Panthers in the Pros

Former Georgia State players continue to have success in the professional ranks whether in the United States or abroad. Some are still playing, while others have entered the coaching ranks. However, no matter where they are, they represent the GSU men's soccer program with distinction.

Michael Nwiloh (2013-14 - Chivas USA)

Michael Nwiloh accomplished two firsts by a GSU men's soccer player. First, he made history when he was selected 59th overall (second pick of fourth round) in the MLS (Major League Soccer) Super Draft by Chivas USA. Then, he became the first Panther soccer player to sign a professional contract with a MLS team.

CJ Cochran (2015- Atlanta Silverbacks)

Cochran signed after graduation for the 2014 season for the Atlanta Silverbacks

Jordan Davis (2011- Atlanta Silverbacks)

Jordan Davis played one season for the Atlanta Silverbacks in 2011. While at GSU, Davis served as team captain for the Panthers from 2002-04. He finished his career with 42 starts, scoring 3 goals and recording seven assists. Davis also played on the Atlanta Silverbacks U23 team from 2006-08.

Armin Marquez (2008-13 - Deportivo Petare)

Armin Marquez has spent the last five years playing professionally in Venezuela with the Real Espor Club, Zamora FC, Aragua FC and Deportivo Petare. Marquez plays as a defender, just as he did at GSU during his all-conference career that ended in 2005.

Eduardo Liza (FC Atlanta and Atlanta Silverbacks)

Eduardo Liza played for the FC Atlanta team in the NPSL and he made second team All-NPSL during the summer of 2009. Liza is now serving as an assistant coach for the Atlanta Silverbacks.

Chris Mahaffey (2007-09 - Atlanta Silverbacks)

Chris Mahaffey, a midfielder from Conyers, was the State AAAA Player of the Year with Heritage High School, the top-ranked team in the nation and two-time state champions.

Scott Mora (2001-03 - Greenville Lions and Atlanta Silverbacks)

Scott was an assistant coach at Georgia State in 2003 and played professionally from 2001-03.

Walter Valesky (2002 - Wilmington Hammerheads)

Walker Valesky played goalkeeper for the Panthers and played professionally in Wilmington, N.C.

Terrance Johnson (2000-01 - U.S. Amateur National Team)

Michael Nwiloh was drafted by Chivas USA
