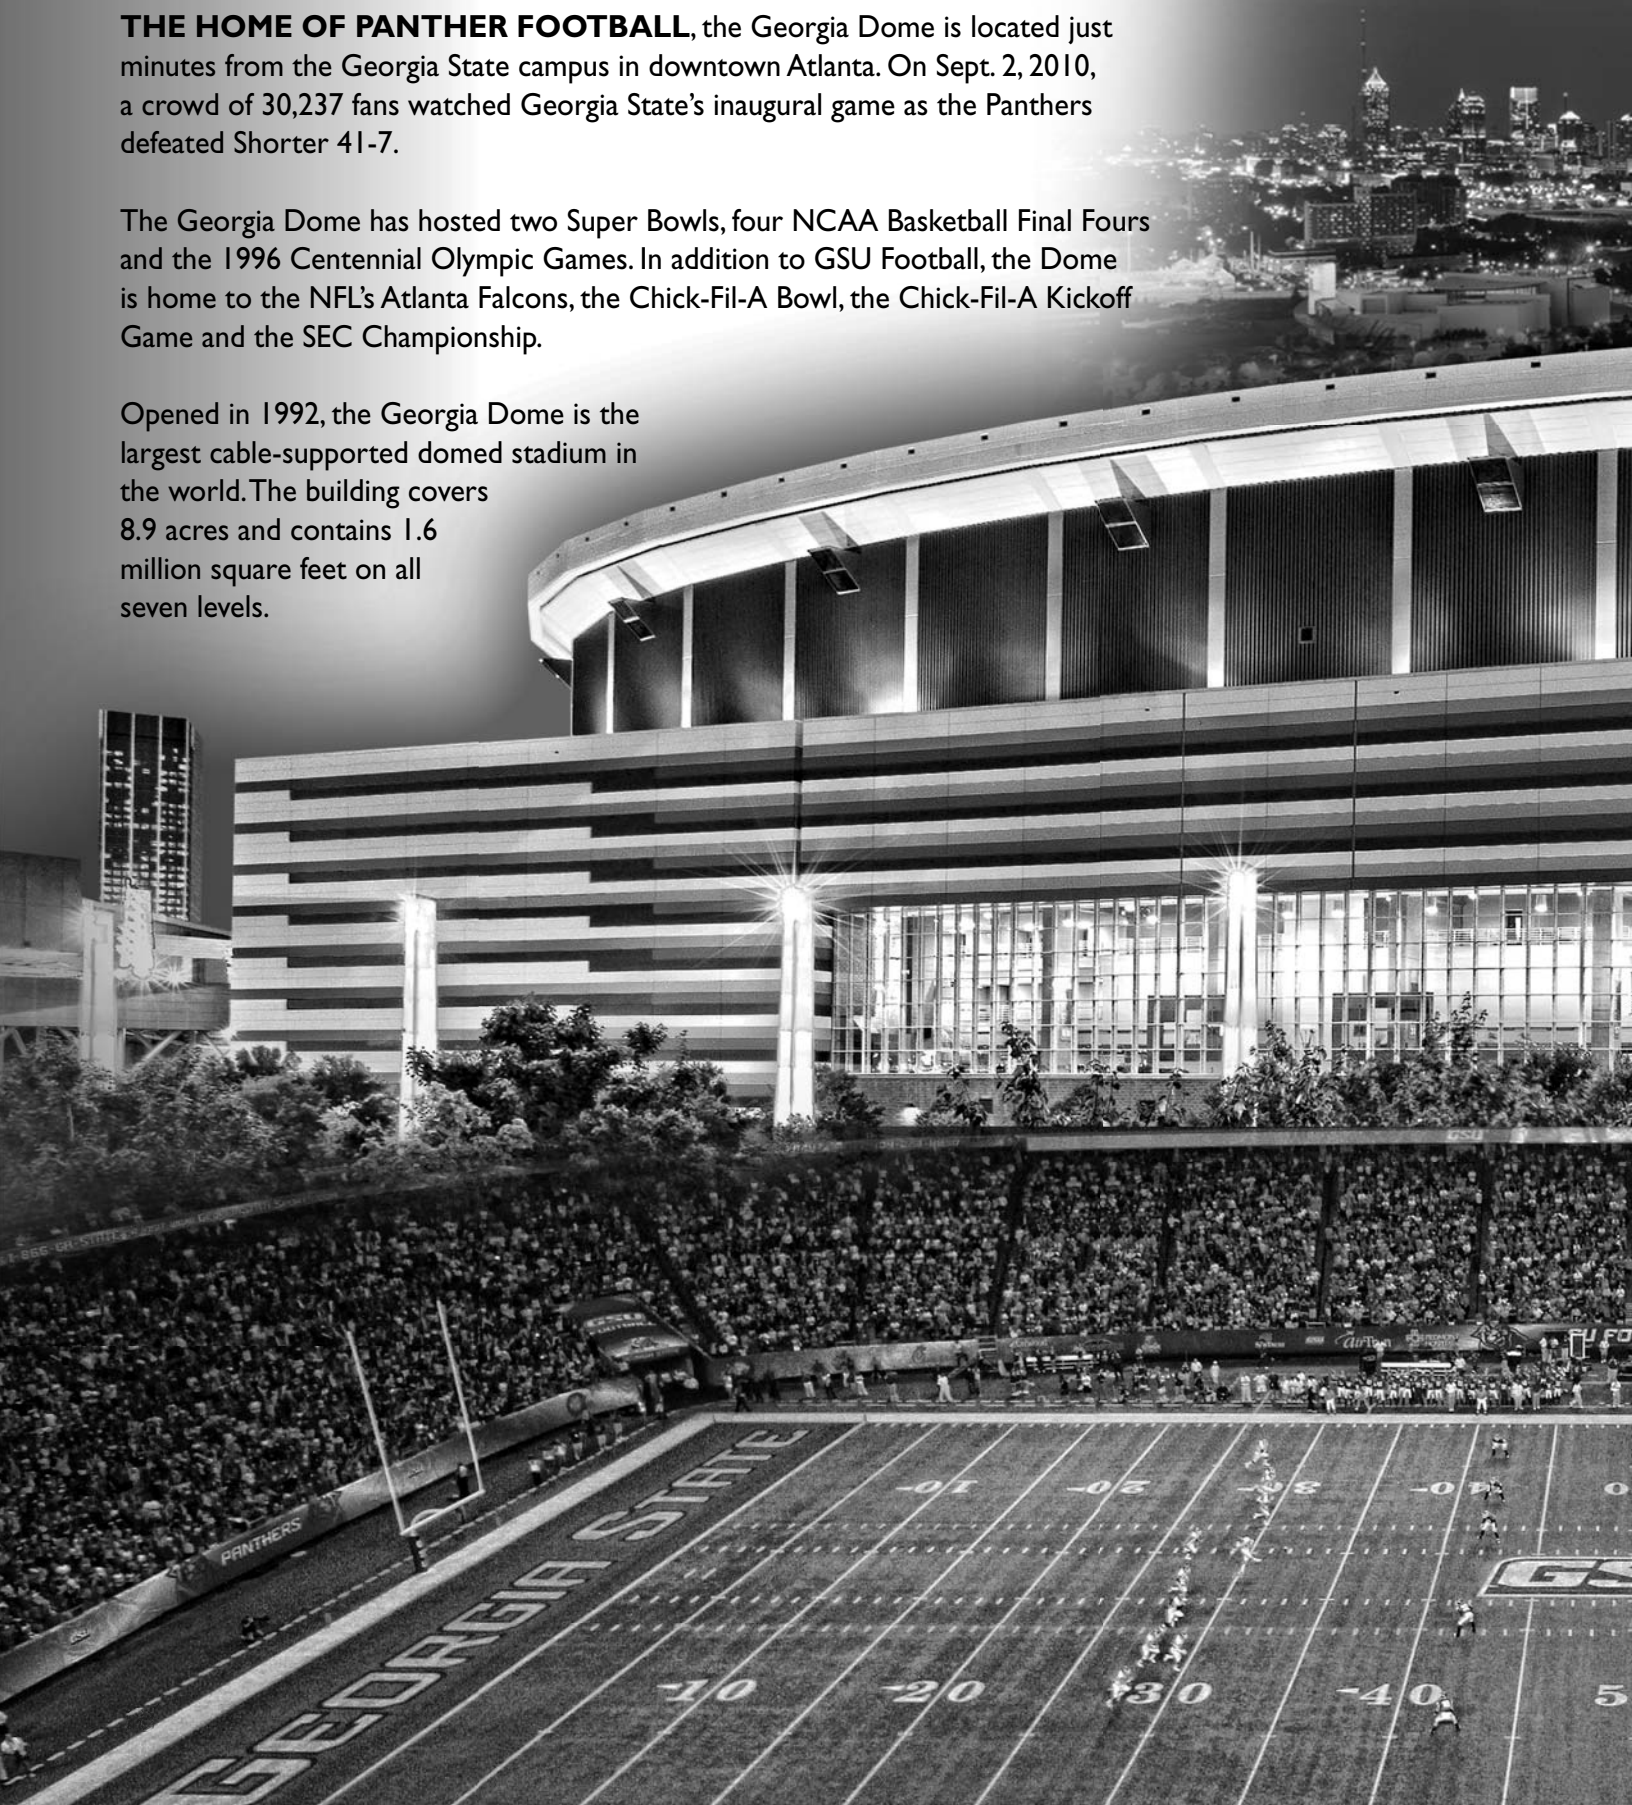

Prominent Sun Belt alumni include Lyndon B. Johnson, former President of the United States (Texas State), former All-Star baseball player Luis Gonzalez (South Alabama), former member of the United States Senate and House of Representatives John Breaux (UL Lafayette), country music superstar Tim McGraw (UL Monroe), CEO of Duck Commander and Buck Commander Willie Robertson (UL Monroe) and DeMarcus Ware, an All-Pro NFL linebacker (Troy).

GEORGIADOME

THE HOME OF PANTHER FOOTBALL, the Georgia Dome is located just minutes from the Georgia State campus in downtown Atlanta. On Sept. 2, 2010, a crowd of 30,237 fans watched Georgia State's inaugural game as the Panthers defeated Shorter 41-7.

The Georgia Dome has hosted two Super Bowls, four NCAA Basketball Final Fours and the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games. In addition to GSU Football, the Dome is home to the NFL's Atlanta Falcons, the Chick-Fil-A Bowl, the Chick-Fil-A Kickoff Game and the SEC Championship.

Opened in 1992, the Georgia Dome is the largest cable-supported domed stadium in the world. The building covers 8.9 acres and contains 1.6 million square feet on all seven levels.

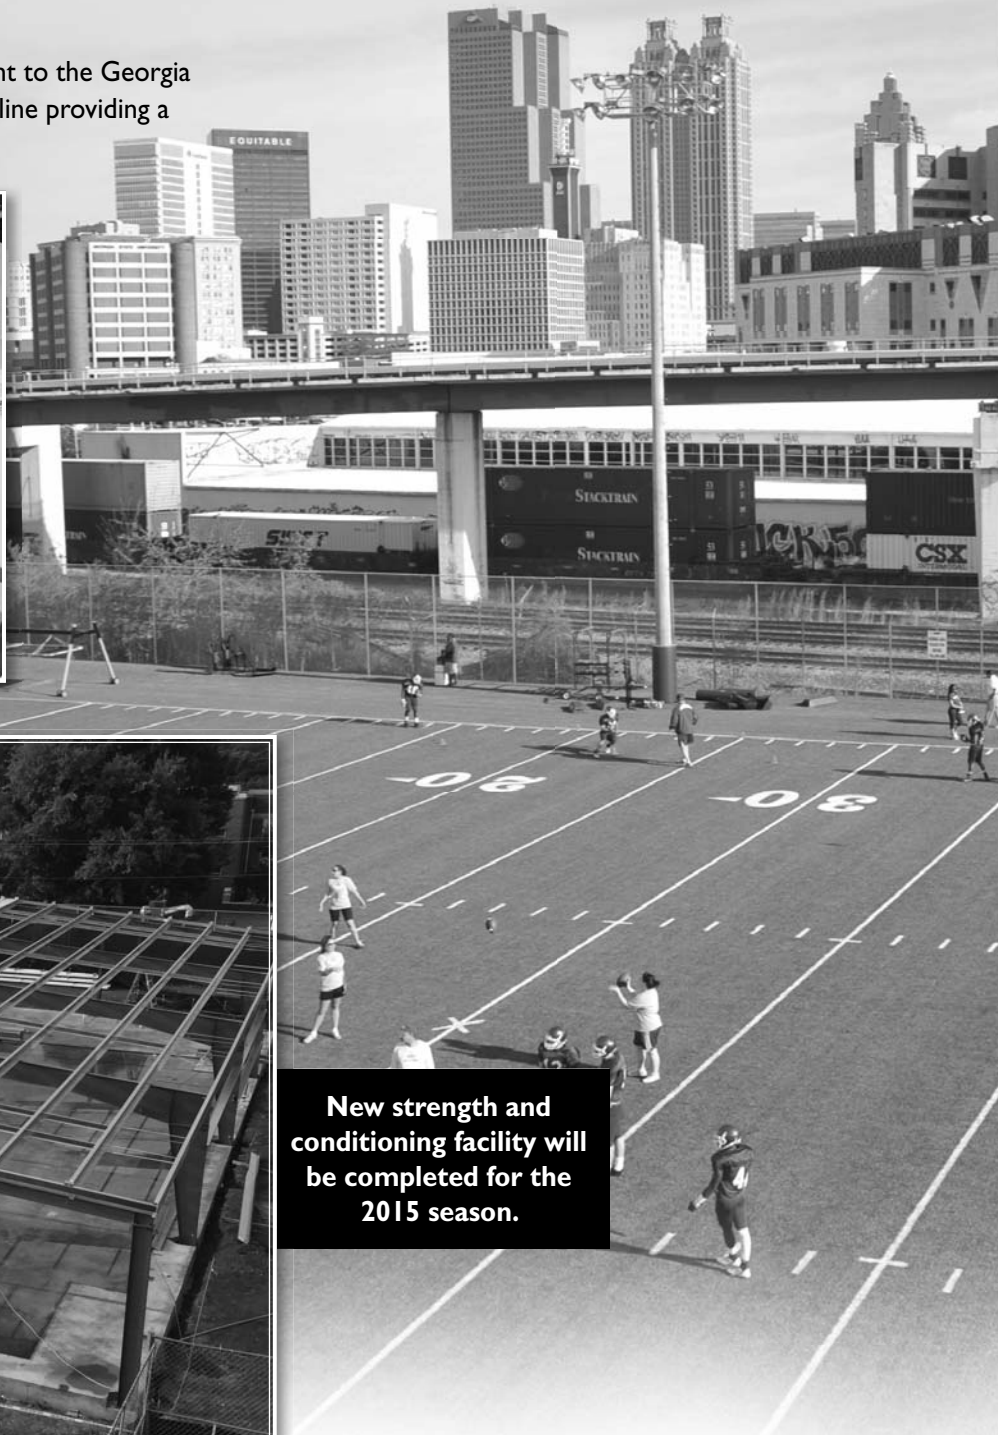

PRACTICE COMPLEX

HOME TO THE GEORGIA STATE FOOTBALL PROGRAM on a daily basis, the GSU Practice Complex features a 120-yard synthetic turf field, completed in March 2010, as well as a natural turf field.

