COACHINGSTAFF

GREG FRADY

Georgia State Head Coach
10th Year at GSU

In nine seasons as head coach, Greg Frady has established an unprecedented pattern of winning within the Georgia State baseball organization.

Named the Panthers' eighth head coach in June 2006, Frady boasts the highest winning percentage of any coach in school history.

With a 283-231-1 record (.550) entering 2016, Frady trails only Mike Hurst, who finished his Panther career in 2006 with 293 career wins, for the most victories by a Georgia State head coach.

Prior to Frady's arrival, the GSU program had achieved just two winning seasons in its history and had never won more than 31 games in any year. But since he took the reins in 2007, he has guided the Panthers to six winning seasons, all with 30 or more wins. Along the way he has steered the program through three different conferences, including Georgia State's move into the highly-competitive Sun Belt Conference in 2013-14.

The highlight of Frady's tenure came in 2009, when he guided the Panthers to a school-record 39 victories, capped by Georgia State's first conference title and NCAA tournament berth.

Under Frady, Georgia State teams have been marked by prolific offense. His 2010 squad led the nation in runs per game and ranked third in batting average, while his 2013 Panthers had the nation's third-highest batting average, along with top-10 rankings in scoring, doubles, slugging and on-base percentage. In 2014, Georgia State ranked fourth in the nation in home runs and second in homers per game.

His program has produced three All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, three preseason All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans and 40 all-conference or all-rookie honorees. In the last three years alone, eight different Panthers have earned some type of All-America recognition.

Another milestone for the program came in 2014 when former Panther pitcher David Buchanan, recruited and coached by Frady, made his Major League debut with the Philadelphia Phillies. Buchanan is Georgia State baseball's first Major Leaguer, and he is one of seven future big league players Frady has helped develop in the college ranks. More than 100 of his former players have been drafted or signed professional contracts, including four players over the last two years with seniors Nic Wilson and Chase Raffield in 2014 and juniors Matt Rose and Nathan Bates in 2015.

In 2015, Frady guided the Panthers to the 30-win mark for the sixth time in the last eight years. In addition to featuring one of the nation's top home run hitters in Rose, the squad set a school record for lowest earned run average for the second time in the last five years. The 2015 squad produced one All-American, one Academic All-American, one Freshman All-American, three first-team all-conference selections, and two juniors drafted in the top 15 rounds.

Frady's Panthers have held their own against the powerful programs in the state, posting six wins over Georgia Tech and Georgia since 2007, including back-to-back victories over the Bulldogs in 2013-14.

GSU student-athletes have excelled in the classroom under Frady, maintaining

2007-present, Head Coach, Georgia State Record: 283-231-1 (9 seasons)

PLAYING CAREER

Troy State University, member of NCAA Division II national championship team in 1986.

COACHINGSTAFF

a team grade-point average of better than 3.0. For the 2014-15 academic year, the program posted a 3.13 GPA with 45 individuals at 3.0 or better for the fall or spring semesters. The Panthers topped that with a 3.26 GPA and 30 individual honors for the fall 2015.

Prior to the 2012 season, Georgia State was honored as the nation's Most Valuable Program by the National Alliance of College Summer Baseball, indicative of the Panthers' continued offseason success.

Along with his duties at Georgia State, Frady recently completed a highly successful 11-year stint as the head coach of the German National Team, and in July 2016, he will be inducted into the German Baseball and Softball Hall of Fame.

In 2013, one of his pupils became the first product of the German baseball system to reach the Major Leagues when Donald Lutz made his debut with the Cincinnati Reds. Two more of Frady's German team members were called up in 2015 in Max Keppler (Minnesota Twins) and Aaron Altherr (Philadelphia Phillies).

Before being promoted to head coach at Georgia State in the summer of 2006, Frady spent two seasons as the Panthers' associate head coach under Mike Hurst. He helped lead Georgia State to back-to-back conference tournament berths in the Atlantic Sun Conference in 2005 and then the Colonial Athletic Association in 2006.

Prior to joining the Georgia State staff, Frady served as the associate head coach at Central Florida from 1997-2003. The Knights were ranked in the top 25 in each of his seven seasons, and UCF collected six conference championships during that time (three regular season and three tournament). The Knights also made four appearances in the NCAA Tournament and played in two regional finals. He was part of four 40-win teams (1997, 1998, 2000, 2002) and one 50-win club in 2001.

Before making the move to UCF, Frady spent six seasons as the head coach at North Florida Community College in Madison, Fla., earning 187 victories. During his tenure, the team broke the school record for wins in a season four times in six years. His career collegiate coaching record now stands at 470-343-1.