An existing structure on the site was renovated and expanded, maintaining its historic architecture and charm while adding modern features. The 22,000-square foot facility was completed in 2011 and includes the Panthers' locker room, equipment room, athletic training room, theater-style team meeting room, individual position meeting rooms and coaches' offices.

A new, 7,000-square foot strength and conditioning facility at the complex will be completed for the 2015 season.

The GSU Practice Complex is located adjacent to the Georgia State campus, with the downtown Atlanta skyline providing a dramatic backdrop.

New strength and conditioning facility will be completed for the 2015 season.

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Georgia State University is an enterprising urban public research institution centered in the historic, cultural and financial hub of downtown Atlanta. The university provides more than 32,000 students with unsurpassed connections to the city's business, government, non-profit and cultural organizations.

Georgia State is dedicated to offering programs that cater to students' educational needs, and the university provides a rich co-curricular experience with award-winning on-campus housing, hundreds of student organizations and one of the most diverse student bodies in the country. Students, faculty and alumni enjoy a unique campus personality and culture based on ambition, hard work and dedication.

ONE OF ONLY FOUR public research universities in the state, Georgia State offers 100 fields of study with 250 graduate programs in its eight colleges and schools. Students can choose from dozens of nationally-ranked and recognized academic programs at the university, which provides the widest variety of field of study in Georgia.

Georgia State is a national leader in graduating students from diverse backgrounds and has achieved national recognition for its commitment to its students' successful progress toward graduation.

Founded in 1913, Georgia State is the second-largest institution in the University System of Georgia with more than 32,000 students.

GSUCAMPUS

LOCATED IN THE HEART of one of America's great cities, the Georgia State University campus has a profound influence on the changing landscape of downtown Atlanta.

While the building blocks of the university will always be high-achieving students, world-class faculty and ground-breaking research, Georgia State boasts an ever-expanding and improving campus to accommodate that foundation.

In the last decade, the Rialto Theater restoration, Student Center, Student Recreation Center, University Lofts, University Commons, Helen M. Aderhold classroom building, Parker H. Petit Science Teaching and Research Center and many other buildings have transformed the downtown cityscape at Atlanta's core.

The university has a new front door for visitors with Centennial Hall at 100 Auburn Ave, and a new Law School building is nearing completion.

Georgia State is where city life meets campus life for a unique and exciting student experience.

- Five residence halls housing over 4,000 students
- More than 300 student organizations
- Six campus dining locations
- State-of-the-art Student Recreation Center

CAMPUS HOUSING

SOME OF THE FINEST HOUSING FACILITIES in the nation are on the Georgia State campus. On-campus housing continues to grow, and more than 4,000 GSU students now live on campus with a variety of options — traditional dorms, apartment-style or loft living.

Georgia State's nationally-recognized and award-winning on-campus housing provides students with opportunities to connect with the university community with educational, cultural, recreational and social programs.

The University Commons, opened in 2007, is a 4.2-acre complex of four buildings surrounding a landscaped courtyard. All units come with fully-equipped kitchens, furnished bedrooms and spacious living areas.

The fall of 2009 saw the opening of Patton Hall, which is suite-style for 325 residents and includes an on-site dining facility.

In 2010, GSU opened its first Greek housing, which consists of nine fraternities and sororities housed in three-story townhomes.

Opened in 2011, the Piedmont North Complex houses approximately 1,100 residents and offers a traditional residence hall lifestyle with all the amenities one would expect from a premier housing program, including a dining facility.

The University Lofts, opened in 2002, contain fully-furnished, loft-style apartments that blend urban style with modern features.

Construction has begun on a new student housing and dining hall complex on Piedmont Avenue that will house 1,100 students and open for the fall of 2016.

All residence halls feature a full range of amenities including study and community lounge areas, laundry facilities, 24/7 security patrols, on-site or nearby parking and more.

CITY OF ATLANTA

ATLANTA IS INTEGRAL TO Georgia State's educational experience. Students and faculty are part of a living laboratory where they study and create solutions for the challenges of the 21st century.

The metropolitan Atlanta area is home to more than five million people and the world's busiest airport.

Atlanta is third in the nation and fourth in the world for Fortune 500 company headquarters, and attending school downtown provides students with unparalleled access to internships and jobs. There are approximately 125,000 Georgia State alumni in the Atlanta area, giving students ample networking opportunities.

Georgia State students also can take advantage of the university's easy access to Atlanta's rich creative environment, diversity of cultures and lifestyles, and wide variety of indoor and outdoor activities.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME OPENS IN ATLANTA

The new College Football Hall of Fame is open in the heart of downtown Atlanta, just minutes from the Georgia State campus.

The $68.5 million facility occupies 94,256 square feet, including 50,000 square feet of exhibit space and a 45-yard indoor football field.

A DOWNTOWN ADVANTAGE

Georgia State is in the middle of downtown Atlanta, making it a hub of activities, attractions, businesses and non-profits, all within walking distance or a short ride from campus.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

GEORGIA STATE ATHLETICS IS COMMITTED to providing educational, personal and community development that will enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience.

Georgia State's commitment to academic support and student-athlete development is paying dividends as the Panthers are enjoying unprecedented success in the classroom.

Georgia State's Student-Athlete Development department became just the second in the nation to be certified at the highest level by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

The Georgia State program is headed by Associate Director of Athletics Brad Horton. Working directly with the football program are Britta DeLay and Jessica Summey.

SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM:

- Panther athletic teams have combined for a 3.0 grade-point average or higher (semester or cumulative) for 14 consecutive semesters.
- The athletic department achieved a 3.16 semester GPA and a 3.15 cumulative GPA for the spring 2015, the highest figures on record.
- In the most recent release, Georgia State led all Sun Belt schools in Graduation Success Rate at 86 percent, above the national average of 81 percent.
- A total of 15 student-athletes across nine sports have earned Academic All-America honors since 1989.

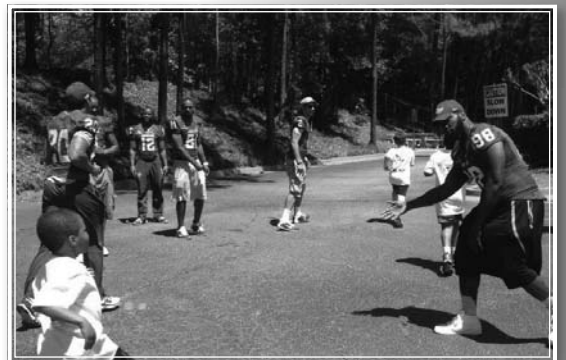

The Georgia State football program posted an all-time high grade-point average of 2.91 for the spring 2015, with 52 student-athletes at 3.0 or better.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

GIVING BACK TO THE COMMUNITY is an essential component of the Georgia State athletics program. Panther student-athletes, coaches and staff volunteer their time and talents to a wide range of programs and organizations, including Samaritan's Feet, Make-A-Wish, Team Tiger, Boys & Girls Clubs, the Salvation Army, local elementary schools, and many others.

GSUPRESIDENT

MARK P. BECKER

SINCE BEGINNING HIS TENURE as Georgia State University's seventh president in January 2009, President Mark P. Becker has provided a vision for the future of Georgia State University and led the institution into a period of marked growth and advancement.

Reflecting his vision of the urban public research university for the 21st century, the university adopted a dynamic 10-year strategic plan that has Georgia State well on its way to becoming one of the nation's premier urban research universities.

As a first generation college student who began his educational career at a community college, Becker is personally and professionally committed to ensuring that students of all economic backgrounds succeed and are given opportunities to compete on a level playing field. Under his leadership, Georgia State's graduation rate has already increased by 10 percent, and the university is becoming a national model for undergraduate education. It leads the nation in eliminating disparities in graduation rates based on race or ethnicity, and, as one of the most diverse universities in America, is first in the nation among non-profit institutions in graduating African-American students.

By promoting the achievements of the university, making it more visible locally and nationally, and demonstrating the value of a Georgia State degree, the university under Becker's leadership has set a series of university records for enrollment, graduation rates and total graduates. Becker has also placed high priority on ensuring financial support for students, and as a result need- and merit-based scholarship funds distributed by the university have tripled since his arrival.

Becker's passion for student success has been matched by his commitment to increasing multidisciplinary research and economic development as facilitated by the creation of new research centers, the Second Century Initiative—an ambitious program to hire one-hundred senior faculty members to serve in interdisciplinary research clusters, and an enhanced emphasis on the translation of faculty research into products and companies. This commitment has brought the university to new heights of research accomplishment, as reflected, for example, in new university records for sponsored research funding and federal research funding.

Being globally connected and engaged is another important component of Becker's vision for the modern research university. Seeking to position Georgia State faculty and students to thrive in an increasingly complex and global landscape, Becker has worked with faculty leaders and international partners to enhance Georgia State's global profile. In 2010 the university partnered with Beijing Language and Culture University to establish a Confucius Institute with an emphasis on business and commerce. In 2012 the institute was named a "2012 Confucius Institute of the Year."

Becker is particularly committed to developing strong partnerships with universities in rapidly growing economies. As a result, the university is working to strengthen relationships with counterparts in Brazil, China, South Africa, South Korea and Turkey. These partners are the basis for the development of new student and faculty exchanges, study abroad programs, research collaborations, executive training initiatives, government and private sector networks, and dual-degree programs.

Becker has aggressively advanced the campus' physical development and revitalization of downtown Atlanta. This has included major additions to campus housing and dining, research and academic facilities, as well as intramural and athletics facilities. In 2010 the university added football to its athletics program, and in 2013 added sand volleyball and moved to the Sun Belt Conference to advance into the Division I – FBS level of NCAA competition.

Throughout his career Becker has served on boards and committees of civic, government and professional bodies. He serves, for example, on the boards of the Coalition of Urban Serving Universities, World Affairs Council of Atlanta, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Aquarium, Georgia Research Alliance, Woodruff Arts Center, and the Atlanta Committee for Progress. He also serves on the executive committees of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education (Chair) and Central Atlanta Progress.

Trained as a statistician, Becker has had a distinguished career in biostatistics and public health sciences. For most of his professional career he was a member of the faculty in the Department of Biostatistics at the University of Michigan, where he also held appointments in the Institute for Social Research, and the Department of Statistics. He was made a Fellow of the American Statistical Association, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Becker has been principal investigator on research grants from the National Institutes of Health and the National Science Foundation. He has published extensively in leading journals, and his doctoral students have gone on to successful careers in leading higher education institutions and with multinational companies. Becker served on multiple editorial boards, was co-editor of Sociological Methodology, and was a guest editor for Sociological Methods and Research and for the Journal of the American Statistical Association.

Prior to his appointment as president of Georgia State, Becker was executive vice president for academic affairs and provost at the University of South Carolina and dean of the School of Public Health and assistant vice president of Public Health Preparedness and Emergency Response at the University of Minnesota. From 1989 to 2000, Becker was a professor in the University of Michigan's School of Public Health, where he also was associate dean for academic affairs. He has held academic appointments at the University of Washington, the University of Florida and Cornell University.

Becker attended Harford (Md.) Community College, earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Towson State University in 1980 and his Ph.D. degree in statistics from the Pennsylvania State University in 1985. Becker grew up in Havre de Grace, Md., near Baltimore. He and his wife, Laura Voisinnet, have two adult children, Matthew and Julia.

CHARLIE COBB

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY President Mark P. Becker ushered in a new era of Panther Athletics when he named veteran athletic administrator and “proven program builder” Charlie Cobb as Director of Athletics on Aug. 15, 2014.

At Cobb’s introductory press conference, Becker noted the need for Georgia State to find a proven winner, someone who has built a winning program “the right way.” Becker said Cobb even took it a step further.

“In fact, we got a bonus in this package. Not only is he a proven builder and proven winner with a track record of doing it in the right way, but he also has tremendous Atlanta roots,” Becker said. “He knows this community well, has worked in this city, knows what we are doing and the potential we have in this program.”

Cobb returned to Atlanta at the perfect time with several significant athletic building projects in the works. Already being constructed is a weight room at the football practice facility, while a new basketball and volleyball practice facility are scheduled for this fall. Also on the list is a dedicated academic performance center; and the University’s concept for redeveloping Turner Field into a mixed-use area inclusive of sporting venues.

Before returning to Atlanta, Cobb spent nine years as the Director of Athletics at Appalachian State.

Previously he worked for six years honing his business acumen with the Atlanta Sports Council, the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl and the Georgia Dome, before his first venture into college athletics as an administrator at his alma mater NC State.

Cobb has led successful programs by focusing on four pillars of his leadership philosophy:

- 1) relationships matter
- 2) achieve success
- 3) be innovative
- 4) create traditions

Those ideals helped him build and maintain a high-performing program at App State. The Mountaineers won three consecutive Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) national championships, the first three-peat in FCS history. They also brought home eight consecutive Commissioner’s Cup championships (top men’s sports program in the Southern Conference) and four Germann Cup championships (top women’s program). Together, they earned the men’s and women’s awards in the same academic year four times.

At App State, Cobb helped create $50 million in facilities improvements as the Mountaineers’ fundraising efforts that reached all-time highs, including surpassing the $3 million mark. The jewel of the construction projects was the seven-story Appalachian Athletics Center and the campaign also produced new homes for Mountaineer baseball, softball and soccer, as well as a new indoor practice facility.

The 47-year-old Cobb was a four-year letterwinner as a football player at NC State. He graduated with honors with a bachelor’s degree in business administration in 1990 and earned a master’s degree in sports administration from Ohio in 1992. As a senior center, he was named to the All-ACC second team and was an All-ACC academic selection.

Cobb and his wife, Lindsay, have a son and daughter, 17-year-old Harrison and 14-year-old Branan. Lindsay Cobb was an All-ACC goalkeeper for the NC State women’s soccer team from 1988-90.

Tight end Joel Ruiz (left) and receiver Donovan Harden are two of the top offensive weapons in the Sun Belt Conference.

SEASON PREVIEW

The Georgia State Panthers look for continued progress in year three at the FBS level as head coach Trent Miles and his staff build the program.

GSU returns 49 letterwinners and all but five starters, and the Panthers have added 14 potential impact veterans with eight junior college transfers and six FBS transfers from UAB.

Headlining the returnees are five All-Sun Belt Conference selections, led by receiver Donovan Harden and tight end Joel Ruiz on offense and linebacker Joseph Peterson on defense.

Record-setting quarterback Nick Arbuckle and talented receiver Robert Davis also return for a passing attack that ranked among the best in the Sun Belt and the nation. In hopes of improving the running game, GSU has added three running backs and three offensive linemen from the transfer ranks, and Kyler Neal returns from a season-ending injury.

Peterson, the Panthers' top tackler the last three years, leads a defense that looks to be much deeper with key additions at linebacker, on the line and in the secondary.

In addition to the Sun Belt slate, the schedule features a trip to Oregon, along with non-conference tests against Charlotte (home), Liberty (home) and Ball State (away.)

QUARTERBACKS

Returnees: NICK ARBUCKLE, Ronnie Bell
Key Losses: Ben McLane

Newcomers: Emiere Scaife (redshirt freshman), Aaron Winchester (freshman)

Record-setting quarterback Nick Arbuckle returns for his senior season after passing for 3,283 yards and 23 touchdowns in his first season with the Panthers. The Camarillo, Calif., native led the Sun Belt in passing yards per game (273.6) and was second in touchdown passes and total offense (274.4) to earn honorable mention all-conference honors. This season, he looks to build on that production while cutting down on his 17 interceptions.

Talented redshirt freshman Emiere Scaife, a 6-2, 218-pound left-hander, is expected to push for playing time.

Ronnie Bell is an experienced senior who passed for GSU season records with 2,573 yards and 15 touchdowns in 2013.

True freshman Aaron Winchester gives the Panthers another talented athlete at the position.

RUNNING BACKS

Returnees: KYLER NEAL (injured in 2014), Marcus Caffey, Jonathan Lyle (FB)

Key Losses: Gerald Howse, Duvall Smith, Dontavis Crocker

Newcomers: Kendrick Dorn (junior college transfer), Demarcus Kirk (UAB transfer), Taz Bateman (junior college transfer)

With this position featuring much more depth than a year ago, the Panthers are likely to use several ball carriers.

Sophomore Kyler Neal was on his way to a productive 2104 campaign before a knee injury in ended his season. He had 209 yards rushing and 107 yards receiving in four games before his injury.

Following Neal's injury, Marcus Caffey moved from cornerback to running back and ended up leading the team in rushing with 354 yards and three touchdowns. He briefly returned to defense in the spring, but he is back at running back for his senior season.

Bolstering the position are junior college transfers Kendrick Dorn and Taz Bateman and UAB transfer Demarcus Kirk.

Dorn is potentially the most impactful newcomer and should challenge for a starting berth after gaining more than 1,000 yards last season at San Bernardino Valley (Calif.) C.C. Bateman, another Californian, is a versatile skill player who averaged 161.7 all-purpose yards per game at Long Beach City College. Kirk redshirted at UAB last fall.

Jonathan Lyle, the team's lone fullback, is used as a blocker.

SEASONPREVIEW

WIDE RECEIVERS

Returnees: DONOVAN HARDEN, ROBERT DAVIS, Avery Sweeting, Todd Boyd, Glenn Smith

Key Losses: LYNQUEZ BLAIR

Newcomers: Nyiakki Height (UAB transfer), Kam Myers (junior college transfer), Marquan Greene (freshman), Penny Hart (freshman), Ari Werts (freshman)

The wide receiver position is the deepest and most talented area on the roster, led by all-conference returnees Donovan Harden and Robert Davis.

Harden, a senior who transferred from Illinois State, established himself as one of the top receivers in the Sun Belt in his first season with the Panthers. Playing primarily in the slot, he led the team with 60 receptions for 885 yards and seven touchdowns in 2014 to earn first-team All-Sun Belt honors as well as a spot on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List. He enters 2015 as a preseason first-team all-conference selection by numerous publications.

With Harden on the inside, Davis is a dangerous target on the outside. The 6-3 junior caught 50 passes for 732 yards and two scores last fall, giving him 94 receptions for 1,443 yards in his two seasons. He was an honorable mention all-conference selection.

Another talented veteran is senior Avery Sweeting, who is perhaps the team's fastest receiver. In eight games last year, he had 16 receptions for 224 yards and averaged 20.8 yards on 19 kickoff returns.

A pair of sophomores showed promised last fall in Todd Boyd and Glenn Smith. Boyd had eight receptions for 119 yards and two touchdowns. Smith added seven catches for 83 yards and one touchdown while averaging 18.5 yards on 13 kickoff returns.

The Panthers have added two impact newcomers in Nyiakki Height, a senior transfer from UAB, and junior college transfer Kam Myers.

Height, who had 17 receptions for 136 yards for the Blazers, gives GSU another tall, physical receiver on the outside. Myers, smaller but explosive, had 51 catches for 836 yards and 11 touchdowns in two seasons for two-time national champion East Mississippi C.C.

The freshman class includes three receivers in Penny Hart, Ari Werts and Marquan Greene.

TIGHT ENDS

Returnees: JOEL RUIZ, Keith Rucker, Bill Teknipp, Clay Chastain

Key Losses: None

Newcomers: None

The tight end position features the Panthers' top pro prospect in 6-4, 230-pound senior Joel Ruiz. A former quarterback who transferred to Georgia State from Presbyterian, Ruiz caught 39 passes for 478 yards and three touchdowns. After being named to the All-Sun Belt second team in 2014, he enters his senior season on the John Mackey Award Preseason Watch List, and he was rated among the nation's top tight end prospects by NFL draft analyst Mel Kiper Jr.

Ruiz teams with experienced junior Keith Rucker, a 6-3, 235-pounder, to give the Panthers a very solid tandem at tight end. Also a special teams standout, Rucker has 19 career receptions and two touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Returnees: G TAYLOR EVANS, T MICHAEL IVORY, G ALEX STOEHR, G-T Jah-Mai Davidson, G Garrett Gorringer, G Akil Hawkins, G Davis Moore, T Sebastian Willer, T Steve Wolgamott

Key Losses: C TIM WYNN, T A.J. KAPLAN, C Ronald Martin

Newcomers: C Kelepi Folau (UAB transfer), T Dom Roldan (junior college transfer), G Tyler Simonsen (junior college transfer), C Gabe Mobley (redshirt freshman), T Lucas Johnson (freshman)

Georgia State welcomes back three starters plus four other letterwinners who started at least one game, and the Panthers have added to the line with transfers.

The returning starters are left tackle Michael Ivory, a 6-5, 340-pound junior who comes back from a season-ending foot injury, 6-2, 300-pound sophomore right guard Alex Stoeher, and 6-4, 305-pound senior left guard Taylor Evans, who also started at tackle following Ivory's injury.

UAB transfer Kelepi Folau, a 6-3, 305-pound senior, looks to step in as the starting center, where GSU graduated three-year starter Tim Wynn. Folau is backed up by redshirt freshman Gabe Mobley (6-2, 275).

Candidates at right tackle include sophomore Sebastian Willer (6-5, 275), junior college transfer Dom Roldan (6-6, 350) and senior Steve Wolgamott (6-6, 315).

At guard, sophomore Davis Moore (6-4, 300) and juniors Akil Hawkins (6-2, 275) and Garrett Gorringer (6-4, 295) all have starting experience and could push for playing time, along with junior college transfer Tyler Simonsen (6-4, 310).

Adding depth on the line are versatile junior Jah-Mai Davidson (6-4, 290) and freshman Lucas Johnson (6-4, 285).

DEFENSIVE LINE

Returnees: NG JALEN LAWRENCE, DE SHAWAYNE LAWRENCE, DE TEVIN DE JONES, MACKENDY CHERIDOR (moved from OLB), NG David Huey, DE Carnell Hopson, DE Will Cunningham, DE Tanner Strickland

Key Losses: None

TARRIS
BATISTE

SEASONPREVIEW

NICK ARBUCKLE

Senior returns to quarterback the Panthers' offense after leading the Sun Belt in passing yards per game.

Newcomers: NG Julien Laurent (junior college transfers), DE DeQueszman Kelley (junior college transfer), Nich Long (redshirt freshman), Marterious Allen (freshman)

Georgia State's defensive line returns all three starters--Jalen Lawrence, Shawayne Lawrence and Tevin Jones--and four other lettermen and has added Mackendy Cheridor, who moves from outside linebacker, as well as two key junior college signees. The improved depth will allow the Panthers to rotate more players and stay fresh.

At noseguard, 6-1, 280-pound junior Jalen Lawrence returns after starting every game in 2014, but he will be pushed by massive junior college addition Julien Laurent, who stands 6-4 and 315 pounds. Senior David Huey, 6-2 and 290, also returns.

Another returning starter is another Lawrence, 6-4, 270-pound junior defensive end Shawayne Lawrence, who collected 50 tackles with 3.5 tackles for loss and two pass breakups. Also at this position are promising junior college transfer Dequeszman Kelley, 6-0, 285, and junior 6-4, 270-pound Tevin

Jones, who started nine games a year ago.

Taking over at the other defensive end position is Mackendy Cheridor, a talented sophomore who moves to the line after playing the rush end position. The 6-5, 250-pounder suffered a season-ending injury in the fourth game of 2014.

Juniors Carnell Hopson, 6-2, 260, and Tanner Strickland, 6-3, 270, and 6-1, 270 pound sophomore Will Cunningham should also see action.

Freshmen Nich Long (6-5, 294), who redshirted last year, and Marterious Allen (6-2, 240) add depth.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Returnees: JOSEPH PETERSON, TREY PAYNE, Kight Dallas (injured in 2014)

Key Losses: Sean Jeppesen

Newcomers: Kaleb Ringer (junior college transfer), Niemus Bryant (redshirt freshman), Ed Curney (freshman), Chase Middleton (freshman)

The linebacker unit is led by senior and best defensive player Joseph Peterson, the Panthers' top tackler each of the last three seasons and GSU's career leader.

Peterson, a 6-0, 225-pound junior, is a two-time all-conference selection who was third in the Sun Belt with 9.7 tackles per game in 2014.

To man the inside along with Peterson, the Panthers have added 6-0, 235-pound Kaleb Ringer, a transfer from Butler (Kan.) C.C. The former Michigan signee edged returning starter Trey Payne in the spring. Payne was second on the team with 88 tackles and 6.5 tackles for loss last fall.

Promising freshmen Niemus Bryant, who redshirted last year, and Ed Curney, a true freshman, who enrolled in January, should push for playing time, and sophomore Kight Dallas returns after missing the 2014 season, and true freshman Chase Middleton is a name for the future.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Returnees: Melvin King, Malik Ricks, James Traylor, Jameel Spencer, Nate Paxton

Key Losses: JARRELL ROBINSON

Newcomers: Alonzo McGee (UAB transfer), Michael Shaw (redshirt freshman)

SEASONPREVIEW

The outside linebacker positions feature two of the Panthers' top newcomers in UAB transfer Alonzo McGee and redshirt freshman Michael Shaw.

McGee, a 6-1, 220-pound junior, is an experienced linebacker who collected 42 tackles with five tackles for loss for the Blazers last season. He will backed up by sophomore James Traylor and junior Jameel Spencer.

Shaw, 6-4, 210, steps into the rush end position formerly manned by Mackendy Cheridor, who has moved to defensive end.

Behind Shaw are seniors Melvin King, who started five games last year when Cheridor was injured, along with senior Nate Paxton and sophomore Malik Ricks.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Returnees: CB BRUCE DUKES, CB CHANDON SULLIVAN, S TARRIS BATISTE, S Bryan Williams, S Nate Simon, S Dartez Jacobs, S Trent Hill, S LaDarion Young, CB B.J. Clay, CB Antreal Allen, CB Robert Dowling

Key Losses: None

Newcomers: S Bobby Baker (UAB transfer), S Cloves Campbell (junior college transfer), CB Demarco Davis (UAB transfer), CB Jerome Smith (redshirt freshman), S Ronald Peterkin (redshirt freshman)

The top returnees in the secondary are senior cornerback Bruce Dukes and senior safety Tarris Batiste, who have both received mention on preseason all-conference teams.

Batiste is one of the veterans of the GSU defense as a two-year starter who has averaged 82 tackles the last two seasons. He ranks fourth in Panther annals with 163 tackles and third in tackles for loss with 15.

Dukes started every game at cornerback last fall, his first on the field after transferring from UCF. He was fourth on the team with 62 tackles, along with a team-leading six pass breakups.

Starting along with Dukes at corner is sophomore Chandon Sullivan, who earned a starting berth as a true freshman, starting five games at cornerback and four at safety. He finished with 43 tackles and one interception.

Another name to watch is promising redshirt freshman Jerome Smith, who had a strong spring and could challenge for a starting berth.

Also in the mix for playing time at cornerback are junior Robert Dowling and sophomores B.J. Clay and Antreal Allen as well as UAB transfer Demarco Davis, a redshirt freshman.

LETTERMEN RETURNING (49) Offense (19)

Defensive Line: Cristian Perez, Marcus Stetzer

Linebackers: JARRELL ROBINSON, Sean Jeppesen, Spencer Haywood

Cornerbacks: None

Safeties: Jamaal May

Specialists (1)

Punter: Matt Hubbard

The safety position should benefit from the return of juniors Bryan Williams and LaDarion Young, both of whom suffered season-ending injuries last fall, and the addition of UAB transfer Bobby Baker and junior college signee Cloves Campbell. Williams emerged from spring as a starter but will be challenged by Baker, who returns from injury, and Campbell. Also returning at safety are senior Nate Simon, who started seven games and made 51 tackles, senior Dartez Jacobs, who made four starts and 28 tackles, and junior Trent Hill. Redshirt freshman Ronald Peterkin also joins the mix.

SPECIALISTS

Returnees: P-PK Wil Lutz, LS Daniel Zeigler

Key Losses: P Matt Hubbard

Newcomers: P-PK Brandon Wright (freshman)

Georgia State returns an all-star candidate in placekicker Wil Lutz, who also adds punting duties.

Lutz is a three-year starter who is Georgia State's career leader in field goals (19), extra points (78) and points by kicking (135). He is 16-of-17 from 40 yards and in and 78 of 79 on extra points.

Daniel Zeigler returns as the long-snapper.

TRENT MILES

HEAD COACH

A PROVEN PROGRAM-BUILDER, Trent Miles was introduced as Georgia State's second head football coach on Dec. 3, 2012 and charged with the task of building the fledgling program as it jumped to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and the Sun Belt Conference.

Miles, a former assistant coach at Stanford, Notre Dame and Washington, demonstrated the ability to build a winning program in five seasons as the head coach at Indiana State. The remarkable rebuilding job he did there earned notice, and Georgia State President Mark P. Becker and then-Director of Athletics Cheryl L. Levick jumped at the chance to bring Miles to Atlanta following the retirement of Bill Curry, the program's head coach from its inception in 2008.

Taking over a Georgia State program that had been playing for just three seasons, Miles immediately began to lay the foundation to enable the Panthers to compete at the highest level of college football. Miles and his staff are building the program through recruiting, player development and the establishment of a winning culture, all within the framework of a strong family atmosphere.

"We are committed to building this program into one that competes for championships on the field and in the classroom," Miles said upon his hiring. "We will strive to represent our student body, alumni and the state of Georgia with character and integrity."