Frady started his coaching career at Columbus State in 1988, where he served as an assistant for three seasons. Frady took charge as interim head coach in the summer of 1990, after the Cougars went to the NCAA Division II World Series with a 38-15 record.

A total of 10 of Frady's former players have reached the Major Leagues. In addition to Buchanan and his three former German team standouts, Frady also coached Aaron Fultz (Cleveland Indians, 2000-07), Mike Maroth (St. Louis Cardinals, 2002-07), Clay Timpner (San Francisco Giants, 2008), Esix Snead (New York Mets, 2002, 2004), Matt Fox (Minnesota Twins, 2010), and Drew Butera (currently with the Kansas City Royals).

Frady played collegiately at Troy State and helped the Trojans reach the Division II World Series twice. In 1986, his team won the national championship and was later named the best Division II team of all-time at the 1997 Division II College World Series.

As the head coach of the German National Team, Frady won more than 100 games in international competition from 2004-14, and in 2010 he was named European Coach of the Year.

In the spring of 2008, his squad came just two games shy of qualifying for the Beijing Olympics. In 2009, he led the squad to a win over China in the Baseball World Cup. That was just over a month after the German team defeated the United States at the World Baseball Challenge in British Columbia and finished in second place.

Frady guided Germany to a fourth-place finish at the 2012 European Championships and to the finals of the World Baseball Classic qualifier. His German squad featured former Panther Eric Suttle, while GSU alumni B.J. Roper-Hubbert and Aeden McQueary-Ennis played for the British team.

In 2005, Frady led the German team to the B-Pool Gold Medal and a fourth-place finish at the European Championship, earning the team a spot in the 2007 World Cup. The fourth-place finish was the highest a German squad had ever placed at the European Championship and marked the German's first time qualifying for the World Cup.

Active in the American Baseball Coaches' Association (ABCA), Frady is a long-time member of the organization's Ethics Committee. He was recently honored by the ABCA with a 25-year award. He also is the founder and chair of the Georgia Dugout Club Ethics Committee.

Frady was born in Ellijay, Ga., on Dec. 2, 1962, and graduated from Gilmer High School in 1981. He was named the most valuable player on both the basketball and baseball teams his senior year. In 2006, he was inducted into the Gilmer High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

Frady received his bachelor's degree in education and recreation from Troy State in 1987 and earned a master's degree in administration from Columbus State in 1989.

Greg and his wife Rhonda have been married for 28 years and have two children, daughter Bailey, 22, and son Riley, 20.

COACHINGSTAFF

ADAM SCOTT

Assistant Coach/Pitching Coach
Second Year at GSU

Adam Scott enters his second season as Georgia State's pitching coach after guiding the Panthers' staff to a school-record earned run average in his first year with the program.

Under Scott's direction, Georgia State's pitching improved significantly in 2015 with a 4.14 ERA, nearly two runs lower than the previous season and ahead of the former school record of 4.29, helping the Panthers to a 30-win season.

Senior closer Kevin Burgee broke the Georgia State record for career saves, while another senior reliever, Jerry Stuckey, finished as the Panthers' all-time leader in appearances.

Nathan Bates completed his junior season with a career ERA of 4.07, the second-lowest mark among all GSU pitchers with at least 100 innings. Following the season, Bates was selected in the 15th round of the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft and is now pitching in the Los Angeles Angels organization.

Scott came to Georgia State in August 2014 from the strong junior college program at Wallace State (Ala.) Community College-Hanceville. Scott served three seasons (2012-14) as the pitching coach under NJCAA Hall of Fame head coach Randy Putman.

All three of Scott's sophomore pitchers from the 2014 squad earned Division I scholarships, including Georgia State's Alex Hegner. In three seasons at Hanceville, Scott coached three pitchers who were later drafted and six who went on to Division I programs.

Scott was a two-year letterwinner as a pitcher at Alabama (2009-10), helping the Crimson Tide to NCAA tournament berths both years, including a Super Regional appearance as a senior. He began his college career at Shelton State (Ala.) C.C., which reached the JUCO World Series in 2008, when Scott was named to the all-tournament team.

A native of Hueytown, Ala., Scott is married to the former Delaina Franklin.

COACHINGSTAFF

ADAM PAVKOVICH

Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator
First Year at GSU

Adam Pavkovich, formerly an assistant coach at Notre Dame and an eight-year veteran of professional baseball, joined the Georgia State staff as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for 2015-16.