Despite playing at the FBS level for the first time with an undermanned roster, Miles' first Georgia State team showed progress throughout the 2013 season. Taking Miles' mantra of "Pounding the Rock" to heart, the Panthers earned respect for their hard-nosed play and competitiveness throughout a challenging season.

Under Miles' tutelage, wide receiver and return specialist Albert Wilson earned all-conference and All-America recognition with a record-setting season in 2013. Following the season, Wilson became the first Georgia State player to earn an invitation to the prestigious National Football League Scouting Combine and signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs. Miles also helped develop Ulrick John into an NFL prospect as the offensive tackle was drafted in the seventh round by the Indianapolis Colts, becoming the second draft pick in Georgia State's brief history.

The building process continued in Miles' second year in 2014, which opened with a dramatic, come-from-behind victory over Abilene Christian. Despite a depleted roster, Georgia State featured one of the top passing offenses in the Sun Belt Conference and the nation, and seven Panthers earned all-conference honors.

Georgia State suffered three Sun Belt losses by just three points, and in each one, the Panthers rallied to take the lead in the fourth quarter before falling. Two of these close losses were to bowl teams UL Lafayette and South Alabama. GSU also showed positive signs in its two games at Power 5 conference teams as the Panthers led Washington 14-0 at the half and held Clemson scoreless in the second half.

HEADCOACH

In his first two seasons, Miles' program has produced one All-American, 10 all-conference performers and two NFL players.

Miles' emphasis on the total development of his student-athletes is also in evidence as the Panthers enjoyed their best semester in the classroom in the spring of 2015 with a 2.91 grade-point average, including 52 student-athletes with a 3.0 or higher. In 2013, his Panthers earned the Sun Belt Conference's team academic award as the football program with highest grade point average in the league.

Miles' first head-coaching job was at his alma mater, Indiana State, where he took over a struggling program that had won just one game in the three seasons before his arrival in 2008. But it took just three years for him to produce a winning season, the first of three straight winning campaigns for Miles in Terre Haute.

After leading his 2010 Sycamores to a 6-5 mark for the school's first winning record since 1996, Miles was recognized as Missouri Valley Football Conference Coach of the Year. He was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year honor.

Miles guided ISU to another winning season in 2011 and then a 7-4 record in 2012, including a 5-3 mark in the MVFC. No Sycamore team had won more games since the 1984 squad on which Miles played, and the school's run of three straight winning seasons under Miles was the longest in Terre Haute since ISU had six straight from 1964-69.

Following the 2012 season, Miles was honored as the American Football Coaches Association Region Four Coach of the Year, earning that distinction for the second time in three seasons.

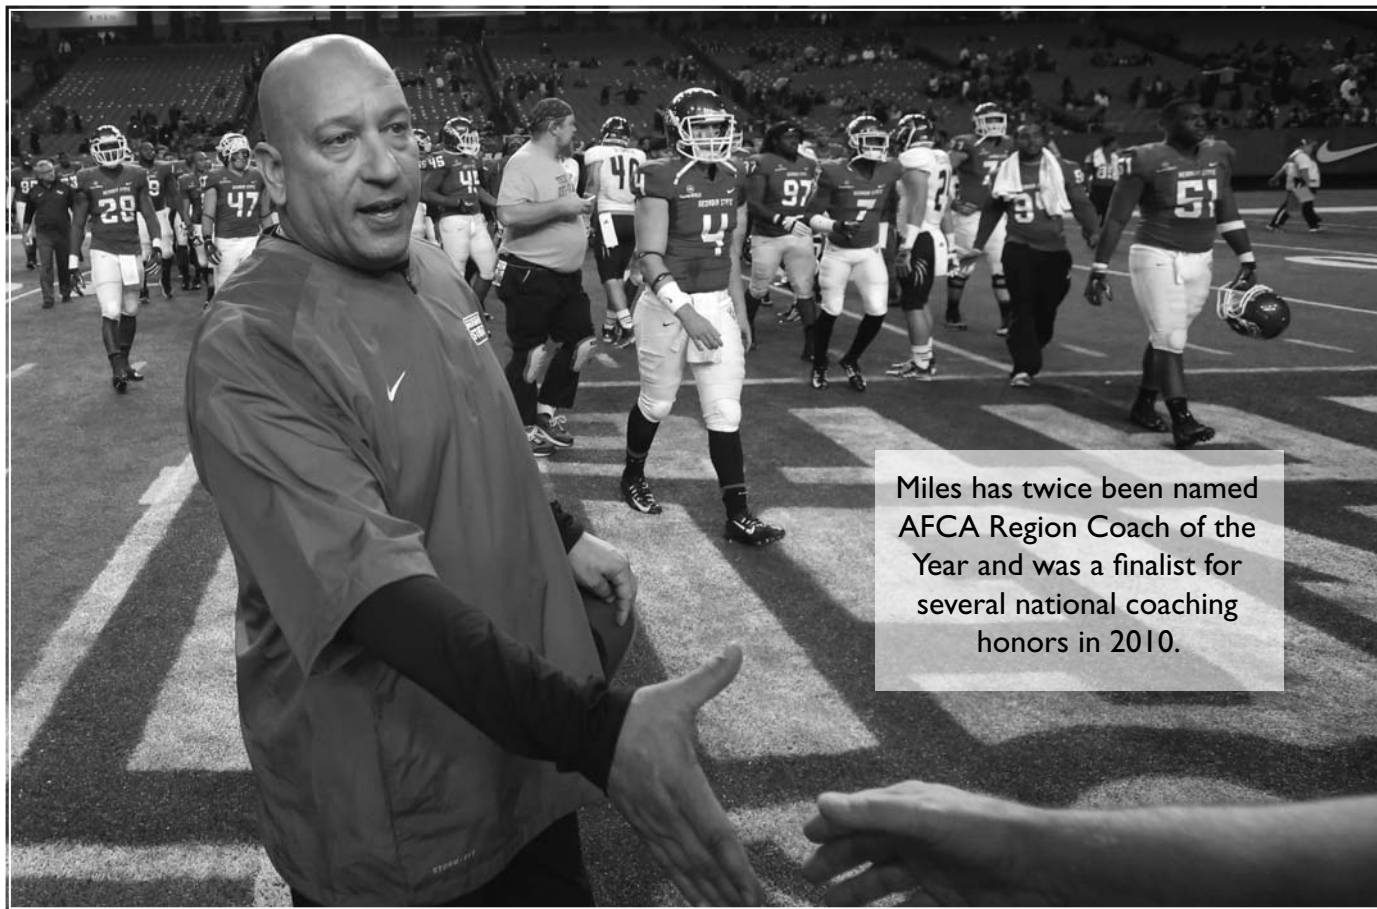

Under Miles' direction, ISU rose as high as No. 14 in the national polls and up to No. 5 in the GridIron Power Index in 2012. The No. 14 national ranking in The Sports Network Top 25 was the Sycamores' highest since joining the MVFC in 1987 as well as the highest in the Trent Miles era.

The highlight of the 2012 season was the Sycamores' 17-14 road victory at No. 1-ranked North Dakota State, the defending FCS champion.

In his last two seasons at Indiana State, Miles coached one of the top players in the FCS ranks in running back Shakir Bell. A first-team All-American as a sophomore in 2011, Bell led the nation in rushing with 151.8 yards per game and tied for second in voting for the Walter Payton Award as the top player in the FCS. Bell was one of two first-team All-Americans who Miles coached in 2011 as defensive end Ben Obaseki was also named to the Associated Press first team. They were the first two AP first-team All-Americans in school history.

In 2012, Bell ranked sixth nationally in rushing (134.1 ypg) and again earned All-America accolades from AP (third team) and The Sports Network (second team). Cornerback Johnny Towalid was also recognized as an All-American by AP (second team) and The Sports Network (third team).

Miles has twice been named AFCA Region Coach of the Year and was a finalist for several national coaching honors in 2010.

Indiana State led the MVFC in the number of all-conference selections in both 2011 (13) and 2012 (14).

Miles achieved success in 2010 with a prolific offense that ranked in the top 15 nationally in scoring with 31.2 points per game, while his 2012 squad was built on a defense that finished third in the nation in points allowed (14.3 pg) and fifth in total defense (296.4 ypg).

Among the many notable accomplishments by Indiana State under Miles in his last three seasons was the Sycamores' 44-16 victory over Western Kentucky in 2011, the program's first win over an FBS opponent since 2001. That 2011 Sycamore squad spent eight weeks in the national FCS polls, climbing to No. 16 in the nation.

Throughout his career, Miles has coached on both sides of the ball and possesses more than 20 years of college coaching experience as well as one year as a National Football League assistant with the Green Bay Packers. As an offensive assistant for the Packers in 2000, Miles worked with wide receivers and quality control. He coached NFL All-Pro receiver Antonio Freeman.

In the seven years following at Stanford (wide receivers, 2001), Notre Dame (wide receivers, 2002-04) and Washington (running backs, 2005-07), Miles also coached and developed many talented skill players. Among his pupils were: Stanford's Teyo Johnson, a second-round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders in 2003; Notre Dame's Maurice Stovall and Arnaz Battle, both of whom went on to the NFL; Jeff Samardzija, an All-America wide receiver at Notre Dame who is now a Major League Baseball pitcher; and Louis Rankin, a 1,000-yard rusher at Washington.

Miles began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana State (1987),

New Mexico (1988-89) and Oklahoma (1990). While at New Mexico, one of his mentors was Marvin Lewis, now the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals.

Miles moved to an assistant coaching position at Northern Illinois for four seasons, working with receivers (1991-93) and then defensive backs (1994). Miles then headed west for a two-year stint at Hawaii, where he coached wide receivers (1995) and defensive backs (1996).

As wide receivers coach at Fresno State from 1997-99, Miles helped the Bulldogs to a share of the 1999 Mountain West Conference title and a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl. He also recruited and coached future NFL standout Bernard Berrian.

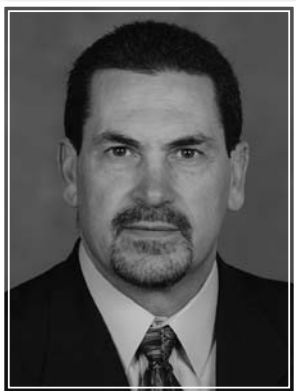

Miles, 51, is a native of Terre Haute, Ind., and a 1987 graduate of Indiana State with a degree in criminology. He was a wide receiver for the Sycamores from 1982-86, playing on the 1983 and 1984 squads that each won nine games and advanced to the FCS playoffs. The 1984 Sycamores were ranked No. 1 in the nation for much of the season, and that team was inducted into the Indiana State University Hall of Fame in 2002.

He is married to the former Bridget Hogan, and the couple has three daughters, Kaylee, Anna, and Charlie Elizabeth, and one son, Noah Michael.

COACHINGSTAFF

HAROLD ETHERIDGE

Assistant Head Coach / Offensive Line
Third Year at GSU

Harold Etheridge, a veteran coach with more than two decades of experience, is in his third season at Georgia State after joining Trent Miles' coaching staff in 2013 as the offensive line coach and assistant head coach.

Etheridge previously worked with Miles for three seasons at Indiana State (2010-12), helping the Sycamores post three consecutive winning seasons for the first time since the 1960s.

In his first season at Georgia State, Etheridge helped develop offensive tackle Ulrick John into a National Football League prospect. John was selected in the seventh round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. In 2014, Etheridge's offensive line blocked for the Sun Belt Conference's leading passer, and center Tim Wynn earned all-conference honors.

At Indiana State, Etheridge served as Miles' offensive coordinator the last two years at Indiana State and his offensive line coach for three seasons.

In two years as the Sycamores' offensive coordinator, Etheridge produced one of the nation's top rushers in running back Shakir Bell. A first-team All-American as a sophomore in 2011, Bell led the nation in rushing with 151.8 yards per game and tied for second in voting for the Walter Payton Award as the top player in the FCS. In 2012, Bell ranked sixth nationally in rushing (134.1 ypg) while earning second-team All-America honors.

Between the 2010 and 2012 seasons, Indiana State had 17 offensive players earn all-conference recognition, including five offensive linemen.

Etheridge joined Miles' ISU staff in 2010 and made an immediate impact in the program's remarkable turnaround. The offensive line blocked for a unit that ranked 14th in the nation in scoring with 31.2 points per game for a school-record 351 points and 17th in total offense at 411.8 yards per game, helping the Sycamores post a 6-5 record for their first winning season since 1996.

Before going to ISU, Etheridge spent the previous two years coaching the offensive line at Washington State (2008-09) and one year in the same role at Northern Illinois (2007).

During a three-year stint as the offensive line coach at North Texas (2004-06), Etheridge produced a line that blocked for the nation's leading rusher in 2004 in Jamario Thomas, who ran for 180.1 yards per game. The Mean Green won the Sun Belt Conference title and earned a berth in the New Orleans Bowl.

Etheridge began his coaching career in the high school ranks, first at Gallup (N.M.) High School (1983-86) and then Ballard (Ky.) High School (1987-88).

From there, he moved to a collegiate position at Kentucky, serving as a graduate assistant working with offensive tackles in 1989-90. He worked under GSU's first head coach Bill Curry in his second season at UK.

Etheridge then spent the next nine seasons as the offensive line coach at Illinois State, helping the Redbirds earn a spot in the NCAA FCS playoffs in 1998 before winning the Gateway Conference title and reaching the FCS semifinal game in 1999.

In 2000, he moved with head coach Todd Berry to Army and coached the Black Knights' offensive line for four seasons.

A native of Gallup, N.M., Etheridge was a four-year starting offensive guard for Western New Mexico (1979-82). He earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from the school in 1982.

Etheridge, who in 2001 published a book entitled "Coaching the Front Liners," and his wife, Jeanne, are the parents of twins, Clayton and Eliza.

COACHINGSTAFF

JEFF JAGODZINSKI

Offensive CoordinatorThird Year at GSU

Jeff Jagodzinski, a long-time National Football League assistant coach and a successful collegiate head coach, is the offensive coordinator on Trent Miles' Georgia State staff.

Before joining the GSU staff in 2013, Jagodzinski previously worked with Miles on the Green Bay Packers' staff in 2000.

Jagodzinski made an immediate impact at Georgia State, where his offense produced a record-setting season for wide receiver Albert Wilson. Wilson earned all-conference and All-America recognition, was invited to the National Football League Scouting Combine and signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs. Another offensive starter, tackle Ulrick John, was drafted in the seventh round by the Indianapolis Colts.

In 2014, Jagodzinski's offense ranked No. 25 in the nation in passing offense behind first-year quarterback Nick Arbuckle, who earned all-conference honors along with receivers Donovan Harden, Robert Davis and LynQuez Blair and tight end Joel Ruiz.

In his first two years at GSU, Jagodzinski's offense has produced one All-American, eight all-conference honorees and two NFL players.

Jagodzinski is well-acquainted with the city of Atlanta, having served as the Atlanta Falcons' tight ends coach in 2004 and then offensive line coach in 2005. He is also familiar to Atlanta fans as the college head coach of Falcons' quarterback Matt Ryan.

Jagodzinski enjoyed two highly successful seasons as the head coach at Boston College, posting a 20-8 record and capturing back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference Atlantic Division crowns. In 2007, with Ryan at quarterback, Jagodzinski led the Eagles to an 11-3 record—BC's highest win total since 1940—a berth in the ACC Championship game and a bowlgame victory over Michigan State.

In addition to the exploits of ACC Player of the Year Ryan on offense, Jagodzinski's first BC squad also featured a strong defense that was No. 2 in the nation against the run. Safety Jamie Silva was a first-team All-America selection.

Even after Ryan became the No. 2 pick in the 2008 NFL draft following, Jagodzinski kept BC winning in 2008 with a 9-5 record and another trip to the ACC title game.

Along with Ryan, Jagodzinski coached three other future first-round draft picks at Boston College in nose tackle B.J. Raji (2009, Green Bay) and offensive linemen Gosder Cherilus (2008, Detroit) and Anthony Castonzo (2011, Indianapolis).

Jagodzinski began his coaching career in 1985 as the running backs coach at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Whitewater. In 1986, he served as the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois before spending two years (1987-88) as a graduate assistant at LSU.

In 1989, Jagodzinski began an eight-year stint as the offensive line coach at East Carolina (1989-96), highlighted by the 1991 season, when the Pirates posted an 11-1 record. That ECU team featured future NFL quarterback Jeff Blake.

He then spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Boston College (1997-98) on Tom O'Brien's staff. At BC, Jagodzinski's offenses averaged more than 400 yards per game in each of his two seasons, featuring future Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Hasselbeck in 1997 and All-American running back Mike Cloud in 1998, who ranked third in the nation in rushing.

Jagodzinski began his NFL career in 1999, joining the Green Bay Packers as tight ends coach from 1999-2003. It was there that he worked with Miles in 2000.

He then moved to the Atlanta Falcons, where he served as tight ends in coach in 2004, helping Atlanta reach the NFC Championship game, and then offensive line coach in 2005. During that time, the Falcons featured one of the NFL's most successful rushing offenses, leading the league in both rushing yards per game and rushing yards per carry those two years. In 2005, Jagodzinski's line blocked for Pro Bowl running back Warrick Dunn, who gained over 1,400 yards.

Jagodzinski returned to the Packers as offensive coordinator for one season (2006) before taking over as head coach at Boston College. Under his direction, Green Bay ranked among the top 10 in the NFL in total offense.

In college and the NFL, Jagodzinski has been part of offensive staffs that worked with future Pro Bowl quarterbacks Brett Favre, Michael Vick, Aaron Rogers and Matt Ryan.

He served as the head coach of the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL in 2010, and in 2012, he worked as a volunteer assistant coach at Ave Maria University in Florida.

Jagodzinski was a three-year starter and four-year player (1981-84) at fullback at Wisconsin-Whitewater. He earned a B.S. degree in education at UW-Whitewater in 1985.

Jagodzinski and his wife, Lisa, have five children: Josh, JoAnne, Jessica, Jacqueline and Jennifer.

COACHINGSTAFF

JESSE MINTER

Defensive Coordinator

Third Year at GSU

Jesse Minter, formerly the defensive coordinator under Trent Miles at Indiana State, followed Miles to Georgia State in 2013 to be the Panthers' defensive coordinator.

In his first season with the Panthers, Minter worked with a young GSU defense that relied upon numerous true freshmen. The defense produced All-Sun Belt Conference linebacker Joseph Peterson, who collected more than 100 tackles.

In 2012 in his final season at Indiana State, Minter constructed a defensive unit that ranked third in the FCS in scoring defense, allowing just 14.3 points per game, and sixth nationally in total defense at 296.4 yards per game. The Sycamores also ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency defense, 14th in passing yards allowed and 28th in rushing yards allowed.

One of the highlights of the 2012 season was Indiana State's 17-14 road victory at No. 1-ranked and defending FCS champion North Dakota State. In that game, cornerback Johnny Towalid scored 14 points for ISU by returning a pair of interceptions for touchdowns.

Over the 2011-12 seasons, 13 Indiana State defensive standouts earned All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors.

Minter originally joined Miles' defensive staff at Indiana State in 2009 before being elevated to the coordinator position for the 2011 season. He was a key component in the Sycamores' remarkable turnaround under Miles that saw ISU post a winning season in 2010 for the first time since 1996. The program added winning campaigns in 2011 and 2012 to give ISU three consecutive winning seasons for the first time since the 1960s.

Minter went to Indiana State following two years as a graduate assistant at Cincinnati, where he served on Brian Kelly's staff, working with the defensive staff and assisting in coaching the linebackers. The Bearcats won the Big East Conference title in 2008 and earned a BCS berth in the Orange Bowl. The Cincinnati defense led the nation in takeaways in 2007.

Minter spent the 2006 season as a football intern at Notre Dame, when the Irish posted a 10-3 record.

He played college football at the College of Mount St. Joseph (Ohio), which compiled a school-record 30-10 mark during his four years, including back-to-back conference titles and Division III playoff appearances.

A native of Yorktown, Ind., Minter is married to the former Rachel Wittich. His father is former Cincinnati head football coach Rick Minter.

COACHINGSTAFF

LUKE HUARD

QuarterbacksThird Year at GSU

Entering his third season on Trent Miles' Georgia State staff, quarterbacks coach Luke Huard has been a key component in the Panthers' productive passing attack.

Under Huard's guidance in 2014, first-year quarterback Nick Arbuckle ranked No. 15 in the nation in passing yards while breaking nearly every Georgia State passing record. Arbuckle led the Sun Belt Conference with 3,283 yards passing while throwing 23 touchdown passes.

In Huard's first season with the Panthers in 2013, quarterback Ronnie Bell set then-GSU records with more than 2,500 yards of passing and total offense.

Before coming to GSU in 2013, Huard spent the previous four seasons at Illinois State, including one year (2009) as quarterbacks coach before he was elevated to offensive coordinator for his last three seasons (2010-12) there.

In 2012, Huard's unit led the Missouri Valley Football Conference in passing and total offense as the Redbirds averaged better than 30 points a game while compiling a 9-4 record and advancing to the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs.

In his four years at ISU, Huard developed quarterback Matt Brown, who was the MVFC Newcomer of the Year in 2009, a three-time all-conference honoree and the MVFC Offensive Player of the Year in 2012.

Huard previously worked with Miles at Washington, where he served as a graduate assistant in 2007-08.

While at Washington, Huard worked with the Huskies' quarterbacks, including current Tennessee Titans' signal caller Jake Locker, who was the Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year in 2007.

Huard began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Tacoma's Washington High School following graduation from North Carolina in 2002. He then spent four seasons as the head coach at Interlake High School (Wash.), where he led the program to its first winning season in 10 years in 2004.

In 2004, he also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Eastside Hawks, a semi-professional football team that went 10-0 and won the Northwest Football League title.

Huard was a three-year member of the North Carolina football team. As a quarterback, he played in seven games for the Tar Heels, including four starts, as a freshman in 1999.

As a high school quarterback at Puyallup (Wash.) High School, Huard was Washington's Gatorade Player of the Year and an honorable-mention All-America selection as a senior.

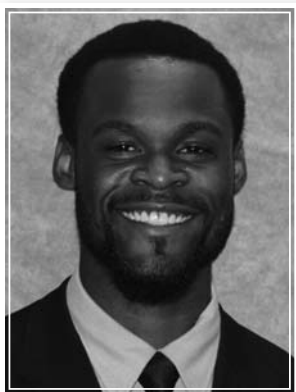

Huard comes from a football family. Both of his older brothers, Brock and Damon, were standout quarterbacks at Washington and went on to play professionally in the NFL. Huard's father, Mike, coached all three sons at Puyallup High School, where he also coached future NFL quarterback Billy Joe Hobert.

Huard is married to the former Dolly Tan, and the couple has one daughter, Serena Grace, 1.

COACHINGSTAFF

LARRY KNIGHT

Outside Linebackers

First Year at GSU

Larry Knight, formerly a defensive quality control assistant at Tennessee, joined the Georgia State staff as outside linebackers coach for the 2015 season.

Knight spent the last two years on Butch Jones' staff at Tennessee, working directly with associate head coach/defensive line coach Steve Stripling and linebackers coach Tommy Thigpen. In 2014, the Volunteers' defensive line featured All-Southeastern Conference selections Derek Barnett and Curt Maggitt, who combined for 21 sacks, third-most by any duo in the nation.

Knight also served one season as a graduate assistant for Jones at Cincinnati in 2012, helping the Bearcats to the BIG EAST title and a victory in the Belk Bowl.

Knight was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive end under Jones at Central Michigan, including all-conference honors as a senior. He participated in four bowl games and helped CMU win three Mid-American Conference championships.

A native of Augusta, Ga., Knight earned his degree from Central Michigan in 2010.

COACHINGSTAFF

TIM LAPPANO

ReceiversSecond Year at GSU

Tim Lappano, who possesses more than 30 years of coaching experience in major college programs and the National Football League, was named Georgia State's receivers coach in March 2014.

Lappano joined head coach Trent Miles' staff after five seasons with the NFL's Detroit Lions, where he coached All-Pro wide receiver Calvin Johnson in 2013. He coached the Lions' tight ends the previous four years and worked with Brandon Pettigrew, who had more than 70 receptions in back-to-back seasons.

Lappano made an immediate impact at Georgia State, tutoring the Panthers' most productive position as junior Donovan Harden, sophomore Robert Davis and senior LynQuez Blair earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors in 2014.

Lappano coached with Miles for three seasons at Washington, where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2005-08. Miles was on that offensive staff as running backs coach from 2005-07 before taking the head coaching job at Indiana State.

While at Washington, Lappano recruited and mentored future NFL first-round draft pick Jake Locker.

In addition to his most recent stint with the Lions, Lappano has NFL experience with the San Francisco 49ers, where he served as running backs coach from 2003-04, and the Seattle Seahawks, where he coached running backs in 1998.

Lappano spent 16 years with college programs in major conferences, mostly in the Pacific-10 (now Pacific-12) Conference. He served as offensive coordinator at Oregon State from 1999-2002, as assistant head coach and running backs coach at California from 1992-95, and as assistant coach at Washington State from 1987-92, including the final two years as offensive coordinator. He also spent one year (1997) as the co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Purdue, where he helped recruit and coach All-Pro quarterback Drew Brees.

He began his coaching career as the running backs coach at Idaho, his alma mater, from 1982-85, and he spent two seasons at Wyoming in separate stints, coaching running backs in 1986 and wide receivers in 1996.

Lappano, 58, earned his bachelor's degree from Idaho in 1983. He played for head coach Dennis Erickson, under whom he later coached at Idaho, Washington State and Oregon State as well as in the NFL with Seattle and San Francisco.

Lappano and his wife, Sandi, have two children, Taylor and Kyle.

COACHINGSTAFF

ERIC LEWIS

SecondaryFirst Year at GSU

Eric Lewis, a former defensive coordinator at two schools who also has National Football League experience, joined the Georgia State football staff as secondary coach for the 2015 season.

Lewis comes to Georgia State after one season as the secondary coach at Buffalo.

He spent the last two years (2012-13) at Weber State, where he served as defensive coordinator in 2013 and coached the defensive backs.

Lewis also served as the defensive coordinator at Eastern Michigan in 2009, when the Eagles led the nation in pass defense.

He spent the 2008 season as an assistant coach at Louisville, where he coached the cornerbacks.

That followed a two-year stint as a defensive quality coach for the Green Bay Packers of the NFL, where he assisted cornerbacks coach Lionel Washington and secondary coach Kurt Schottenheimer.

Lewis also spent three seasons (2003-05) as safeties coach at Ball State.

He began his coaching career at St. Augustine High School in San Diego where he was the wide receivers coach. He moved to Michigan State as a defensive graduate assistant coach, primarily assisting with the defensive backs, and then to one season at Bucknell.

A native of East Lansing, Mich., Lewis played football at San Diego State, where he where he was a four-year starter who finished his career as the Aztecs' all-time leader in career pass breakups. He graduated with a degree in finance and business administration.

Lewis, the son of long-time NFL coach Sherman Lewis. He has two children, Taylor and Harper.

COACHINGSTAFF

TONY SAMUEL

Defensive Line

First Year at GSU

Tony Samuel, the former head coach at New Mexico State and Southeast Missouri State, joined the Georgia State program in 2015 as defensive line coach.

Samuel brings a total of 16 years of collegiate head coaching experience, including eight years at the FBS level with New Mexico State (1997-2004) and eight years with FCS program Southeast Missouri State (2006-13).

In 2010, Samuel guided Southeast Missouri State to its best season as a Division I program with a 9-3 record and the first NCAA playoff berth in the school's 107-year history. Samuel won the Sports Network Eddie Robinson, Fritz Pollard, Roy Kidd Ohio Valley Conference and American Football Coaches Association Region 3 Coach-of-the-Year Awards as he orchestrated a remarkable turnaround from a 2-9 mark in 2009. The Redhawks were ranked in the Top 25 for the last nine weeks of the season, climbing as high as No. 8.

Southeast flipped a 2-9 record from 2009 to a 9-3 mark in 2010 after being picked to finish eighth in the OVC Preseason Poll. The Redhawks also finished 7-1 in OVC play en route to their first-ever conference title and NCAA playoff appearance in the 107-year history of their football program.

The highlight of Samuel's tenure at New Mexico State was a 7-5 mark in 2002 for the Aggies best record in more than three decades.

Samuel earned his first head coaching opportunity after an 11-year stint coaching the outside linebackers and rush ends at Nebraska, his alma mater, under legendary head coach Tom Osborne.

During Samuel's 11 seasons at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers won back-to-back national titles in 1994 and 1995, captured seven Big Eight/Big 12 Conference championships, averaged 10 wins per year and played in 11 bowl games.

He mentored six first team All-Americans and 12 future National Football League players, including first-round draft picks Broderick Thomas (1989), Mike Croel (1991), Trev Alberts (1994) and Grant Wistrom (1998).

He began his coaching career by spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Western Michigan (1982-83) and then two years at Stanford (1984-85), tutoring the defensive line at both schools. He also served one year (2005) at defensive ends coach at Purdue.

Samuel played four years at Nebraska and was a member of Osborne's first recruiting class. He was a two-year starter at defensive end, played in four bowl games and earned honorable mention All-Big Eight Conference honors as a senior.

He earned his B.S. degree in education from Nebraska in 1981.

A native of Trinidad, West Indies, Samuel moved to New Jersey at the age of 10. He and his wife, Diane, have four children and two grandchildren.

COACHINGSTAFF

P.J. VOLKER*Linebackers / Recruiting Coordinator*Third Year at GSU

PJ. Volker joined head coach Trent Miles' Georgia State football staff in 2013 as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator after serving in the same capacity under Miles at Indiana State.