Pavkovich spent the previous two seasons at Notre Dame, which he helped to an NCAA Regional berth in 2015. He worked with infielders and hitting for the Fighting Irish, who led Division I in double plays while ranking ninth nationally in fielding percentage last season.

Pavkovich went to Notre Dame after one season (2013) as an assistant coach at Alabama-Huntsville.

He also spent two years (2011-12) as a student assistant at Alabama, his alma mater, where he coached first base, worked with infield and outfield defense and assisted with hitting.

Pavkovich coached an ABCA Rawlings Gold Glove Award recipient at both Notre Dame (second baseman Cavan Biggio) and Alabama (center fielder Taylor Dugas). Dugas was an eighth-round draft pick in 2012.

Selected in the 11th round of the 2003 Major League Baseball Draft, Pavkovich enjoyed an eight-year professional baseball career with the Los Angeles Angels organization, reaching the Triple-A level. During his time with the Angels, he worked with some of the best baseball minds in the game including Angels' manager Mike Scioscia, hitting coach Jim Eppard and former hitting coach Mickey Hatcher.

He played in 708 career minor league games, turning in his best year in 2008 as he batted .280 with 22 home runs and 80 RBI for Triple-A Salt Lake City. He earned invitations to Major League spring training in 2008 and 2009.

Pavkovich began his coaching career at IMG Academies (2007-2010) in Sarasota, Fla., as a special instructor during his offseasons. While at IMG, he worked with several players who went on to be drafted and two who eventually reached the Major Leagues in Tyler Pastornicky of the Atlanta Braves and J.R. Murphy of the New York Yankees.

Pavkovich was a three-year letterwinner as a shortstop at Alabama (2001-03), helping the Crimson Tide to Southeastern Conference Tournament championships and NCAA Regional appearances in 2002 and 2003. His best year came in 2003, when he batted .338 with 11 home runs, 55 RBI and an SEC-leading 27 doubles and was named to the SEC All-Tournament team.

A Dean's List student, Pavkovich earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors in 2003.

Pavkovich completed his degree in Commerce and Business Administration as an accounting major with a minor in computer science at Alabama in 2012.

The native of Venice, Fla., is married to the former Lindsay Devore, and the couple has two daughters, Presley Grace and Sadie Belle.

COACHINGSTAFF

BROCK BENNETT

Assistant Coach
First Year at GSU

Brock Bennett joined the Georgia State baseball coaching staff as volunteer assistant coach in 2015-16 after three seasons as an assistant coach at Georgia Perimeter College. He works with the Panthers' catchers, assists with hitting instruction and coaches first base.

In three seasons at Georgia Perimeter, Bennett helped the Jaguars win a pair of region titles. He coached the first-team all-conference catcher all three years, and four GPC players were drafted during his time there.

Before going to GPC in 2013, Bennett served one year as the head coach of the middle school team at the Lovett School in Atlanta.

Bennett was a standout catcher at Alabama (2007-11), where he compiled a .314 career batting average while starting more than 100 games, including 97 starts behind the plate. During his career, the Crimson Tide reached four straight NCAA Regionals and advanced to the Super Regionals in 2010.

He earned numerous accolades, including the 2010 Southeastern Conference All-Tournament team, National Player of the Week by College Baseball 360 and a spot on the Johnny Bench Award Watch List.

Bennett was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 33rd round of the 2011 Major League Baseball Draft. A native of Atlanta, Bennett is a 2006 graduate of Greater Atlanta Christian School.

Bennett is married to the former Ashley Skorcz.

COACHINGSTAFF

BRANDON KERSEY

Director of Baseball Operations
Fourth Year at GSU

Former Georgia State pitcher Brandon Kersey is in his third year as Georgia State's Director of Baseball Operations and his fourth year with the program.

Kersey was promoted to the Director of Operations position on head coach Greg Frady's staff in August 2013 after serving as graduate assistant for the baseball program in 2012-13.

Kersey lettered in 2005-06 for the Panthers before transferring to Georgia, where he completed his bachelor's degree in criminal justice/pre-law in 2009.

He earned a master's in sports administration from Georgia State in 2013.

In the summer of 2013, Kersey served as an assistant coach for the 6-4-3 DP Athletics team in the Sunbelt League, an Atlanta-based collegiate summer league. He previously coached with 9 Stars Baseball, Inc., in Cartersville, Ga.

Kersey is an Atlanta native who attended Harrison High School. He is married to the former Amanda Adams.