In his first two seasons at Georgia State, Volker has coached standout linebacker Joseph Peterson, a two-time all-conference selection and the Panthers' record-holder for season and career tackles.

Volker spent three years (2010-12) with Miles as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for the Sycamores, helping Indiana State post three straight winning seasons.

In 2012, he helped coach a defensive unit that ranked third in the FCS in scoring defense, allowing just 14.3 points per game, and sixth nationally in total defense at 296.4 yards per game. One of the highlights for ISU's defense in 2012 was an outstanding performance in the Sycamores' stunning 17-14 upset at No. 1-ranked North Dakota State, in which the defense accounted for 14 points.

Over Volker's three seasons, seven Indiana State linebackers were named to the all-conference team, including three-time selection Aaron Archie, who made over 100 tackles in both 2011 and 2012.

Volker originally joined Miles' defensive staff at Indiana State in 2010 and took part in bringing about the program's dramatic turnaround. In his first year, the Sycamores posted a breakout season with a 6-5 record in 2010, their first winning season since 1996.

Volker went to ISU in 2010 from Thomas More College, a Division III program in Kentucky where he coached the linebackers and served as the program's recruiting coordinator. He began his coaching career as the running backs coach at Thiel College.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Volker was a three-year letterwinner and two-time all-conference selection at the College of Mount St. Joseph (Ohio). He was recently honored with the school's Future Five Award, which honors alumni who have graduated within the last 20 years who have excelled in their professions and provided service to their communities.

He is married to the former Amanda Naseef, and the couple's first child, daughter Rosalee Marie, was born in 2015.

HOLSOPPLEHead Strength
Coach

First Year at GSU

Scott Holsopple is in his first year as Georgia State's head strength coach, joining the program in 2015 after three years as the director of football strength and conditioning at Kansas.

Before going to Kansas, Holsopple spent five years at Florida, where he worked as the top assistant with the Gator football program. At Florida, Holsopple worked under the highly-regarded Mickey Marotti, who is now the assistant athletic director for football sports performance for national champion Ohio State.

During Holsopple's time at Florida, the Gators won the 2008 BCS National Championship while compiling a 50-17 record in his five years. Florida appeared in five straight bowl games with two BCS bowl appearances, and Holsopple helped mentor 18 athletes who went on to be drafted into the NFL, including six first-round draft picks.

Holsopple spent the 2006-07 season working with the men's basketball program at Kentucky.

That followed a six-year stint at Marquette, where he began working with the men's basketball program in the fall of 2000 before he was elevated to head strength and conditioning coach for his final five years. In that position, Holsopple was responsible all 14 of the Golden Eagles' Division I athletic programs.

He worked with Dwayne Wade as the future NBA star led Marquette to the 2003 NCAA Final Four.

Before going to Marquette, Holsopple served as a strength and conditioning assistant at Penn State, his alma mater, where he helped develop and implement a comprehensive, year-round strength, conditioning and agility program for the school's 28 athletic teams.

Holsopple began his career in the field as an intern at Notre Dame under Marotti. He also served the strength and conditioning coordinator at Ken Chertow's Olympian Wrestling Camp.

A native of Happy Valley, Pa., Holsopple earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Penn State in 2000. He earned All-America recognition as a boxer at Penn State.

DUSTY BENNETTDirector of Football Operations

First Year at GSU

Dusty Bennett, a Georgia State graduate and former student-athlete, was named Director of Football Operations in June 2015. Bennett returned to Georgia State after serving as Upper School academic resource specialist, assistant athletic director and head varsity baseball coach at Mount Vernon Presbyterian School in Atlanta in 2014-15.

In 2013-14, he worked at the International Center for Sport Management while he began work on his Ph.D. in Sport Management at the University of Georgia.

Bennett previously was a member of the Georgia State athletics staff from 2009-13 as an academic advisor, working primarily with the football and golf programs. He also served as a graduate assistant in the athletic department in 2008-09, coordinating life skills programs.

Bennett was a four-year member of the Panther baseball team from 2005-08. After receiving his bachelor's degree in art history from Georgia State in May 2008, he went on to complete his master's in sport administration in 2009.

A native of Tyrone, Ga., Bennett played football and baseball at Sandy Creek High School. He and his wife, Reanna, have two sons, Dustin, 5, and Carson, 2.

BOB
MURPHYAssociate Director of Athletics - Sports Medicine &
Nutrition

Ninth Year at GSU

Bob Murphy, associate director of athletics for sports medicine and nutrition, is entering his ninth year at Georgia State.

In addition to serving as the head athletic trainer for football, he oversees all aspects of the sports medicine and nutrition departments.

He originally came to Georgia State in 2007 as head athletic trainer and was elevated to assistant athletic director in 2008 and then to associate athletic director in 2011. He previously worked directly with the men's and women's basketball programs.

Murphy joined the GSU staff from the United States Military Academy in West Point, N.Y., where he served as assistant athletic trainer, working with the football, men's basketball and baseball teams.

He serves as secretary and treasurer for the College Athletic Trainers' Society.

Murphy earned his bachelor of science degree in sports medicine at Marietta College in 1998, and then he completed his master of science degree in exercise science at Syracuse in 2000.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Murphy is married to the former Josephine Lee, and the couple has two sons, Benjamin and Jason.

2014REVIEW

ABILENE CHRISTIAN
GEORGIA STATE
37
38
Game 1: Aug. 27, 2014 • 7 p.m. (ESPNU)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Playing the first FBS game of the year, Georgia State roared back with 17 fourth-quarter points including Wil Lutz's game-winning 26-yard field goal with 4 seconds remaining for a 38-37 win over Abilene Christian at the Georgia Dome.

In his first game for Georgia State, quarterback Nick Arbuckle led the come-from-behind victory as he threw for 413 yards -- just one shy of the school record--on 31 of 47 passing with four touchdowns, which tied the GSU mark.

The Panthers' winning drive began at their own 19 with 2:41 on the clock and included a 56-yard scoring pass to Donovan Harden that was called back on a holding penalty. Arbuckle made the miscue a distant memory as he continued to push the Panthers down the field, twice converting on fourth down to keep the drive alive. On 4th-and-5 at the GSU 24, Arbuckle found Ruiz for 12 yards, and on 4th-and-19 at the GSU 27, he hit Blair for 24 yards out to midfield.

Arbuckle rushed 13 yards to the ACU 26 and then 17 yards to nine to set up the winning field goal.

Arbuckle tossed touchdowns to Joel Ruiz (34 yards and 9 yards), Avery Sweeting (41 yards) and LynQuez Blair (27 yards) while finishing one yard shy of tying the school record for passing yards.

In the fourth quarter, Arbuckle led GSU on scoring drives of 44 yards, 77 yards and the final drive of 72 yards, 30 yards of which he covered on the ground in the final 30 seconds.

Before Arbuckle helped GSU to 189 total yards in the fourth quarter, the Panthers had stalled, being outgained 132-75 in the third, including just five yards on the ground. During that stretch, Georgia State struggled without starting running back Krysten Hammon in the lineup after he suffered an injury early in the second period. Hammon, a true freshman, rushed for 60 yards on 10 carries in the opening half and finished with 74 yards on 13 attempts.

Hammon's return early in the fourth period along with linebacker Joseph Peterson's first career interception gave the Panthers life. Senior Lynquez Blair pulled GSU back within 30-28 with his first career touchdown reception as he caught a quick out and curled the first-down attempt up the middle for a 27-yard score.

Georgia State got its second score of the fourth quarter when Arbuckle hit Ruiz with a 9-yarder to cap a 77-yard drive and pull the Panthers within 37-35 with 4:31 to play. That was GSU's third scoring drive of at least 70 yards on the night.

Abilene Christian started the season's scoring with a 25-yard field to open the game and ended the first half with a 60-yard Cedric Gilbert catch and run for a score. The field goal was forced after GSU held on third down inside the 10-yard line, which was a common theme early on.

Georgia State got on the board for the first time this season with a five-play, 58-yard drive that took only 1:34 off the clock and ended with a 34-yard pass from Arbuckle to Ruiz.

The Panther defense played well in the first half, especially on third downs. On the crucial down, GSU limited ACU to just three conversions on eight attempts. The Panthers were 6 of 7 on third downs in the opening frame.

Georgia State led at halftime for the fourth time in five season-opening games, including the second straight year.

With 12:00 to play in the second quarter, Georgia State fullback Jonathan Lytle scored on a 2-yard run to give the Panthers a 14-3 advantage. A Wildcat pass interference penalty kept the drive alive and then Ruiz came to life again, exciting the crowd with a nifty leaping catch for 19 yards to the ACU 2.

GSU ended the half with a 302 to 243 advantage in yards, and had converted six of its seven third-down attempts. On the game, the Panthers combined for a school-record 566 total yards, including 153 on the ground. Hammon finished with 74 yards while Kyler Neal added 46.

Peterson led the way on defense with 11 tackles, a QB hurry and the interception while Bruce Dukes had eight tackles and a pass breakup.

Parker McKenzie led Abilene Christian with 403 passing yards by hitting 30 of 40 attempts with four touchdowns. Demarcus Thompson reeled in 156 receiving yards.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

- Senior linebacker Jarrell Robinson had the best game of his career with four tackles for loss, including two sacks to tie the school record. He also broke up a pass.
- Senior LynQuez Blair recorded career bests with eight catches for 118 yards.
- Junior tight end Joel Ruiz, also playing his first game for Georgia State, had career highs with seven catches for 111 yards and two touchdowns.
- Sophomore Robert Davis added eight receptions, his career high, for 90 yards.
- Georgia State played 15 true freshmen during the 2013 season. This year it started with seven in the opening game including: G Alex Stoeher (in starting lineup), RB Krysten Hammon (in starting lineup), CB Chandon Sullivan, CB B.J. Clay, WR Glenn Smith, WR Todd Boyd and CB Antreal Allen.
- Nick Arbuckle, a junior college transfer, became the fifth different opening day starter at quarterback in five years for the Panthers after coming out of the huddle on the opening drive of the season.
- Arbuckle was a team captain before the game started and was joined for the coin toss by linebackers Joseph Peterson and Jarrell Robinson.

GEORGIA STATE	31

Game 2: Sept. 6, 2014 • 2 p.m. (ESPN3)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Tyler Rogers' 11-yard touchdown pass to Teldrick Morgan with 15 seconds to play capped a wild comeback as New Mexico State rallied for a 34-31 victory against Georgia State.

In the Panthers' second straight game that was decided in the final seconds, Georgia State fell to 1-1 on the year and 0-1 in Sun Belt play despite leading 24-10 early in the third quarter.

Rogers passed for 241 yards, including hitting Morgan with the winning strike as NMSU (2-0, 1-0 SBC) ended the game trailing just 456-435 in total offense after the late surge. Rogers also finished with three passing TDs including hitting Morgan for a 36-yarder in the third quarter and Joseph Matthews with a 5-yarder midway through the fourth.

The Aggies were under pressure in the final minutes as GSU took the lead with just 2:30 to play. Quarterback Nick Arbuckle scored on a 1-yard keeper to push Georgia State back in front 31-27.

New Mexico State methodically came back, moving down the field 83 yards in 12 plays to collect the winning score. The Aggies capitalized all day as they also took advantage of Panther turnovers. GSU lost two fumbles at key times and had an interception late in the first half, two of them that turned into NMSU points. The second fumble led to an Aggie 30-yard field goal to get within four points, and the interception late in the first half was returned 40 yards for a score to cut the Panthers' halftime lead to just seven.

Early on, it was all Georgia State as the Panthers raced to a 17-0 lead behind Arbuckle and running back Krysten Hammon. Arbuckle made big plays down the field early, hitting Donovan Harden for a 68-yard scoring pass to get GSU on the board and added a 51-yarder to Robert Davis for his first two completions. He finished hitting 21 of 37 pass attempts for 294 yards with a touchdown.

Hammon was a workhorse in his first full collegiate game, after showing glimpses early last week before being sidelined part of the second half with an injury. Hammon had 123 yards on 26 rushes and scored his first two career TDs.

The second scoring TD by the 5-7 Hammon came on a 54-yard scamper up the left sideline and helped him become the first freshman in school history to rush for more than 100 yards in a game. He also scored on an 8-yard run early in the second quarter and helped GSU to 162 rushing yards as a team.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

- Nick Arbuckle's 68-yard scoring pass to Donovan Harden was the eighth longest play from scrimmage, and the seventh longest pass play in school history. The strike was also the seventh longest TD play since the program began in 2010.
- Krysten Hammon rushed for 123 yards and two scores. He was the first freshman in school history to rush for 100 yards in a game, and his 54-yard run was the third-longest scoring run in school history and tied for the fourth-longest rush overall. It was the 11th 100-yard game in program history.
- Joseph Peterson recorded 15 tackles, one off his school record of 16 set last year against Troy.
- Safety Bryan Williams had eight tackles, an interception -- the first of his career -- and a fumble recovery. Georgia State forced three turnovers on the game.
- Captains for the game were Nick Arbuckle, Joseph Peterson and Shawayne Lawrence.

AIR FORCE	48
GEORGIA STATE	38

Game 3: Sept. 13, 2014 • 2 p.m. (ESPN3)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Air Force won a high-flying affair in the Georgia Dome as the Falcons eased to a 48-38 victory against host Georgia State. The 86 combined points were the most ever in a Panther game since GSU started its program in 2010.

In their first home game against a non-conference FBS opponent, the Panthers kept clawing back, pulling within 45-31 early in the fourth quarter on Lynquez Blair's second touchdown reception of the game. Blair hauled in TD passes of 15 and 13 yards while finishing with five catches for 74 yards.

Blair's other score came midway through the third quarter as he helped GSU cut the deficit to 31-17. The teams then traded scores the rest of the way with GSU outscoring Air Force 28-17 in the second half.

The run-oriented Falcons finished with 539 yards of total offense, including 315 on the ground. Air Force made the difference in the passing game where quarterback Kale Pearson was more than efficient, finishing 12 of 15 for 224 yards and two scores through the air. He also ran for just five yards on nine attempts, and added a pair of rushing touchdowns despite running for only five yards on nine carries.

Pearson's second rushing score put Air Force ahead with its largest lead of the game at 38-17 before the Panthers rallied.

Georgia State outgained the Falcons by 10 yards, putting up 549 yards of total offense, the second-highest total in school history. The air game was a large part of that as it was working well behind quarterback Nick Arbuckle. The junior signal-caller finished 26 of 42 in the air, surpassing 1,000 passing yards for the season in just three games. He tossed a pair of TD strikes in the contest and ran for a 1-yard score as the Panthers fell to 1-2 on the season.

Arbuckle's last completion was a 73-yard catch-and-run to Kyle Neal, and helped Arbuckle tie the school single-game mark for passing yards with 414. He had finished one yard shy of the record with 413 yards in the season-opening victory against Abilene Christian.

When Arbuckle wasn't pushing the ball down the field through the air, the Panther ground game was effective with first-time starter Neal in the backfield. He had a career high rushing yards in the first half and finished with 80 yards on 10 carries to go along with his three catches for 91 yards.

Neal had the Panthers' first scoring play on a 25-yard rush in the second quarter, one of three rushing scores for GSU on the day. Along with Neal and Arbuckle, Duvall Smith crossed the goal line on the ground, scoring from 2 yards out with the final points of the game with 4:57 to play.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

- The contest was the highest-scoring game in Georgia State history with 86 combined points (surpassed later in the season). Before 2014, the previous record was 80 points in the GSU-Old Dominion (ODU 53, GSU 27) contest in 2012.
- RB Kyle Neal had his first career score on a career-long 25-yard run, as he rushed around the left end to pull GSU within 14-7 with 12:49 remaining in the second quarter.
- Neal also hauled in a pass he turned into an impressive 73-yard catch-and-run to set up the Panthers' last score. It was the seventh longest play from scrimmage in school history, and the sixth longest pass play.
- RB Duvall Smith also had a career-long rush as he reeled off a 32-yarder in the third quarter that set up the Panthers' second touchdown. Smith also had a fourth-down conversion late in the third period to keep a GSU drive alive in its own territory. Smith finished with a career-best 50 yards on six carries including his first rushing touchdown.
- LB Joseph Peterson's 200th career tackle came on special teams as he bolted out of the left side to cut the returner short, breaking the school record originally set by Robert Ferguson. He finished with 13 total tackles on the day and has 207 tackles in his three-year Panther career.
- TE Joel Ruiz and WR Donovan Harden each finished with at least 90 yards receiving (95 and 90, respectively), marking the second time in three games this year a pair of Panther receivers had at least 90 yards through the air.
- PK Wil Lutz recorded his 100th career point during the contest. He ranks first among placekickers and is second overall in the Panther record book. He trails only Albert Wilson, who owns school record with 156 points.
- Game captains were Joel Ruiz, Sean Jeppesen and Joseph Peterson.

GEORGIA STATE	14
WASHINGTON	45

Game 4: Sept. 20, 2014 • 6 p.m. (Pac-12)
Husky Stadium • Seattle, Wash.

A strong first half staked Georgia State to a 14-0 lead at Washington, but the undefeated Huskies scored 45 unanswered points in the second half en route to a 45-14 victory at Husky Stadium.

Georgia State took a 14-0 lead into the locker room after quarterback Nick Arbuckle passed for 184 yards and two touchdowns in the second quarter.

With the Panthers still (1-3) leading 14-7 late in the third quarter, Washington (4-0) tied the game on Cyler Miles' 10-yard touchdown pass to Kendyl Taylor.

On the first play of Georgia State's ensuing possession, Arbuckle hit Avery Sweeting for a short gain. Sweeting appeared to be down at the GSU 25, but the play was ruled a fumble and Washington took over. Four plays later, Miles found Kasen Williams for a 3-yard touchdown, giving the Huskies a 21-14 lead with 2:25 to play in the third quarter.

Georgia State dominated the first half, outgaining the Huskies 231-73. The Panthers ran 48 plays to 27 for Washington and controlled the clock for 21 minutes.

Late in a scoreless first quarter, the Panthers took possession at midfield. Arbuckle found Donovan Harden for 21 yards and Avery Sweeting for 24 to move to the UW 5-yard line. Three plays later, Arbuckle connected with tight end Keith Rucker for a 2-yard touchdown to give Georgia State a 7-0 lead with 13:42 remaining in the second quarter.

After another Washington punt, the Panthers were pinned at their own 9-yard line but marched down the field behind the passing of Arbuckle and the running of Kyler Neal. On 3rd-and-4 at the GSU 26, Arbuckle connected with Donovan Harden for 13 yards and then found Robert Davis for 17 yards to the Washington 44. He converted on 3rd-and-7 at the UW 24 with a 12-yard completion to LynQuez Blair. After Neal picked up three yards on first down, the Georgia State quarterback finished the drive with by hitting Davis for a 9-yard scoring pass with 47 seconds left in the half. The Davis touchdown, his first of the season, capped a 13-play, 91-yard drive that chewed up 6:31 on the clock.

Washington came alive in the third quarter, aided by excellent field position provided by Dante Pettis, who returned four punts for 98 yards. The Huskies started four third-quarter possessions in Georgia State territory.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

- Arbuckle completed 21-of-33 passes for 194 yards but threw three interceptions, including one tipped ball that was returned by John Timu 35 yards for a score.
- Harden finished with a season-high seven catches for 64 yards, while Sweeting, Davis and Blair had four catches each.
- Neal carried 16 times for 57 yards but missed much of the second half due to injury.
- Junior linebacker Joseph Peterson led the Panthers with 14 tackles, including two sacks. Making his first career start at linebacker, Trey Payne had a career-high 13 tackles, one tackle for loss and a forced fumble.

GEORGIA STATE	31
UL LAFAYETTE	34

Game 5: Oct. 4, 2014 • 7 p.m. (ESPN3)
Cajun Field • Lafayette, La.

UL Lafayette scored the go-ahead touchdown with 3:34 left and then held on for a 34-31 victory over Georgia State in a back-and-forth Sun Belt Conference game at Cajun Field.

Georgia State (1-4, 0-2 Sun Belt) took a 31-28 lead with 6:35 to play on Marcus Caffey's 2-yard touchdown run, his school-record third score of the day, but the Ragin' Cajuns (2-3, 1-0 Sun Belt) answered on Terrance Broadway's 21-yard touchdown pass to Jamal Robinson. One play earlier, the Panthers had a chance to sack backup quarterback Brooks Haack on third down at the GSU 43, but the 6-1, 219-pounder shook off the tackle and flung the ball to sideline, where Al Riles made a diving catch that was ruled just in bounds.

But UL Lafayette missed the extra point, leaving Georgia State down 34-31 with 3:34 to play. The Panthers took over on the 25, and after Caffey gained eight yards on first down, two crucial penalties nullified gains, including a 30-yard pass to LynQuez Blair at the ULL 42. On 4th-and-6, Nick Arbuckle hit Robert Davis across the middle but he was tackled short of the first down with a minute left.

"We're right there, and we keep getting bit by lack of execution at crucial times. We haven't figured out how to win, and that's my job to get these kids to do that," head coach Trent Miles said. "Hats off to Louisiana Lafayette. When they had to stop us at the end, they did. Our kids are playing hard, they're fighting their tails off, and it's my job to make sure they learn how to win."

Playing his first game at running back after moving to offense this week, Caffey carried the ball a GSU-record 27 times for 90 yards and scored three touchdowns on runs of 12, one and two yards. He is the first Panther to rush for three touchdowns in a game. Duvall Smith added a 1-yard scoring run for the Panthers.

Arbuckle completed 19 of 27 passes for 276 yards with no interceptions. Davis finished with six catches for 63 yards, while Donovan Harden had four receptions for 91 yards, and Joel Ruiz added catches four for 75 yards.

The game featured seven lead changes. UL Lafayette jumped to a 7-0 lead on its opening possession on a 54-yard touchdown run by Elijah McGuire. Georgia State countered with two long touchdown drives, a 91-yard march capped by Smith's 1-yard run, and then a 96-yard drive that resulted in a Caffey's 12-yard run that gave the Panthers a 14-7 lead with five minutes left in the first half.

After ULL tied the game on Broadway's 19-yard touchdown pass to Robinson, Wil Lutz booted a 48-yard field goal on the final play of the first half sent the Panthers into the locker room with a 17-14 advantage.

The Ragin' Cajuns took the opening kickoff of the second half and drove 75 yards for Alonzo Harris' 1-yard touchdown run and a 21-17 lead.

Arbuckle connected with Harden for a 62-yard gain down to the 1-yard line, and then Caffey took it in for his second score of the day as Georgia State regained the lead at 24-21 with two minutes left in the third quarter.

After UL Lafayette answered with another 1-yard touchdown run by Harris to lead 28-24 with 11 minutes to play, Arbuckle led the Panthers on a 10-play, 75-yard drive. Caffey again found the end zone from two yards out, and Georgia State led 31-28 with 6:35 to play.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

- Game captains for Georgia State: Robert Davis, Joel Ruiz, Joseph Peterson.
- Wil Lutz's 48-yard field goal on the final play of the first half was his longest of the season and is No. 16 of his career, giving him sole possession of the Georgia State career record. Iain Vance had 15 field goals, all in 2010.
- Lutz also executed a fake punt with a 26-yard run on 4th-and 11 from the 19-yard line, keeping alive the Panthers' first touchdown drive.
- The Panthers scored on touchdown drives of 91, 96, 88 yards and 75 yards.
- Ronnie Bell made his first start of the season at quarterback and guided the Panthers into ULL territory on their first series. Nick Arbuckle did not start due to a violation of team's academic attendance policy.
- Neither team committed a turnover in the game.

ARKANSAS STATE GEORGIA STATE

Game 6: Oct. 11, 2014 • 2 p.m. (ESPN3)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga. • Homecoming

Arkansas State jumped ahead early and never looked back as the Red Wolves rolled to a 52-10 victory against Georgia State during the Panthers' Homecoming game at the Georgia Dome.

A-State amassed a 618-269 advantage in total offense. It was the second-most yards the Panthers had given up in a Sun Belt game and the fifth time in program history an opponent had gained 600 or more yards.

Michael Gordon led the way, rushing 18 times for 188 yards – including 150 in the first half -- while punching in a pair of touchdowns. He and quarterback Fredi Knighten carried the load literally, gaining more than 280 combined yards on the ground on 30 carries.

Knighten got the Red Wolves moving, easily taking them down the field on the Red Wolves' first four drives, each resulting in a score. Knighten threw a touchdown pass on the opening drive and after a field goal, Gordon burst up the middle for a 50-yard TD run to open a 17-point lead. The last score of the stretch was a 2-yard touchdown pass from Knighten to Kenneth Rains for a 24-0 advantage on the final play of the first quarter.

Georgia State mounted its only scoring drive of the opening half late in the frame, ending at 4:05 to play in the second period on Wil Lutz's 28-yard field goal. The drive began as the Panther defense came up big with Trey Payne recovering a fumble at the ASU 28. Quarterback Nick Arbuckle scrambled for 10 yards to move the Panthers early before the drive stalled on third down inside the 10-yard line to set up the kick, which capped a nine-play, 18-yard drive.

A-State added another score 35 seconds later on Johnston White's 13-yard rush to make it 31-3 Arkansas State at halftime. Gordon set up that touchdown with a 53-yard rush, his second run of at least 50 yards on the day. Knighten also got in the mix with a 51-yard rush of his own to score the first touchdown of the second half for a 45-3 lead with 4:43 to play in the third quarter.

The Red Wolves' defense pressured Georgia State all day, repeatedly forcing the Panther offense into difficult situations behind nine tackles for loss by the Red Wolves. Arbuckle came into the game ranked among the top 15 passers in the country with 318.2 passing yards per game over the first five contests. On Saturday, the junior college transfer completed just 18 of 36 attempts for 162 yards.

The offensive output was uncommon for the Panthers this year, who had scored at least 31 points each game at home this season. Saturday ended with just 10 points as backup quarterback Ben McLane led a fourth-quarter drive for the only GSU touchdown. He tossed a 31-yard completion to Joel Brooks at the A-State 2 to set up a Gerald Howse touchdown to cap a drive that took 6:06 off the clock.

Georgia State returns to action next weekend when it hits the road to play at South Alabama on Saturday, Oct. 18. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. ET and the game will be seen on ESPN3 and heard on 1340 the Fan 3 and 88.5 FM.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

- Dontavis Crocker made his first career start, opening the game at running back. He finished with 10 carries for 27 yards after coming into the game with three carries for six yards on the season.
- RB Gerald Howse also had his best game of the season, coming in late to rush 11 times for a career-best 29 yards and scored the Panthers' only touchdown of the game.
- A pair of true freshmen made their debuts for the Panthers as linebackers James Traylor and Malik Ricks saw the first action of their careers. Traylor recovered a fumble in the fourth quarter and had seven tackles, while Ricks recorded one tackle.
- Game captains for Georgia State were TE Keith Rucker, QB Nick Arbuckle, and LB Joe Peterson.

GEORGIA STATE 27

SOUTH ALABAMA 30

Game 7: Oct. 18, 2014 • 7:30 p.m. (ESPN3)
Ladd-Peebles Stadium • Mobile, Ala.

Nick Arbuckle passed for 311 yards and three touchdowns, two of them to Donovan Harden, to give Georgia State a fourth-quarter lead, but South Alabama scored the winning touchdown with four minutes left for a 30-27 victory at Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

Georgia State (1-6, 0-4 Sun Belt) suffered its third Sun Belt Conference loss by three points. In each game, the Panthers scored a go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter and held the lead in the final five minutes.

"Our kids came in here and battled, and we had opportunities to win the game, but give South Alabama credit. They stepped up and did it at the end when they had to," Georgia State head coach Trent Miles said. "Our kids are battling their tails off, and we are going to start winning football games. I don't know when it's going to happen, but it will. I'm proud of our football team."

With Georgia State trailing 23-21, Arbuckle led the Panthers on an 11-play, 76-yard drive, capped by Duvall Smith's 1-yard touchdown run. The key play on the drive was an Arbuckle-to-Robert Davis completion for 29 yards down the sideline to the USA 16-yard line. After a pass interference penalty gave Georgia State first-and-goal at the two, Smith punched it in on third down, giving the Panthers a 27-23 lead with 9:48 left.

The GSU defense forced a punt and the Panthers managed one first down, but a sack—South Alabama's (4-2, 3-1 Sun Belt) fifth of the day—derailed the drive. Georgia State had to punt, and the Jaguars took over at their own 15-yard line with five minutes left.

On South Alabama's first play, quarterback Brandon Bridge, who rushed for 137 yards on the night, ran 65 yards down to the GSU 20. On the next snap, the ball came loose and Georgia State recovered, but running back Jay Jones was ruled down, and after review, the call stood.

One play later, Bridge hit Danny Woodon for an 18-yard touchdown to put the Jaguars ahead 30-27 with 4:02 remaining.

After a short kickoff and pass interference penalty, Georgia State had a first down at the South Alabama 41. A run on first down and two incomplete passes made it 4th-and-9, and Arbuckle, forced to scramble, gained six yards but was tackled shy of the first down.

South Alabama drove for a touchdown on its first possession, the Panthers answered by driving 66 yards on five plays. On first down at midfield, Arbuckle found Harden down the left sideline for the 44-yard touchdown, tying the game at 7-all midway through the first quarter.

A Georgia State fumble gave the Jaguars the ball at the GSU 45, but the Panthers defense forced a 43-yard field goal, and South Alabama led 10-7 with three minutes to play in the first quarter.

Georgia State drove down the field for a first-and-goal inside the five, but Arbuckle was stopped just short on fourth down at the 1-yard line. But the Georgia State defense forced a three-and-out, and the Panthers regained possession at the 50. This time, the Panthers punched it in as Arbuckle hit Ruiz on third down for a 1-yard scoring pass and a 14-10 lead that Georgia State took into the locker room.

South Alabama struck first in the second half, moving ahead 17-14 on Bridge's 15-yard touchdown pas to Shavarez Smith, but Georgia State answered with a 75-play drive. Harden caught his second touchdown of the day on a five-yard completion from Arbuckle.

The Georgia State defense then forced field goal attempts on the Jaguars next three possessions, and Aleem Sunanon made two of them to South Alabama ahead 23-21 early in the fourth quarter.

NOTING THE PANTHERS

- Donovan Harden had his best game at Georgia State with a career-high 10 catches for 132 yards, including touchdown receptions of 44 and five yards. His 10 receptions are one shy of the Georgia State record of 11 (Danny Williams vs. Old Dominion in 2010). His 132 yards receiving are five yard shy of his career best, set when he was at Illinois State.
- Robert Davis had four catches for 108 yards (two yards shy of his career high), giving the Panthers two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the second time this season and the fifth time in school history.
- Gerald Howse rushed for a career-high 53 yards in his first start since the 2013 season opener. Howse is the fifth different running back to start this season.

2014REVIEW

GEORGIA SOUTHERN
GEORGIA STATE69
31

Game 8: Oct. 25, 2014 • 2 p.m. (ESPN3)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State scored the first points in the series but Georgia Southern came out on top in the game, earning a 69-31 victory in the Georgia Dome.

GSU was led offensively by the duo of Nick Arbuckle and Donovan Harden. The pair of transfers who each hail from California combined to hook up for four touchdowns as Harden gained a school-record 186 receiving yards. Harden's four touchdown catches are the second-most in Sun Belt Conference history and set a school record.

Harden also tied a school record with 11 receptions. He had touchdown catches of 3, 59, 35 and 36 yards. The 59-yard touchdown catch was the longest touchdown play given up by Georgia Southern in 2014.

Arbuckle finished 24 of 38 passing for 408 yards, just six shy of a school record and four scores which also tied a school record. It was his third game of 400-plus passing yards this season.

On the afternoon, GS outgained the Panthers 660-455 in total offense. As usual, the Eagles did most of their damage on the ground, gaining 613 yards rushing. Running back Matt Breida went over 200 yards, finishing with 201 yards and four rushing scores including a 75-yarder on the first play of the second half.

The Eagles jumped out to a 14-3 lead in the first quarter behind scoring runs of 7 and 9 yards. The Eagles posted 269 rushing yards before the intermission. A total of 11 GS players carried the ball, with eight finishing with at least 30 yards.

Georgia State opened the scoring on the first drive of the game, getting a 44-yard field goal from Wil Lutz. The Panthers had two other scoring drives before halftime, both resulting in Harden touchdown catches. Harden had seven catches for 94 yards and the two scores before intermission. Over his past two games, Harden has 21 catches, the most in a two-game span in GSU history.

GS put touchdowns on the board around each of Harden's scoring catches and went into the locker room ahead 27-17. Following the intermission, the Eagles outscored GSU 42-14 with six rushing touchdowns, including two of at least 60 yards.

GSU was hurt by penalties and missed opportunities. The Panthers finished with six penalties at inopportune times. It cost them only 40 yards, but the timing was unfortunate as one came on a 97-yard kickoff return for an apparent TD that was called back for holding. GSU also missed out on a score when a wide open Harden dropped a pass at the goal line that would have brought the Panthers within 17 points. Instead, a missed field goal led to GS driving the field for a 48-17 lead in the third.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

- The attendance of 28,427 is the second-largest in Georgia State history and largest since 30,237 for the inaugural game on Sept. 2, 2010.
- Game captains: LB Joseph Peterson, QB Nick Arbuckle, TE Joel Ruiz, TE Keith Rucker, LB Nate Paxton.
- Harden's 21 catches in the past two games easily eclipsed the previous two-game record which was held by Danny Williams with 16 catches.
- Harden also became the first Panther with at least two TDs in back-to-back games.

- Nick Arbuckle had completed 124 consecutive passes without an interception until an acrobatic interception in the second quarter by Darius Jones.
- After making a 44-yard field goal to open the scoring, Wil Lutz missed his first field-goal attempt of the season in the third quarter, from 48 yards.

Game 9: Nov. 1, 2014 • 3:30 p.m. (ESPN3)
Kidd Brewer Stadium • Boone, N.C.

Playing in snow for the first time in school history, Georgia State fell at Appalachian State 44-0 at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

With winds swirling and a wet snow falling throughout the game, the Panthers (1-8, 0-6 Sun Belt) were out of sync all day, and the Sun Belt Conference's top passing offense was unable to move the ball.

Appalachian State (3-5, 2-2 Sun Belt) relied on its ground game to win its second straight game, rushing for 469 yards, including a career-high 250 yards and three touchdowns by Marcus Cox.

"Of course the weather can make it difficult for the passing game, but that's football. That's when you've got to be able to run the ball," Georgia State head coach Trent Miles said. "We've got to be better than that. It was just as cold and wet for them."

Quarterback Nick Arbuckle, who was averaging better than 300 yards passing per game, had just 47 yards on 8-of-17 completions. He threw one interception on a tipped ball, and he was sacked four times. The Panthers also hurt themselves with two fumbles and managed just 64 yards of total offense.

Arbuckle did surpass the Georgia State season record for completions; he now has 191 on the year.

The Georgia State defense played without its leading tackler and top defensive player, inside linebacker Joseph Peterson, who missed the game with an ankle injury.

GEORGIA STATE 21 TROY 45

Game 10: Nov. 8, 2014 • 3 p.m. (ESPN3)
Veterans Memorial Stadium • Troy, Ala.

Georgia State fell at Troy 45-21 in a Sun Belt Conference game at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

Georgia State (1-9, 0-7 SBC) quarterback Nick Arbuckle surpassed the school's season and career records for touchdown passes and the GSU season record for passing yards as the Panthers put up 394 yards of offense but hurt themselves with three turnovers.

Arbuckle threw two touchdown passes to senior LynQuez Blair and one to freshman Todd Boyd, giving the GSU quarterback 19 TD passes on the season. That breaks the Georgia State season record of 18, set by Drew Little in 2010, as well as the career mark by Little (2010-11) and Ronnie Bell (2012- present).

Arbuckle finished with 293 yards passing, raising his season total to 2,812 yards and surpassing Bell's record of 2,573, set last season. Arbuckle also passed Bell in total offense with 2,799 yards this season.

Troy (2-8, 2-4 Sun Belt) rushed for 324 yards, led by Brandon Burks with 118 yards. Five different Trojans scored rushing touchdowns, and quarterback Brandon Silver added one TD pass and 111 yards through the air.

The Trojans took the opening kickoff and drove for a score with a 15-play, 66-yard drive that lasted 6:41. Georgia State answered with a 12-play, 78-yard drive, capped by Arbuckle's 21-yard scoring pass to Boyd, who caught his first touchdown.

With Troy leading 14-7 in the second quarter, Arbuckle was intercepted at the Troy 30 and then at Troy 5 on consecutive possessions, and the Trojans took a 21-7 lead into the locker room. The Panthers fumbled on their opening drive of the second half to set up a short touchdown by Troy as the Trojans took control with a 28-7 lead.

Retiring Troy head coach Larry Blakeney earned his 100th home win in his 24th season with the Trojans.

Georgia State managed 101 net yards rushing, including 86 yards by Marcus Caffey on 18 carries.

"Our kids played hard, but we were just not good enough all the way around," head coach Trent Miles said. "We turned the ball over, we couldn't stop the run, we didn't kick it where we wanted to, and we didn't coach well enough. And we've got to get healthy."

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

• LynQuez Blair had a career-high nine catches for 62 yards with touchdown receptions of 13 and 19 yards. He now has five touchdowns on the season.

• True freshman Todd Boyd enjoyed his best game with three catches for 91 yards.

• Playing near his hometown of Dothan, Ala., Peterson played as much as he could despite an ankle injury and made four tackles. He had numerous family and friends in attendance.

GEORGIA STATE 0 CLEMSON 28

Game 11: Nov. 22, 2014 • 3:30 p.m. (RSN)
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, S.C.

Georgia State fell at Clemson 28-0 at Memorial Stadium, but the Panthers played even with the Tigers, who are No. 22 in the College Football Playoff rankings, in the second half.

After Georgia State (1-10) fell behind at the half, the Panthers' defense held Clemson (8-3) to no points and just 138 yards of offense in the second half.

Georgia State hurt itself with three first-half turnovers and a short punt that led directly to Clemson's four touchdowns. The Tigers' scoring drives covered 30, 26, 47 and 53 yards. In the game, Clemson had no play longer than 18 yards and no drive longer than 53 yards.

"Our kids fought, and I thought our defense played outstanding," head coach Trent Miles said. "I know it was 28-0 but they were put on a short field in the first half because of what I consider four turnovers - three interceptions and a poor punt. You put a team like Clemson on a short field and they are going to cash in, but our defense really fought today."

"Give Clemson credit," Miles continued. They have a great defense, and they are an excellent football program. You can't turn the ball over and fall behind against a defense like that."

True freshman safety Chandon Sullivan grabbed his first interception in the first half, picking off Cole Stoudt over the middle at the GSU 6-yard line. Safety Tarris Batiste had a game-high 12 tackles, with three tackles for loss, including a fourth-down sack, and cornerback Bruce Dukes added eight tackles with three tackles for loss and a pass breakup. Noseguard Jalen Lawrence had a sack.

Georgia State also forced a turnover on special teams as Keith Rucker recovered a muffed punt.

"There are no moral victories," Miles said. "We're not happy with losing, we never will be, but there are things that we can build on from that game. And there are things we've got to correct, as far as taking care of the ball."

Playing against the No. 2-ranked defense in the nation, quarterback Nick Arbuckle managed 13 completions on 33 attempts for 115 yards but threw three interceptions. LynQuez Blair finished with five catches for 39 yards.

Tyson Dye led the Tigers with 124 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Stoudt was 19-for-29 for 132 yards and one touchdown to Mike Williams, who had seven catches for 87 yards. Clemson compiled 357 yards of offense.

NOTING THE PANTHERS:

• The Georgia State defense played without leading tackler Joseph Peterson, who missed his second game with an ankle injury.

• With his 13 completions, Arbuckle raised his season total to 227, which ties the Georgia State record for career completions.

• Blair has 14 receptions over the last two games.

• The 28-point margin is GSU's closest score in six games vs. teams from the Power Five conferences.

Game 12: Nov. 29, 2014 • 2 p.m. (ESPN3)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Quarterback Nick Arbuckle set a pair of career passing records Saturday but it was not enough for the Panthers to overcome Texas State as it pushed past Georgia State 54-31 in the final game of the regular season at the Georgia Dome.

The Bobcats improved to 7-5 on the season and 5-3 in league action, while the Panthers completed their second season at the FBS level with a 1-11 record and 0-8 mark in Sun Belt play. Texas State scored on its first nine drives of the game as it racked up 607 yards of total offense to 516 for the Panthers.

Putting a damper on the senior day festivities, Texas State quarterback Tyler Jones completed 26 of 32 passes for 267 yards and rushed for another 65 yards and two running scores to help the Bobcats' case for a bowl berth. Jones was responsible for four total TDs on the afternoon. Texas State ground out 340 yards rushing on 43 carries.

Robert Lowe added 146 yards on the ground and Terrence Franks added 98 yards including a 60-yard burst for a score down the sideline in the fourth quarter. CJ Best added 29 yards on the ground but was more effective after the catch, hauling in 11 passes for 120 yards and one score.

Jones started the scoring with a 13-yard TD in the second quarter, the first touchdown of the game after three combined field goals. Georgia State got on the board first with Wil Lutz's 21-yard field goal with 9:50 to play in the first period and was followed by Will Johnson, who booted a 21-yarder and a 28-yarder for a 6-3 lead early in the second period.

Jones then completed 9- and 14-yard scoring tosses in the final 4:13 of the half to extend the Bobcats' lead to 24 points at the break. He was 18 of 20 passing in the opening half as Texas State finished the first half with 313 total offense yards to just 142 for Georgia State.

Arbuckle broke the GSU career passing mark in the second half as he helped GSU move up and down the field. The junior college transfer completed 32 of 46 for 356 yards and four scores on the day. His scoring passes tied the single-game GSU record for the third time this season and he added to his record season as he now has 3,283 career passing yards, surpassing teammate Ronnie Bell's previous mark. His 356 yards passing were the seventh-most in GSU single-game history.

Robert Davis was one of his top targets as he hauled in six passes for a career best 117 yards from Arbuckle. They hooked up on the Panthers' first drive of the third quarter for a 75-yard catch-and-run score, marking the longest pass play of the season and the fifth longest in school history.

It was the start of three touchdown drives in Georgia State's next four possessions, including a 6-yard TD catch from Lynquez Blair and a 39-yard catch-and-run score by Glenn Smith. Blair also finished with a team-high eight catches for 50 yards in his final career game.

Todd Boyd capped the Panthers' scoring for the season with a 6-yard touchdown catch from Arbuckle in the fourth quarter that brought GSU within 47-31 with just over three minutes to play. The ensuing onside kick looked to go GSU's way, but after a review, it was given to Texas State. The Bobcats added a final interception return for a touchdown for the final score.

NOTING THE PANTHERS

- Captains for today's game were: Keith Rucker, Joseph Peterson, Tim Wynn, Jamaal May.
- Quarterback Nick Arbuckle hit wide receiver Robert Davis with a 75-yard catch-and-run for the fifth longest pass play in school history and the longest pass of the year.
- Robert Davis finished with 117 receiving yards, his fourth 100-yard receiving game of the year and the most of his career.
- Arbuckle's TD to Lynquez Blair in the fourth quarter gave him 22 TDs responsible for this season, tying the career record. He added two other scoring passes to top the mark in the fourth and ended the year with 25.
- Fourteen seniors were honored prior to the game, including: Tim Wynn, Jarrell Robinson, Ronald Martin, Marcus Stetzer, Jamaal May, Lynquez Blair, Dontavis Crocker, Spencer Haywood, Gerald Howse, Matt Hubbard, Sean Jeppesen, A.J. Kaplan, Cristian Perez, and Duvall Smith.
- This was Georgia State's third game with more than 500 yards total offense this season.
- This was Arbuckle's fifth 300-yard passing game of the season and sixth with three or more TD passes.
- Tarris Batiste had a career best 13 tackles, one better than 12 last week at Clemson.

FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING CENTER

Opening for the 2015 season, Georgia State's new Football Strength and Conditioning Center will provide a state-of-the-art Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) facility to attract top student-athletes and enhance the performance of all current Panthers.

Located adjacent to the Football Practice Facility, it will cover 7,000 square feet and be fully equipped with high-performance equipment to provide optimal training sessions.
